Local Happenings

Mrs. T. J. Humphreys, with her children, Misses Leta and Evelyn and Mr. Roland Humphreys, returned to Heppner on Thursday evening from Eugene. The young people have been students during the year at the University of Oregon and Mrs. Humphreys was down for the closing days and to have a visit with relatives at Hillsboro and at other points in the Valley. Their return was delayed somewhat owing to an accident that befell Miss Evelyn, who was run over by an automobile in the streets of Eugene a few days before they were ready to come home. She escaped serious injury but was pretty badly bruised up at that.

Miss Greta Misner and Mr. Holmes Gabbert were married last Saturday at the residence of the bride's parents. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. Paul De F. Mortimore. After the wedding ceremony the happy couple took their departure for Prineville by way of Condon. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Misner, Mr. and Mrs. Mankin, Mrs. Gabbert who is the bridegroom's mother and her nephew, Wilford, Miss Vera Engleman and Miss Ruby Engleman. Mr. Gabbert is engaged in the printing business in Portland, and Miss Misner has been employed in the N. W. National Bank of the same city.—Ione Independent.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanson Hughes arrived home on Monday from a ten days trip to Portland and Puget Sound points. They visited Olympia, Wash., where Mr. Hughes was at one time located for a couple of years, and he was impressed with the great improvement that has taken place there. Several days were spent in Portland and it was quite cool there when Mr. and Mrs. Hughes left the city Monday morning. Mr. Hughes was also greatly impressed with the fine new roads that the state of Washington has been building, especially the Pacific highway, with a 20-foot roadway that is all paved with concrete.

Mrs. W. E. Bell returned home on Saturday from an extended visit to her old home in the state of Minnesota. Mrs. Bell had not visited the scenes of her childhood in twenty years, and she enjoyed this trip very much, though experiencing some pretty bad weather while away. Mrs. Bell was accompanied home by her father, N. A. Johnson, of Minneapolis, who will make his home here. Mr. Johnson is a retired railroad man, having followed this line of work for many long years and now compelled to retire on account of advanced age.

E. E. Bartholomew and wife drove up from their home near White Salmon, Wash., the end of the week and spent a few days visiting at the home of Chas. Bartholomew on Butter creek and with his mother, Mrs. Mary Bartholomew of this city. They returned home on Tuesday, Mrs. Bartholomew going with them to have a visit. Ed states that he is engaged in the truck farming business and raising of fruit and that the crops in that section are good. Fruit was not damaged by the frosts and his cherry crop is now coming on abundantly.

T. G. Denisse of this city was the lowest bidder on the construction of the new school building at Ione, his bid being $43,340. There were four other bids all from Portland firms, the highest of which was $52,000. Owing to the absence of one of the directors the contract was not let at the time of the opening of bids. Mr. Denisse will doubtless be awarded the contract. We are informed by Mr. Denisse, however, that he failed to get the contract, the job going to one of the Portland bidders.

Dr. and Mrs. Holden of Portland were in Heppner over Monday night. Dr. Holden was called to this city concerning Mrs. A. L. Ayers, who is quite seriously ill following an operation which she underwent about two weeks ago. At this time Mrs. Ayers seems to be slowly improving and her physician is encouraged to believe that she is on the road to recovery.

While in Hood River the first of the week, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Livingstone enjoyed a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Moore, formerly of Ione. Mr. and Mrs. Moore were preparing to depart from Hood River for Long Beach, California, where they expect to reside in the future, providing they find things to their liking. They were scheduled to leave Hood River on Wednesday.

C. M. Ragg was here from Willamina, Oregon, on Saturday. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Grant Walter, who are owners of a farm near that place and were interested in making a deal for some of the Al Henriksen land in this county, for which they would trade their Willamette valley holdings. The parties interested returned to Willamina on Sunday.

The marriage of Miss Nellie L. Clark of Eight Mile, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Clark, to Mr. Natie C. Allen of Redmond, Oregon, was solemnized at the home of the Rev. W. O. Livingstone in this city on Wednesday morning, June 25, Mr. Ray Shurtle and Miss Violet Merritt accompanying them. The young people will make their home at Redmond.

Ernest Heliker was in the city on Tuesday from Ione. Mr. Heliker and family just recently returned from an extended eastern trip, glad to be at home again. As he has his farm leased out, the family will reside in Ione. According to Mr. Heliker, eastern Oregon is O. K. and he has had ample opportunity to prove this to his entire satisfaction.

Mrs. J. S. Buseick and son, Reid Buseick, have been spending the past ten days over in Grant county, being at Canyon City for the '65 celebration, and enjoying a visit with friends at other points as well. Mrs.

Buseick formerly lived at Hamilton, where, with her late husband, J. S. Buseick, they carried on extensive ranching operations.

Mrs. Flora Hotchswender and Mrs. Clara Watkins, of Portland, sisters of Mrs. A. L. Ayers, were called to this city by the serious illness of Mrs. Ayers. Mrs. Watkins came up from Portland the first of the week and returned home on Wednesday. Mrs. Hotchswender has been with Mrs. Ayers since she underwent the operation.

Mrs. Jack Devore and her daughter, Mrs. A. F. Andrieff, of Oakridge, Oregon, came over from Pendleton where they have been visiting for several weeks. Mrs. Andrieff will visit with her parents at Rhea creek farm for some time before going to her home at Oakridge. The past year she has been teaching the school at Florence, Oregon.

The county clerk's office granted a license to wed to Mr. Vatie J. Allen of Redmond, Oregon, and Miss Nellie L. Clark of Eight Mile. Miss Clark, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Clark of Eight Mile, was a teacher during the past year in the school at Redmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bauman returned from their honeymoon trip Friday. They were absent about two weeks and enjoyed visiting many points along the coast from Portland to Astoria and also visited Salem and other places in the Willamette valley. They are now at home to their friends in their new residence on the Bauman farm on Willow creek.

Grover Swaggart left on Saturday afternoon for Joseph, where Mrs. Swaggart has been spending ten days visiting friends and relatives. They returned early in the week. On the trip to Joseph, Mr. Swaggart was accompanied by Miss Jean Crawford who was returning home after a visit of two weeks with Heppner relatives.

Clerk Anderson and family returned Saturday from their short vacation, spent at Portland and Vancouver, where they enjoyed visiting with relatives and friends. They also drove over to Rockaway beach and spent a day viewing the ocean.

G. L. Bennett and Ralph Finley were Alpine residents in town on Saturday. Mr. Bennett farms the Wm. Finley place and states that he will be in the midst of harvest before long. His yield will be light from present indications.

Bruce Spaulding, of Heppner, stopped off to visit his brother Earl, of this city, while on his way to Camp Lewis, where he expects to spend a couple of weeks at the civilian army training camp.—Hood River News.

The Misses Cleo and Ilo Merrill, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Merrill of Hardman, who have been students of the University of Oregon the past year, have returned to their home for the summer vacation.

Henry Williams and wife of Vale, Oregon, are visiting this week with the uncle and aunt of Mrs. Williams, A. L. Ayers and Mrs. Anna Spencer. Mrs. Williams was formerly Miss Amy Curran.

Al Troedson, prominent farmer of Morgan, was doing business here on Saturday.
