"OLD OREGON" EDITOR RESIGNS.
University of Oregon, Eugene, July 2.—Miss Grace Edgington, for several years alumni secretary and editor of Old Oregon, who resigned her post this spring, will leave the campus today. She will drive to Portland, and from there to Sisters, Oregon, where she plans to do a little ranching and some writing.
Miss Edgington, after graduating from the University of Oregon in '16, was for three years on the faculty of the University of Washington. In 1920 she returned to her alma mater as alumni secretary and editor of Old Oregon, the alumni magazine. At that time, Old Oregon was a quarterly publication, six by nine inches in size. Under Miss Edgington's editorship, the publication increased to three times its former size, and is now issued nine times a year.
In addition to her duties as alumni secretary and editor, Miss Edgington has been a member of the faculty as an assistant professor in the English department. She was acting dean of women in the spring term of 1923.

No Car Like It!

42 horsepower! 50 miles and more an hour—hour after hour—without over-heating—without loss of power—without carbon cleaning!

And at the end of a long sustained high speed, your motor will be cooler, will need less water than any similar sized poppet-valve engine.

This engine's power curve keeps climbing up while the power of a poppet-valve car is dropping off. Furthermore, the Willys-Knight is entirely free from those engine repairs which make up 50% of the upkeep cost of practically all poppet-valve cars. It has no cams—no springs—to get out of order. A car you can keep season after season. Take a ride today.
