STATE OF OREGON,
COUNTY OF MORROW, ss.
I, Gay M. Anderson, County Clerk of Morrow County, Oregon, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct account of all claims allowed by the County Court of Morrow County, Oregon; the funds on which said claims were drawn and the amount of outstanding warrants not paid, for the six months period ending June 30, 1924.
IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of my office this 10th day of July, A. D., 1924.
(SEAL) GAY M. ANDERSON, County Clerk.

Local Happenings

R. L. Bengo of Heppner is spending a few days at the lake. Mr. Bengo accompanied by his son Terrill and Harlan Devin. Mr. Bengo is a successful farmer of Morrow county. This is his first visit to Wallowa county, although he was born in Walla Walla county and has spent practically his entire life within 200 miles of Wallowa lake. He is favorably impressed with the lake and mountains and enjoying his visit. A few years ago Mr. Bengo was farming in the Lexington country and Roscoe Foster of Joseph worked for him for about a year.—Joseph Herald.

Earl Mathews, salesman of Portland, was in Heppner Friday and Saturday starting an advertising stunt for local stores in conjunction with the Star theatre. Earl lived in Heppner as a boy, leaving here when five years of age. However, he remembered several of his boyhood acquaintances and enjoyed a visit with them. He is the son of Green Mathews, who was engaged in the stock-raising business in Heppner's younger days.

Percy Locey, who won renown as a grid star at O. A. C., completing his football career last year as captain of the varsity squad, and who was also president of the Associated Students, spent several days in Heppner the last of last week and the first of this interesting prospective students in courses at the college. Mr. Locey will take a job as teacher in the University high school at Berkeley, Cal., the coming fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter LaDusire of Heppner are sojourning at Wallowa Lake and this week, Honey-Mooning would be more correct, for the young couple were married just before leaving Heppner. Mr. LaDusire formerly resided in Wallowa county. He worked for Brown brothers when they were operating their stock ranch in the Zumwalt section.—Joseph Herald.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Whittington of Bend were saying hello to old Heppner friends Saturday. They drove over in their car Friday, stopping at the N. L. Clark home in Eight Mile, and returned home Sunday. Mr. Whittington, who runs two theaters in the central Oregon metropolis, states that he is enjoying very good business.

Dr. A. D. McMurdo drove to Portland last Wednesday and took part in the Northwest handicap trap shoot at Everding park the last of the week. Though Doc didn't carry off the honors he made the good score of 96 out of a hundred targets in one event. He returned home Sunday evening.

E. M. Duffy, manager of the Duffy Commission company of Portland, was in Heppner Saturday. He had been in this vicinity for several days rounding up beef cattle, and supervised the shipment of several carloads to his company Sunday morning.

Henry Carr, elderly man engaged for many years as a handy man on stock ranches in this locality, was severely injured Thursday evening when a horse he was bridling fell on him. He sustained a broken collar bone and dislocated shoulder.

Elmer Peterson and Noel Dobyns were in Heppner Sunday evening, having the day off from their harvest labors in Eight Mile. Elmer was a student at the University of Oregon the past year, and will return this fall with senior standing.

Lou Ziegler and Mrs. Tillie Duncan returned the last of the week from a two-week vacation spent at Wallowa lake. They went down to Portland Friday and were accompanied home Saturday by T. B. Cox, Mr. Ziegler's brother-in-law.

Harvesting crews over the county were laid off a couple of days the last of the week by the heavy wind and rain. The storm hit the country generally and though quite severe for a time, crews were able to get into the fields again Monday.

Jim Nunemaker, who used to run the Rugg place on Rhea creek and who has resided at Hood River since leaving Morrow county several years ago, was greeting his old friends and acquaintances in the city the last of the week.

J. O. Turner and Sam Turner each sold several hundred sacks of seed wheat Friday to Tom Boylen, Jr., and A. E. Wattenburger of Butter creek. The price received was $1.10 in the field, sacks furnished by buyers.

Wilson Iler and Miss Olive Brown, of Boyd's, Wash., arrived in Heppner by car Saturday evening, being accompanied by Mr. Iler's sister, Mrs. Henry Aiken and children, who have been visiting at Mist, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Bergstrom, Eight Mile residents, were business visitors in the city Saturday. Mr. Bergstrom says his crop is pretty short this year and that his harvest, now started, will be short.

For Rent or Sale—One of the best sheep ranches in Eastern Oregon; contains 2680 acres; situated 12 miles southeast of Heppner on state highway. Address Mrs. Margaret Jones, Heppner, Ore.

Tom Boylen shipped 11 cars of sheep Tuesday morning for the Chicago market. The shipment consisted mainly of lambs and yearlings, part of which were purchased from Pat Connell.

J. B. Huddleston, Lone Rock sheepman, was in the city the last of the week. Several grave political and other issues were settled during his visit, Bruce Kelley helping to solve them.

Judge and Mrs. Gilbert W. Phelps and daughters, Miss Margaret and Miss Genevieve Phelps, left by automobile today for a visit to Seaside.—Thursday's East Oregonian.

Baird Patterson and wife motored to Long Beach to attend the auto races last week. Nate Macomber had charge of the garage during his absence.—Boardman Mirror.

E. Nordyke, prominent Lexington resident and manager of the Venturi garage of that place, was transacting business in Heppner Saturday.

Chance Wilson, Monument, brought a bunch of cattle to town Saturday which he shipped to the Portland market on Sunday.

T. J. Humphreys, son Roland and daughter Evelyn, returned Monday from a week's vacation trip to Portland and the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Baird Patterson of Boardman were in Heppner Sunday on a visit with friends and relatives.

Remember the BIG ALUMINUM SALE at Peoples Hardware Company, one day only, Saturday, July 26th.

R. L. Bengo, son Terrill and Harlan Devin returned home Friday evening from a vacation trip at Wallowa lake.

WANTED—25 steady boarders at eight dollars per week Best table board in town HOTEL HEPPNER.

Charles H. Latourel took in the big trap shoot in Portland Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week.

Mrs. Ada M. Ayers is recovering nicely from her recent severe illness, and is now able to sit up.

Waldo Vincent is convalescing from a severe attack of pneumonia and is now able to be about.

Pat Connell was in town a couple of days the first of the week from his Rhea creek ranch.

Ben Anderson and family, from their Eight Mile farm, were Heppner visitors Saturday.
