

Local Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Crawford, Miss Jane Crawford and Master Raymond Crawford of Berkeley, California, arrived at Heppner on Thursday evening last and have been visiting at the Vawter Crawford home for a week, leaving yesterday morning on their return journey to the San Francisco bay district. It has been four years since Mr. Crawford left Heppner for California, and this is his first visit to the place of his nativity since, while Mrs. Crawford has not visited here for a period of more than six years. They were accompanied to Heppner by Mr. and Mrs. Vawter Crawford, who spent some time on a visit at their home in Berkeley, and Miss Virginia Jones of Montecano, Wash., who was also in the party and has been enjoying a visit at the home of her grandparents during the week.

Mayor E. G. Noble and Mrs. Noble returned on Tuesday from a trip to various points in Washington and Oregon, spending the greater part of two weeks at Vancouver in Washington and at Monmouth and Independence in Oregon. In both sections Mr. Noble states that the grain crops are good this year, and there appears to be an air of prosperity, but on the whole people are just as well off in Morrow county. With a trip to the Willowa country and this later visit Mr. and Mrs. Noble have enjoyed a very delightful vacation season.

Judge W. T. Campbell and Mrs. Campbell, accompanied by Mrs. Hallett Minor and son Stanley, returned on Friday from a trip over in Washington, going as far as Spokane. Mrs. Minor and son visited with relatives at St. Johns in Whitman county, while Mr. and Mrs. Campbell visited with a brother of the judge residing near Spokane. Mrs. Wm. Crow, of Yack, B. C., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, returned with them and will visit with relatives here for a short time.

R. J. Carsner was here from Spray Sunday. He was on a business trip, but incidentally was looking after his political fences in this section, where his Democratic opponent resides. According to well informed political observers the state senatorial race in this district will be a lively one. A. B. Robertson is the Democratic candidate, but it is not believed that party considerations will cut much figure in the contest.—Condor Globe-Times.

Wm. Setward and wife of Wolf Creek, Oregon, were visitors at Heppner during the past week, driving up from their Douglas county home in their car and enjoying a good time with their numerous friends of former years. Mr. and Mrs. Setward left Heppner some fifteen or sixteen years ago and this is their first visit during that time. They have a nice home at Wolf Creek and like the southern Oregon country.

Mrs. Emmett Cochran who sang "It Ain't a'Goin' to Rain, No More," and other songs so delightfully at the Pioneers' picnic at Service creek last Sunday and saved the lives of the program committee, is visiting the families of Joe Stewart, Joe Simas and other friends in the Kinberly and Spray vicinities.—Fossil Journal.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Crawford and daughter Jenn drove over to Heppner on Saturday from their home at Joseph, which city is situated right near the rim of the wonderful Willowa lake, and after spending a couple of days here, returned home Tuesday, being accompanied by Jasper Crawford, who will spend a couple of weeks "vacating" in the vicinity of the mountains and lakes of that section.

Hon. Milton A. Miller, democratic nominee for senator, was in Heppner over Thursday night on his itinerary of the eastern part of the state, and while here made it a point to get acquainted with some of the voting population. Since the visit of Mr. Miller here, there has been a display of various windows about the city.

Roger W. Morse, county agent, returned on Tuesday from Baker where during the week he attended a conference of the county agents of the eastern portion of the state. He states that the crops around Baker are pretty good this season, but owing to the alfalfa weevil the hay raisers will suffer, the crops of that county being under quarantine.

Mrs. L. W. Briggs, who has been quite ill at her home in this city for the past two weeks, is reported to be slowly recovering. Mrs. Briggs has been suffering with an attack of the flu and for a number of days was threatened with pneumonia but is hopeful now that this stage of the ailment has been passed.

P. M. Garrigues, wife and child, passed through Heppner on Wednesday on their way from Portland to Yellowstone National Park, expecting to spend about a month in enjoying a vacation. A few hours were spent in Heppner while Mr. Garrigues looked after some business matters here.

Mrs. Lucy McCarter arrived from Baker on Sunday and is visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Henry Howard. Her husband, Fred McCarter, died at Baker on July 26th, after a short illness and Mrs. McCarter contemplates making her home at Heppner in the future.

Miss Florence Ralston is spending a part of her summer vacation on a visit with friends at Heppner. She arrived in this city on Sunday from her home at Casper, Wyoming, in which city she has a position with a banking house. Miss Ralston will spend a week here.

Larry Hagan, general salesman of the Standard Oil Co., with headquarters at Walla Walla, was in Heppner the first of the week conferring with the management of the local station. He had been on a tour of the various stations of the company in this part of Oregon.

Mrs. Ida Balthis of Los Angeles, a cousin of Mrs. L. W. Briggs, is a guest at the Briggs home in this city. Mrs. Balthis has been on a tour of Alaska and the Pacific northwest and expects to remain at Heppner for some time.

Cecil Lieuellen, state highway traffic officer covering Eastern Oregon territory by motorcycle, is enjoying a two weeks vacation and was visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lieuellen in Heppner over the week end.

W. V. Pedro of Cecil was in the city yesterday. Mr. Pedro is a recent arrival in Morrow county, being the new owner of the Hamilton ranch in the mountains, and a portion of the Al Henrickson alfalfa ranch at Cecil.

J. A. Patterson left Sunday for Pasadena, Calif., where he will spend a week or ten days visiting with his son Ben, who is now engaged in the drug store business in the Southern California city.

Relatives in this city have been informed of the arrival of a son at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Adkins of Aberdeen, Wash., the young man being presented to the family on July 30th.

LIKE A PHOENIX FROM THE FLAMES

The people of the Northwest were dismayed Wednesday afternoon, July 23, when they heard of the disaster which had overtaken the great Pacific International Live Stock Exposition. Its magnificent building in North Portland, Oregon, caught fire from a burning shingle mill, and in a half hour was reduced to ashes.

This splendid plant, the largest and most conveniently arranged and equipped structure of its kind in the world, covered over 10 acres of land. It cost approximately $500,000. However, it was insured for about $350,000 and General Manager O. M. Plummer states positively that the Exposition will be held November 1 to 8, inclusive, without fail, and that already assurances are coming from every quarter of the compass of aid and entries for livestock. He says: "The Exposition will be bigger and better than ever. Naturally, all our plans have not been completed, but we expect to rebuild and work will be commenced at once. The Pacific International Live Stock Exposition is so solidly founded and so important an institution that even a great blow such as this cannot halt its growth and progress."

The new building which will take the place of the one just destroyed will follow the same plan, so admirable did that plan prove to be. The amphitheater will probably be made somewhat larger, but the general construction will be the same as before. It seems that it cannot be bettered.

Mrs. Martha Wood of Berkeley, Calif., arrived in Heppner Tuesday to make an extended visit at the home of her nephew, R. W. Turner, and her niece Mrs. W. G. McCarty.

Harry Jones drove up from his home at Eugene on Monday and spent a day at Heppner looking after business interests.

Mrs. Pauline Quaid came in from Portland on Sunday and has been spending the week at Heppner attending to business matters.
