

Local Happenings

See Driskell, formerly a well-known resident of Heppner and Morrow county, arrived here from Ritter Hot Springs the first of the week and has been a guest at the home of his daughter, Mrs. R. L. Benges. Having been in poor health for some time, Mr. Driskell decided to take the baths at Ritter, and after about fifteen days he is fully restored to health and says he never felt better in his life. It is fourteen years since Mr. Driskell left Heppner and he notes a great many changes in the appearance of the city in that time. He will accompany the family of Mr. Benges to Portland, where they will visit with relatives for a day or so, then drive to his home at Lewiston, the Benges returning via Walla Walla to Heppner in time for the opening of school. They leave here on Friday.

Kenneth Robb and Samuel Baer of Baker were in Heppner Tuesday on business. They are from Canyon City and going on from here to Pendleton. These gentlemen are interested in securing members for the Scottish Rite Consistory at Baker. Accompanying them was Hon. O. P. Coshaw, candidate on the democratic ticket for justice of the supreme court and present incumbent of that office. Mr. Coshaw is also Grand Master of the Masons of Oregon and was at Canyon City where he attended a big Masonic picnic during the past week. He is visiting the cities of Eastern Oregon in the interest of his candidacy.

C. C. Chapman, editor of the Oregon Voter, accompanied by his wife and daughter and R. S. Howard, vice-president of Ladd and Tilton bank of Portland and his grandson, Robert S. Howard, were in Heppner for a short time on Thursday afternoon. Mr. Chapman and Mr. Howard are making a vigorous campaign in support of the income tax repeal measure. They have been making the principal points all over the state and Heppner is on the list of their journey of several thousand miles.

Rev. N. J. Reasoner and wife of Athena, were visitors here over Sunday. Mr. Reasoner has been pastor of the Christian church at Athena during the past year, and preached for the congregation of the Church of Christ here on Sunday morning, and also at the union meeting at the Methodist church in the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Reasoner returned to their home at Athena on Monday.

For Sale—300 acres of good stubble pasture; one stack straw and one stack wheat hay. Running water through place. Eph Eskelson, Lexington, Ore. Stp.

Mrs. Pat Kubat, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. LeTrace of this city, arrived by auto from Portland at the end of the week from her home there. She returned to Portland on Tuesday, being accompanied by her mother, Mrs. LeTrace and her sister, Mrs. Orain Wright, who contemplate spending a couple of weeks visiting in the city.

R. L. Burkhardt and wife of Albany spent Sunday and a portion of Monday in Heppner, enjoying a visit with their old-time friends, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Huston. Mr. Burkhardt, who is a breeder of fine Jersey cattle, is making a tour of the Eastern Oregon country, taking in all of the principal towns and cities and not missing any of the points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Jones, of Pasco, arrived here late Saturday evening to spend a few days with relatives. They returned home yesterday, being accompanied by Mrs. E. N. Crawford, mother of Mrs. Jones, who will spend a portion of the fall months at the Jones home in Pasco.

Frank Turner and family, accompanied by Miss Lorena Palmateer, departed Sunday morning for Lehman Springs. They will spend a week at this popular resort and expect to drive over to the Wallowa Wonderland and spend a few days at the lake before returning to Heppner. Miss Palmateer intended visiting with the Howard M. James family at Pilot Rock.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanson Hughes departed Monday for their vacation which they will spend at Portland and other points in Oregon and Washington. They were accompanied as far as Portland by Mrs. Riley Judy, who was returning home after a short visit with relatives here.

Chas. Vaughn and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stone, Earl Gilliam and family, Mr. and Mrs. Will Ball, Mr. and Mrs. Orval Rasmus are among the Heppnerites who departed the end of the week for a fortnight's sojourn at Lehman Springs, which is quite a popular resort this season.

Prof. and Mrs. E. H. Hedrick arrived here on Friday last from Ashland, where they had been spending a short vacation following the close of the summer school sessions at Eugene. Mr. Hedrick is getting things ready for the opening of the fall term of school.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ferguson arrived here on Monday evening from a trip to Montezuma, Wash. They were accompanied by the Misses Margaret and Mary Crawford who have been absent for some time, visiting with relatives at Portland and at Montezuma.

The Gilliam County fair dates are October 2, 3 and 4 at Condon, and preparations are being made for a big display of livestock and agricultural exhibits, combined with three days of horse racing and a track meet for the school children of Gilliam county.

J. A. Patterson arrived home on Sunday from Pasadena, Calif., having spent three weeks on a visit to his son, E. B. Patterson, who is engaged in business at that Southern California city. He reports Ben feeling fine and enjoying a good business.

The Misses Rubina and Violet Corrigall and Ellen Bergstrom returned on Monday from two weeks of vacation spent at Lehman Springs and Wallowa Lake. Miss Ruby Corrigall is again at her place in the First National bank.

Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Johnston returned on Monday after spending two weeks of vacation at Portland and the beach. Dr. Johnston is now again busy at his office in the I. O. O. F. building.

The family of W. P. Mahoney returned Sunday from a short sojourn at Lehman Springs. Mr. Mahoney taking his vacation from the duties at the First National bank.
