

Local Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Evans are down from their home at Walla Walla for a few days. Mr. Evans was called here to close up a deal for the Frank and Jeff Evans place at Lexington, known as the Summers place, which has been purchased by Clark brothers of Lone. While the Walla Walla country received a very heavy rain a couple of weeks ago, it is very dry there again and no relief is expected until the fall rains set in.

County Treasurer L. W. Briggs and daughter, Miss Opal Briggs, returned on Thursday last from their vacation. They enjoyed a fine trip, going from here to Bend and returning through Wheeler and Grant counties to Ritter, where Mrs. Briggs and her cousin, Mrs. India Bothis, will remain for a few weeks in the hope that the baths at the springs may prove beneficial to the health of Mrs. Briggs.

Wm. Warner and son, Wm. R. Warner, of Alderdale, Wash., and Messrs. C. T. Smith and Frank Hogue of Stevenson, Wash., were visitors in Heppner yesterday. Mr. Warner is a merchant at Alderdale and Mr. Smith and Mr. Hogue are interested in the establishment of a ferry at Boulder, across the Columbia and off the gentlemen were here to interview the county court in regard to the matter.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stone got home on Sunday from their outing, spent at Lehman Springs, Wallawa Lake and Baker, their old home. Bert reports that it is hard to get away from the Heppner folks these days, and you find them wherever you may go. At one time there were 37 of the Heppner folks at Lehman and they were all having a jolly good time.

The Willing Workers of the Christian church are making preparations to serve a cafeteria dinner at the church dining hall on the second and third days of the Rodeo. They will also have on display a quantity of fancy work, house aprons, etc., and a delightful rest room will be maintained for the ladies visiting the city on this occasion.

R. L. Bengtson and family departed for Lewiston, Idaho, on Sunday, taking with them Mrs. Bengtson's father, See Driskell, who visited here for several days the past week. They expect to return home by the end of this week.

Mrs. Nellie Woodard and daughter Eliene, of Molalla, Oregon, were visitors in the city during the past week, returning home this morning. Mrs. Woodard is a niece of Jas. and Harry Archer of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Robertson of Pendleton visited over the week-end with C. W. Valentine and family and Alex Gibb and family, coming to Heppner Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Gibb. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robertson during the past week there was a gathering of the Scots and the Valentine and Gibb families were present. Mr. Robertson is with Balfour, Guthrie & Co., at Pendleton.

District Attorney Notson was called to Seattle on Monday night upon receipt of word that his daughter, Miss Mary Notson, who has been very ill in a hospital there for several weeks was worse. Her condition has reached a point where blood transfusion is found necessary and the outcome was very much in doubt.

Mr. and Mrs. Reynold E. Finch arrived home Sunday morning from their summer's vacation, the most of which Mr. Finch spent in a lumber camp in northern California. They enjoyed a fine outing and return to take up their duties as teachers in the Heppner school.

Judge and Mrs. W. T. Campbell returned home from Portland on Tuesday evening. They were in the city to attend the marriage of their son Arthur to Miss Wanda Daggett, which was an event of Monday, September 1.

Spencer Akers came over from Centralia, Wash., on Sunday to be at the bedside of his little granddaughter, Edith Marie Barlow, who is very ill with intestinal flu. The child is reported to be improving slowly.

Percy Hughes and family returned home from Rockaway beach on Tuesday. The family has been spending a number of weeks at the popular coast resort and Mr. Hughes was with them for about ten days.

Carl and Earl Miller arrived here Friday from Robinett, Oregon, for a short visit with relatives. Carl has been engaged in the drayage and forwarding business at Robinett for a number of years.

B. P. Doherty was in the city on Friday. He states there was comparatively little hay raised in his part of the county this season. His family enjoyed a short vacation at Lehman Springs.

Chas. Vaughn and family and Earl Gilliam and family returned on Tuesday evening from a stay of some two weeks at Lehman Springs.

Frank Turner and family arrived home Friday after a short vacation at Lehman Springs.

W. G. Scott, Lexington warehouseman and banker, was doing business here yesterday.

Prof. and Mrs. E. H. Hedrick motored over to Robinett on Tuesday, where Mr. Hedrick was called on business. They were accompanied by Mrs. Anna Spencer who is on her way to Spokane and will visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Asa Thompson in that city.

Joe Simas, Grant county stockman, was in town on Tuesday from his home at Kimberly. He reports a good hay crop on the river where there is irrigation, but it seems to him that this has been one of the driest seasons in his experience. Big rains are needed to put the range in good condition.

Passing through Heppner on Friday, on their return from the coast, Judge G. W. Phelps and family remained over for a day while Mr. Phelps held a short term of circuit court and went over the docket. They had been spending the summer at the coast and were on their way to Pendleton.

Mrs. Lucy McCarter, who has been visiting for some time at the home of her mother, Mrs. Henry Howard, departed Wednesday morning for Baker, which city has been her home for a number of years past, and where she will continue to reside.

Dr. A. D. McMurdo left on Saturday for Portland where he took part in the big shoot on Sunday and Monday. From there he went on to the coast to join his family who have been at Rockaway for several weeks.

The Misses Odile and May Groshens and Master Paul Hiler left for Portland on Saturday to remain for the winter. Paul and May will attend school in the city and Miss Odile will keep house for them.

Ruth Chapter No. 32 will resume their regular meetings at Masonic hall the second Friday in September, being the evening of the 12th. No meetings were held during July and August.
