DEFENSE DAY TO BE OBSERVED BY CITY

Mayor Noble Proclaims Holiday Asking Citizens To Co-operate.

PROGRAM ARRANGED

Local Committee Appointed By Re est of Governor; C. E. Woodson Will Make Patriotic Address.

In accordance with the request of Governor Pierce that every city of the state make National Defense Test Day a holiday, with proper observ-ance, Mayor Noble has issued a pro-clamation to this effect. Therefore, the business houses of Heppner will close their doors tomorrow, and in the morning will take part in the fol-lowing program arranged by the committee in charge:

At 10:15 a parade, consisting of school children, American Legion Elks and other fraternal orders, will form on Main street at First National bank. The parade will march to the fair pavilion where the following program will be given:

3-Male quartette.
4-Address Hon. C. E. Woodson -Pledge to the Flag.

7-Benediction Hon. Walter M. Pierce, governor of Oregon, upon receipt of the National plan authorized by the President and Secretary of War, and at the request of Major General Charles G. Morton, commander of the Western army area to carry out the pian of the day in Oregon. Following the first meeting of the state committee, the Governor adopted the recommendation of the committee that the Defense Test programme be conducted by the various communities of the state and the mayor of each city be asked to name mayor or each city be asked to name a committee to carry out the local plans. The Governor's letter to the mayors, giving a statement of the scope and aims of the day, is as fol-lows:

State of Oregon, Executive Department, Salem, August 12, 1924.

I am asked by the government cooperate in the matter of a test of out National Defense to be held September 12 of this year, the sixth an-niversary of the battle of St. Mihiel. Inasmuch as I am in hearty accord with the government plan, believing that in a well-maintained provision for our National Defense and an active interest in patriotic matters our National securiay depends, I am very desirous that Oregon's part in the National program be successful in the fullest degree.

Patriotic exercises of some sort, in which the higher duties and responsibilities of American citizenship are discussed by speakers selected for the occasion, suggest themselves as being highly appropriate for this occasion. In cities where there are National Guard or Reserve Corps organizations the exercises should be conducted in conjunction with the local instruction return of National Forest receipts, according to information just received at the office of the District Forester, Portland, Oregon.

Under act of congress, one fourth of all money received by the Forest Service from timber sales, summer homesite leases, grazing permits and other miscellaneous uses is returned directly to the counties in which National Forests are located to be spent by them for roads and schools. An additional 10 per cent of such receivts is made available for use on forest roads and trails. This is in addition to the heavy expenditure made directly by the Federal Government on the cooperative road program.

Try-Outs for Entrants

On Sunday next at Rodeo grounds will be held a try-out of horses for the coming events of Heppner's big round-up. This will be for the purpose of determining what horses will be eligible for the events, and it is expected that a goodly number of the worst buckers and "outlaws" of the worst buckers and "outlaws" of this section will be presented in these preliminaries. Those having horses they wish to get on the Rodeo program should have them here on Sunday, the 14th, for these try-outs.
