

CECIL NEWS ITEMS

"All things come to those who wait" Rain was thickly received during the dark hours of Monday, October 23rd at Cecil. We all held our breath and our dumb animals held their mouths wide open to receive the first drops of rain that have fallen here for many a long week. Rain has been our portion for most of the week and especially on Halloween. Not even the black cats, witches or pumpkins dared venture out in the deluge of rain which fell. Children, disgusted, instead of singing "Trick or Treat" to "Rain No More," sang "Rain, Rain, Go Away, Come Again Another Day," but it was no use. At time of writing, Nov. 1st, it "rains heavy" and the smiles on the farmers' faces are getting broader at the prospect of moisture their wheat land is receiving, as it means so much to them and also to the parched condition of the stock ranges.

Mrs. E. Cochran and Frank Turner of Heppner were calling on Mrs. T. H. Lowe at Cecil on Wednesday. Mrs. Cochran, who is county chairman for the Red Cross, left supplies with Mrs. Lowe, who will act as chairman for the Cecil vicinity, and who will be pleased to take your dollar and enroll anyone as a member of the Annual Red Cross of A. R. C.; on duty day and night a Cecil store. While Mrs. Lowe was in Heppner on October 27 two gentlemen, Messrs. Max and Sam Gerfelle of Pendleton, kindly handed her their membership fees for 1925. Come and do likewise and help the good work along with a "dollar and a smile."

Miss Etta Van Winkle of Arlington was visiting Mrs. Geo. Krebs at the Last Camp on Saturday while waiting for the repairs for a car which came to grief near Cecil. Miss Etta and party of friends were on their way to Lexington.

Mrs. Oscar Lundell accompanied her guests, Mrs. Eric Waldo and children, of Eugene, to Boardman on Monday where they visited their old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson.

W. A. Thomas of Dethaboy's Hill was paying his weekly visit in Cecil on Saturday and is patiently waiting for the rain to cease till he can go ahead with his seeding.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Franklin of Echo arrived in Cecil on Saturday. Mr. Franklin has taken a contract to do some leveling for W. V. Padra on his ranch near Ewing.

Mrs. Clara Wallace, who has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. Geo. Krebs at the Last Camp some time, left on Sunday for Arlington and other points.

M. V. Logan of the Willows, candidate for sheriff of Gilliam county, called on his old friends in Cecil on Saturday while on his way home from Ross Creek.

E. Carlson and family of Shedd, Ore., are spending a few days with their old friends Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Chandler at Willow creek ranch.

Gordon Hall and Hazel Dean of Eight Mile were busy men on Saturday delivering stock at Oscar Lundell's ranch near Khea Siding.

Carl Troedson, W. E. Ahalt, Sr., and other prominent gentlemen of Ione, were trying out their guns on the Cecil jackrabbits on Monday.

Miss Minnie H. Low, teacher of Khea Siding school, attended the Teachers' Institute at Condon on Saturday.

T. Nail and party of friends made a short visit at Ewing on Friday before leaving for their home in Spokane.

Mrs. Lena Small Shurte, county school superintendent, was visiting in the Cecil district on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Streeter and children of Cecil were doing business in Ione on Saturday.

Mrs. Pat Medlock of Morgan was visiting Mrs. Alf Medlock at Rockcliffe on Saturday.

STOCKMEN ATTENTION. Several hundred tons of alfalfa for sale, also good sized block of late fall, winter and spring range. Address: Owner, Box 283, Hermiston.

The ladies of Bethel Chapel will hold their annual fancy work sale December 4. Don't forget the date.

MARIE PREVOST, JOHN ROCHE and ROCLIFF FELLOWES in

"CORNERED"

A photoplay version of a great Broadway success, a picture of the unusual, the unique, the unexpected. A thrilling and surprising mystery play with a psychological twist. We can heartily recommend this picture as thoroughly entertaining.

Also "LEATHERSTOCKINGS"

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 8

CONWAY TEARLE, LON CHANEY and DOROTHY MACNAIL in

"THE NEXT CORNER"

From the novel and play by Kate Jordan. The story of a young wife who couldn't discern between the real and artificial. A big theme well acted.

SUNDAY AND MONDAY, NOV. 9 & 10

CLAIR WINDSOR and NORMAN KERRY in

"THE ACQUITTAL"

Adapted by Geo. M. Cohan from Rita Weiman's sensational play.

One of the most gripping, enthralling pictures ever made from one of the most powerful mystery plays ever written. Its picture that will keep you guessing from beginning to end. It will give you the surprise of your life and the most thrilling motion picture entertainment you've had in many a day. Don't miss it.

THE ACQUITTAL is a Universal Super Jewel, which means that it is one of the outstanding photoplays of the year, and it has lived up to this designation, receiving the most favorable comment in all first-run cities.

Also Aesop's Fables and Topics of the Day.

TUES. AND WEDS., NOV. 11 AND 12

MADGE KENNEDY and MONTE BLUE in

"THE PURPLE HIGHWAY"

The screen version of a Broadway hit, with a Broadway star and a story that treats of Broadway stages. (Adapted from Rufus Steele's play Dear Me.)

Success or failure, or just a struggler dreaming of reaching the purple heights, you'll be happier for seeing little April Blair lead a group of failures up The Purple Highway, through struggle and heartache, to the land of Dreams-Come-True.

Also "KING LEARY"

One of H. C. Witwer's Telephone Girl stories.
