

Local Happenings

Wm. Ayers, janitor at the court house, came near "getting his" on Sunday. Bill is the superintendent, mechanic and conductor of the line of railroad leading from the county's wood yard into the basement. His car got out of order and it was necessary that it be repaired. This Mr. Ayers proceeded to do by rolling the car into the basement and turning it up on its side. He removed one of the cast iron wheels and placed it on top of the turned up car and was down at work. In some manner the wheel was jarred from its resting place and fell, striking Mr. Ayers on the head and cutting a nasty gash, the effect of the blow laying him out. His son, Charlie, was at work upstairs and heard the groans of his father and rushed to his relief. Aside from a severe bruise on the head and the cut mentioned, Mr. Ayers escaped further injury and at last reports had about recovered from its effects.

Eugene McCarthy, extensive sheep owner of Casper, Wyoming, was in Heppner over the week-end looking for sheep to buy but could not get what he wanted. He reports the sheep industry on the up-grade in his state and quite a number of flockmasters have been contracting their 1925 clip. Some 60,000 fleeces, among which was the clip of Mr. McCarthy, have been sold on contract at 40c to Draper & Co., and 15,000 fleeces were later contracted to Howell, Jones & Donald at 42 1/2c per pound. No contracting has been done so far in Oregon, and the local sheepmen will not likely do any. They are pretty well convinced that a better price will be received for their 1925 clip and it should reach 50 cents for the better grades of wools.

A. S. Fetterman, representing the Spokane Draper Co. of Spokane, Wn., called on their dealers here on Saturday. The Peoples Hardware Co. of this city handle the product of the Spokane Draper Co. and will continue to represent them at Heppner during the coming season. Mr. Fetterman made this office a pleasant call, stating he had been requested to do so by Rev. H. A. Van Winkle, formerly pastor of the Christian church here, and now pastor of the First church in Spokane, where he is doing a fine work. One of the features of his work is the big men's class of over 600 to which Mr. Fetterman belongs. This class is aside from a membership of better than 1000 in Mr. Van Winkle's church.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Peterson returned the first of last week from their honeymoon trip, covering a period of about two months, which was spent at the former home of Mrs. Peterson in McPherson, Kansas. The young couple were married in Portland on Sept. 22nd, and left immediately for Kansas. Mrs. Peterson was formerly Miss Esther Ingstrom of Portland. They were given a royal welcome by their numerous friends and neighbors upon their return to the Peterson farm south of Ione, where they expect to reside.

The Oregon State Game Commission is offering the following additional bounties on predatory animals: wolf, $25; cougar, $25; wild cat, $3. These bounties are in addition to those paid by the various counties. Hides must be presented to the county clerk in the county in which the animal was killed and affidavit of such killing be made and forwarded to the State Game Commission. All wolf hides must be forwarded to the Commission for identification.

Ora L. Barlow, one of the young farmers living south of Ione, was a visitor in Heppner for a short time on Monday. He states that grain in his part of the county is sprouting well but as yet has not appeared much above the ground, due to the cold weather. A plentiful supply of moisture has fallen so far and the crop conditions are not unfavorable.

Mrs. Veasey, engaged in raising sheep in the Yakima country, was a visitor in Heppner the first of the week, desiring to purchase lambs and old ewes. We did not learn whether she succeeded in getting what she wanted or not. As a matter of fact, there are not a great many sheep of any kind to be disposed of here just at present.

The Women's Auxiliary of All Saints church will hold their annual bazaar on December 2nd at the store of Gilliam & Bisbee. There will be many articles of fancy work, etc., suitable for Christmas gifts.

A delegation of 11 young people, representing the C. E. society of the Christian church at Ione, attended the district convention at Stanfield last week. From reports, the gathering was a very profitable one and much enjoyed by all attending.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Starkey of this city at the maternity home of Mrs. G. C. Aiken on Monday, November 17.
