Give $55,000,000

James B. Duke, Power and Tobacco magnate of North Carolina, and George Eastman, Kodak king of New York, unknown to each other, on the same day announced gifts of their millions to charity and educational institutions. Mr. Duke gave $40,000,000 and Mr. Eastman $15,000,000. The latter, however, had formerly given away some $38,000,000.

Come in and see our "Before and After Taking," Tum-A-Lumber Book. A prize book of suggestions for making a modern home out of the old house, with many illustrations and plans. TUM-A-LUM LUMBER CO. Heppner, Lexington, Iowa

Bible school of Lexington and the Christian Bible school of Creswell has not closed yet, and as we want Lexington to win out, let us all go to Sunday school next Sunday morning.

Despite the absence of electric lights Friday night, the Congregational church party was a decided success, there being a good attendance. The proceeds were something over twenty-seven dollars.

Oscar Bartholomew, who is a student at O. A. C., spent Friday night here on his way to Pine City where he will remain for the holidays at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bartholomew.

Ray Phillips had the misfortune to dislocate his knee one day this week. Dr. Walker of Ione put the knee back in place and Ray is able to hobble around with the aid of a cane now.

Karl Beach drove over to Walla Walla Saturday after Mrs. Beach and the boys. They arrived here Saturday evening and Mrs. Beach and the boys will remain over the holidays.

Ira Lewis ran his car off the grade between Lexington and Heppner Tuesday afternoon, breaking a front wheel. Fortunately Mr. Lewis escaped injury.

Dallas Ward and Elmo McMillan motored up from Corvallis to spend Christmas with friends and relatives. Both these young men are attending O. A. C.

No electric lights again Tuesday night. This is getting to be an old story with Lexington as the town has been in darkness quite often of late.

A big basketball game was scheduled for Tuesday night between the high school and town teams. Because of no lights it had to be postponed.

Misses Wilma and Opal Leach arrived Saturday from O. A. C. to spend the Christmas holidays with their mother, Mrs. Leach McMillan.

Prof. and Mrs. Fred Kelly left for Portland Saturday morning where they will spend the holidays with friends and relatives.

Ben Boone arrived Monday from Roseburg for a visit with his young friends, Danny Joe Burgoyne and Sonny Zochert.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Pomeroy of Kelo, Wash., arrived Tuesday to spend Christmas with relatives and friends.

Andrew Briscoe of Baker arrived here Sunday night on his way to visit the Dan Doherty home in Sand Hollow.

Bruce Brady is driving a brand new Ford sedan purchased this week from Latourell Auto Co. of Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Helms of Ione are spending the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Helms.

Miss Myrtle McNeil left on Saturday's stage for Portland where she will visit during the holidays.

Several of our citizens are very busy this week putting up ice and are reaping an abundant harvest.

Mrs. Leach McMillan, who has been very ill for the past three weeks, is slowly improving.

Walter Sankey of Fossil is here to spend the holidays with his mother, Mrs. Alva Jones.

Fred Benge is here from Spokane for a visit with his sister, Miss Gladys Benge.

Mrs. Gerald White went to Portland Saturday to spend a few days shopping.

Mrs. T. W. Cutsforth is reported very ill at her home north of town.

Miss Esther Lemeris is spending her Christmas vacation in Seattle.

H. L. McAllister returned from Pendleton Tuesday.

new method of treating pneumonia, before the members of the New York State Physicians' Organization. With this new method, six hundred cases of pneumonia were treated, without one death. Dr. Gerin also treats pernicious anemia without blood transfusion.

May wheat has passed $1.64. It will sell higher. Farmers are rushing their grain to market now, feeling that these prices will do. You will remember that this column predicted $1.50 wheat when the price was below $1.20. Unfortunately, gamblers have probably made more than farmers.

although the farmers, for whom this is written, have also profited—those that held their wheat.

A first-class gross business of six thousand million dollars a year for the big first-class railroads ought to make some profits possible, with reasonable economy and modern methods.

However, it is so much easier to raise freight and passenger rates than it is to economize or keep up to date, especially when you have no real competition.

STOCKMEN ATTENTION—Alfalfa hay for sale, also with it several thousand acres sheep range, good fall-winter-early spring range. J. W. Messner, Hermiston, Ore.

For Sale—Two thoroughbred yearling Hereford bulls. Can be registered. Price $60.00 each. Porter & Conley, Boardman, Ore. n26-4.

FOR RENT—7-room house, ample grounds with good garden spot and place to keep cow and chickens. Inquire C. A. Minor.

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

Add that personal touch to your Xmas and New Years Greetings

It is not possible for everyone to be by the old fireside where good will is imparted to all. Yet it is possible for everyone to give their greetings by word of mouth through the use of the Long Distance Telephone. No matter where it be our long distance lines will carry your voice of good cheer and fellowship to your loved ones, thus giving that satisfaction which could only be surpassed by a personal visit.

We especially call your attention to our evening rates effective after 8:30 p. m. in connection with Station to Station calls. These are approximately one-half the day rates.

Star Theater

Thursday and Friday, December 25-26

ERNEST TORRENCE, CULLEN LANDIS, MARY ASTOR and NOAH BERRY in

"THE FIGHTING COWARD"

Produced by James Cruze from the story by BOOTH TARKINGTON

The hilarious adventures of a likeable young coward who developed courage and became the self-styled "great unchained alligator of the dismal Florida swamps" Here's a COMEDY! One that nestly deserves to be spelled in capital letters! One that will make you laugh as you never laughed before.

Better be in a ringside seat when The Fighting Coward finds his nerve.

Saturday, December 27

JACQUELINE LOGAN and DAVID TORRENCE in

"THE DAWN OF A TO-MORROW"

From the novel by Francis Hodgson Burnett.

Here's drama as you like it—thrill-fired, soul-warming, entertaining. With popular Jacqueline Logan in her most appealing role.

Also "GRID IRON GLORY"
Grantland Rice on Football.

Sunday and Monday, December 28-29

WILLARD LOUIS and CARMEL MEYERS in

"BABBITT"

By Sinclair Lewis, the author of "Main Street"

The story of a typical middle-aged American business man who hungered after romance, who got fed up with the bickerings of his family, and who came back after tasting the bitter-sweet of a love affair.

Also "FABLES" and "TOPICS"

Tuesday and Wednesday, Dec. 30-31

POLA NEGRI in

"MEN"

"Men" with fat purses and thin ideals, with silk hats and ragged morals, with shining limousines and stained souls—all fluttering around the flame of a girl who has learned to hate all men, and made them pay for her bitter schooling.

The sensational Pola's most sensational picture. For grownups.

Also Two reel comedy.
