CECIL NEWS ITEMS. We are glad to see W. G. Palmateer of Windybrook around again after his recent severe attack of tonsillitis. Good reports are coming in from the family of John Gray at Shady Dell near Cecil who are now under strict quarantine on account of infantile paralysis. The Red Cross has a nurse in attendance at the Gray home. W. A. Thomas of Dotschboys Hill was a Cecil visitor on Sunday and trying to find out whether the majority of the wheat in this district is frozen out or not. Reports on hand are not definite as to the damage which the late frosts have done. Dick Logan and Harvey Smith of Cecil made a hurried trip to Cecil on Saturday in search of the weather reports and wheat market reports which are of big interest to these young ranchmen, the coming wheat men of Morrow county. Howard Hardesty of Morgan was visiting the Streeter boys on Sunday and was having the time of his life until he took a fall off his bicycle and found the ground at Cecil harder than the Morgan ground. E. Bennett, assisted by H. Cox of Heppner, are making all things shine at the Shepherd's Rest and intend to put out their sign shortly. "At home from sunset to sunrise."

Pat McEntire and Pat Curran are busy men this week hauling corn from Cecil warehouse to Killarney ranch where they have several bands of sheep feeding. Jack Hynd made a trip to Hynd Bros. ranch in Sand Hollow on Tuesday to arrange for more sheep to come to Hynd Bros. ranch near Cecil for the winter. Mrs. L. L. Funk and daughter, Miss Geraldine, of Cecil accompanied by Mrs. Geo. Krebs and sons of the Last Camp were visiting in Ione on Saturday. Oral Henriksen of the Moore ranch near Heppner was busy measuring hay on his ranch near Ewing which he has sold to R. A. Thompson of Heppner. Kenneth Logan of Boardman spent Thursday and Friday with his brother Leon at Four Mile and was also calling on his friends at Cecil. W. V. Pedro and Mrs. Joe Pedro made a short call in Cecil on Sunday before leaving for the home of Mrs. Pedro at Vinson, Ore. Mrs. T. H. Lowe and daughter Miss Annis C. were calling on Mrs. B. E. Duncan and infant son at Busy Bee ranch on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Tyler and family of Rhea Siding were visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. Dufur at the Cot near Cecil on Sunday. Messrs. Clark, Gaunt, Mattison and Farling of Heppner finished tagging for Krebs Bros. at the Last Camp on Friday. Mrs. Geo. A. Miller and son Elvin of Highview ranch spent Friday with Mrs. H. V. Tyler near Rhea Siding. Paul G. Balsiger, prominent hardware merchant of Ione, was doing business in Cecil vicinity on Wednesday. R. E. Stender of Seldomsen and J. E. Crabtree of Cuckoo Flats were doing the sights of Ione on Sunday. Noel Servester is spending his spare time from school building extra houses for his rabbits, etc. Mrs. Pat Medlock of Morgan spent Monday with Mrs. Alf. Medlock at Rockcliffe near Cecil. Mr. and Mrs. Kari Farnsworth of Rhea Siding were visiting friends in Olex during the week. J. O. Osborn of Fairview ranch was a caller in Heppner on Wednesday.

LEXINGTON BRIEFS

Dave Porter left Sunday morning for Portland where he will enter the I. O. O. F. home. Uncle Dave has visited here for many long years and has a host of friends among both old and young who wish for him many years more of life under the pleasant surroundings of the home where the Oddfellows care for their aged. The Collins Grain Co. of Pendleton purchased the Scott & McMillan warehouse this week. Mr. Collins is an extensive warehouse - wheat, grain, hay, and some numerous warehouses throughout the grain growing section, as well as big dairy mills at Pendleton. Mr. and Mrs. Ray White arrived Tuesday evening from their home in Seattle. Mr. White, who is in the employ of the Shell Oil Co., got a two weeks vacation and they are visiting their parents and friends. The basketball games here Friday night between the Lexington boys and girls and Boardman boys and girls, were lively. Lock however, seemed against Boardman and the Lexington team were winners. T. W. Cutsforth and sons returned Sunday from Salem where they had been with Mrs. Cutsforth who is very ill. Mr. Cutsforth will return to Salem this week. Mrs. George Peck and two sons returned Saturday from Junction City where they had been for the past six weeks, visiting Mrs. Peck's parents. A double-header basketball game is scheduled for Friday night between Heppner and Lexington. Good lively games are promised. Clarence Carmichael returned from Corvallis on Monday, having decided not to enter O. A. C. until the beginning of next term. County School Superintendent Walker of Heppner and Mrs. Joak Fredericksen of Lexington were over to Irgon Monday. Mrs. Harry Dinges and son Danny returned from Portland Friday of last week after a visit with relatives in the city. A number of our young folks attended the dance at Heppner on Saturday night and all report a grand time. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. of Pendleton were in Lexington Tuesday. Mr. Chas. is with the Collins Grain Co. of Pendleton. Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Copenhaver were in from their ranch in Sand Hollow on Tuesday, doing some shopping. Miss Vall, primary teacher, who was quite ill, has recovered sufficiently to take up her school work again. Grandma McMillan departed Wednesday morning for Portland where she will visit relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Dell Ward were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lucas over the week-end. Mrs. Leach McMillan left on Wednesday for Portland on a combined business and pleasure trip. Chas. Swindig and family of Heppner

Star Theater. THURSDAY and FRIDAY, JAN. 22-23. GLORIA SWANSON. BLUEBEARDS 8th WIFE. A PARAMOUNT PICTURE PRESENTED BY JESSE LASKY. You will see Gloria at her unrivaled best in this French comedy-drama of a girl who learned on her wedding night that she had married a twentieth-century Bluebeard—with seven divorced wives. You'll see her in the most alluring gowns ever devised. If a story of French bouillabaisse and beaches, of startling scenes and gorgeous settings. A TOP-NOTCH SWANSON PICTURE. Also "The Spat Family" in "HOT STUFF" TWO-REEL COMEDY. SATURDAY, JANUARY 24. EDITH ROBERTS. "ROULETTE". AND ELEVEN OTHER WELL KNOWN STARS IN. The story of one of New York's hidden Monte Carlos. When a man wants to be emphatic he says, "I'll bet my life!" But he never does. It is a woman who bets her life. When she marries, she knows her entire life depends on what this man may be. See Edith Roberts and this unrivaled cast in "ROULETTE". Also Ben Tuprin in "STEP FORWARD". SUNDAY and MONDAY, JAN. 25 and 26. FLORENCE VIDOR and THEODORE ROBERTS in "HAIL THE WOMAN". Not a new picture, but one of the very best produced. A New York critic says: "Hail the Woman" is a masterpiece in every sense of the word. It is a powerful human drama. Its characters are not shadows, but real human beings; they think and act just as human beings would have thought an acted in real life. And because it conveys a moral lesson—loyalty and self-sacrifice, and also condemnation of the double moral standard—not in the form of preachment but submerged in the entertainment, it is destined to live in the minds of picture-goers, when hundreds of other pictures will be forgotten. The story is by the well-known author C. Gardner Sullivan, and in addition to Miss Vidor and Theodore Roberts the cast includes Lloyd Hughes, Gertrude Clair, Madge Bellamy and Tully Marshall, and directed by Thos. H. Ince. Also "FELIX GETS HUNGRY". We are glad to announce that we have been able to so arrange our booking contracts that after January 28th, we will have a show every night, instead of closing on Tuesdays and Wednesdays.
