

Local Happenings

Mrs. A. E. Dalsell, who spent a few weeks in Heppner, visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Chas. Furlong, returned the past week to her home near Gwendolen. On leaving Heppner she went to Boardman for a short visit with her brother, Alex Warren and her mother, Mrs. A. J. Warren. Report from the Dalsell brothers at Gwendolen is to the effect that the grain there appears to have stood the freeze much better than first reports indicated, and their grain appears to be all right yet.

Bert Palmateer, W. F. Palmateer and H. O. Ely were business visitors in Heppner Tuesday from Morgan. The Palmateers are getting ready to reseed some 600 acres of their wheat land and will put the most of this in Turkey Red—the same wheat the December freeze killed out. Warm weather has prevailed in that section for the past several weeks and the ground is now in pretty fair shape for the drills. Mr. Palmateer stated they would be ready to start seeding by today.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Piper returned home on Friday from Portland. They had spent several weeks in the city, where they were called by the serious illness of J. H. Frad, Mrs. Piper's father. Two weeks or more ago Mr. Frad underwent a very serious operation at Good Samaritan hospital, but he had been removed to his home when Mr. and Mrs. Piper left and was getting along fine, expecting to be a well man in a few more weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Pearson and daughter were here from their home near Lena on Friday, it being more than a year since Mr. Pearson was in the city last. The best of weather conditions prevail out that way and grass is growing fine. As to the roads, Mr. Pearson could not speak very complimentary, as in many places the bottom had dropped out and travel was difficult until they reached the macadam on Jones hill.

James Carly, while not extensively engaged in the production of grain, is nevertheless interested and deplores the situation as it presents itself to the farmers at present. Living in the more extreme north end of the county, Mr. Carly thinks that there is no escape from reseeded out that way. Weather conditions are pleasant down Juniper canyon now and the grass is growing.

Karl L. Beach, Lexington hardware dealer, was attending to matters of business in Heppner Tuesday. Every farmer in that section that has seed wheat, or can get it, is preparing to reseed and will be busy at this job from now on until completed, if the weather conditions permit.

To all whom it may concern: My wife, Nancy A. Edwards, having left my bed and board, I will not be responsible for any debts or accounts made by her from this date. Dated at Morgan, Oregon, this 27th day of January, 1925. S. EDWARDS.

J. J. Kelly of Heppner is reported to have purchased several 1925 clips of Wheeler county wool recently at 45 cents a pound. Two of the clips were those of D. P. Nickerson of Ewickham and of W. B. Maxwell of Dayville—Condon Globe-Times.

S. Edwards, farmer residing in the Morgan section, was a business visitor in Heppner on Tuesday. He believes that the majority of the farmers of the Morgan country will be compelled to reseed as a consequence of the December freeze.

J. H. Pieper visited Heppner on Saturday from his home in Pieper canyon. Like numerous other farmers of his section, Mr. Pieper has suffered much loss from the December freeze and reseeded will be required.

FOR SALE—One cook stove with hot water attachment; 1 "Hoosier" kitchen cabinet; 1 bedroom suite and 1 library table, all as good as new. See Mrs. Alex Green in Heppner.

BABY CHICKS—Eggs for hatching, Barred Rock and Leghorns, O. A. C. strain. None better. Trial will convince you. H. Woolery, Capital Poultry Farm, Salem, Ore.

Mrs. Lucy T. Wedding, principal of Alpine high school, visited Heppner on Saturday. She reports that the school out there is progressing nicely.

Chas. Allinger was up from Lone Monday looking after business in Heppner. This office acknowledges a pleasant call from him.

STRAYED—From my place Jan. 1, Dorco Jersey male hog, weight 130 pounds. W. B. Tucker, Heppner.

See ad. of Heppner Packing Co. in another column.

MRS. PICKETT DIES.

Mrs. J. C. Pickett, aged 28, died at 1:30 p. m. today at St. Anthony's hospital, after a few days illness. She is survived by her husband and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bell. Funeral services will be at 1:30 p. m. tomorrow from the Brown chapel with Rev. G. L. Drill, pastor, officiating.—East Oregonian, Pendleton, Jan. 23.

Mrs. Pickett was a sister-in-law of Mrs. Martin Reid of this city, who went to Pendleton to attend the funeral.

This Week's Cross Word Puzzle

By MRS. CALVIN POOLE

HOW TO SOLVE A CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

The first letter of each word is indicated by a number placed in the blank white spaces, and by referring to the list of words given below, you will find the definition. For instance, number one horizontal gives the definition of a word which will fill in all the white spaces to the first black space at the right. Number one vertical gives the definition for a word which will fill in all the white spaces to the first black space below. The black spaces indicate the end of a word, and no letter is placed in them. When completed, the puzzle must read both horizontally and vertically or across and down.

Two twelve-letter words and four words of eight letters are in the puzzle arranged by Mrs. Calvin Poole this week. We will give you a tip on No. 1 horizontal. It really should not be used as one word—or at least a hyphen between the sixth and seventh letters of the word. Otherwise you should not be a quitter on this excellent arrangement of words. It is nicely interlocked throughout and will give you a thrill of satisfaction to have solved it.

We are inviting men to attend the Men's class. Next Sunday the pastor will begin a series of short addresses before the lesson period in this class on "The Greatness and Simplicity of the Christian Faith." These are four minute talks, and are followed by the regular lesson, presented in the form of a lecture. Some of the topics of these talks are, "The Seeming Unreality of the Spiritual Life," "The Significance of Jesus," "God Manifest in Christ," "Christian Life as a

A New Year

Mortal man is annually inspired with the advent of a New Year. It is human nature—and it is good. For many it has marked a turning point for better times.

A little keen study of such lives soon discloses the secret of success. It is energy, plus will-to-achieve, plus moderation in daily living, plus a saving of part of that acquired.

In this civilization, money is our method of exchange. The man with a bank account is a better workman because his mind is free to achieve and enjoy better things.

You know the truth of these statements. Why don't you resolve now to make 1925 a more successful year? This Institution is willing and anxious to assist and serve you.

Silence That Is Not Golden

THE merchant who fails to "speak up" lets a lot of golden sales slip past his store. This lost business goes either to his competitor down the street, or, by the mail order route, to the big city store.

People are often surprised to find that the goods they bought "unsight unseen" from a catalogue can be seen and examined in the local store!

Tell your buying public what you have. ADVERTISE in The Gazette-Times and invite the whole community to your store. And—
