BOARDMAN

Sylvester Atterbury, who was so seriously injured last Monday afternoon, continues about the same. He was thrown from the hay rack near the Mike Marshall place when his team ran away and was badly crushed about the chest. Some ribs and his collar bone were broken. His daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson of near Spokane, have been with him constantly. The sympathy of the entire community is with the family and it is hoped that he may recover.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wahl who are living on the Howard place, left Monday for The Dalles to have their youngest son cared for at the hospital. The little fellow has a growth of some sort on the side of his head and it was beginning to affect the eye, so he was taken to The Dalles for medical treatment. They returned the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brown entertained a few friends at cards on Saturday at their East End home. The evening passed all too quickly. The hostess served a delicious lunch. Guests who enjoyed the occasion were Messrs. and Mesdames Lee Mead, Tom Miller, Jack Gorham and Dan Ranier.

Workmen are putting a fire escape on the school house this week. This will mean a great deal for the safety of persons in the auditorium in case of fire. Heretofore there has been no protection and a fire would have meant at least serious injury if not loss of life.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Macomber and children, Ray and Ruth, of Spokane, came Saturday for a visit at the Nels Macomber home. Mr. Macomber is an uncle of the Macomber brothers. They left Monday for Seattle where they expect to make their home.

Mr. Currey, editor of the Mirror, was a Boardman visitor Saturday for a short time. While here he brought vengeance on one of his rivalistic reporters by a demonstration of ink slogging in the postoffice, to the amusement of all the onlookers.

Mrs. Neal Blakeney, who is a daughter of Mrs. H. H. Weston, is the mother of a fine baby boy. This is the Blakeney's third child. Mrs. Blakeney has visited her mother here at different times and has many acquaintances on the project.

That Fellow Feeling

YOU are all wrapped up in the merchandise that fills your store. You enthuse over the quality of this article and that line. You probably display the goods attractively, too.

All you need now is to transmit your enthusiasm to the buying public of your community—and your goods will move out and profits roll in. ADVERTISE. For advertising makes the customer feel as you do about the goods you have to sell. Every time you talk to prospective buyers through an Advertisement in The Gazette-Times, you are increasing the fellow feeling that brings business to your store.
