

Local Happenings

B. C. Allen and wife of Redmond, and Mrs. C. H. Goldsmith of Bend, were guests for several days of the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Clark on Eight Mile. Mrs. Allen was formerly Miss Nellie Clark, and Mrs. Goldsmith is a sister of Mrs. Clark, who, with her husband lived at Heppner some eight years ago, when Mr. Goldsmith was engaged in the blacksmithing business here. These people were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Clark in this city on Saturday.

Friends here were in receipt of the news this week announcing the death of Dorothea Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ross, evangelists who assisted with the dedication of the new Christian church at Heppner a couple of years ago and held a meeting here at that time. The young woman, who was about 18 years of age, died at Los Angeles, California, recently, and the past week her remains were brought to Forest Grove for interment.

Emil Carlson, who raises grain successfully in the Gooseberry country, was doing business in Heppner on Monday. He is very busy now with the spring plowing and states that the ground never worked up better. Moisture is just right now, and if rains come along in due season, the crop will be all right. He finished reseeded some 250 acres to hard federation just recently, and the grain is coming up nicely.

C. J. Anderson was doing business in Heppner on Friday. He states that the farmers in his vicinity—the lower Gooseberry section, are getting along pretty well with their re-seeding, and he hopes for weather conditions that will promote the growth of the grain. That December freeze spoiled one mighty good prospect for a wheat crop, but Mr. Anderson hopes for the best.

Bub Clark had his Ford sedan treated to a full new set of balloons tires the past week, preparatory to leaving on a trip to California. He and Mrs. Clark departed Tuesday morning on the journey, Bub expecting to put in some six weeks shearing sheep there before the season opens here.

J. W. Osborn, extensive land owner and wheat raiser of Cecil, was a visitor here on Monday. He has reseeded some six hundred acres of his land, and states that his section is pretty well done with this work. Spring plowing is the next thing in order.

Mrs. E. S. Duran of Lexington visited Heppner a short time on Friday. Mrs. Duran has just recently returned from a visit with relatives at Prescott, Touchet and Pasco, Wash. She has a brother residing at Prescott whom she had not seen for many years.

Martin Reid returned home from Portland on Sunday. For the greater part of the past two months Mr. Reid has been under the care of physicians in Portland, and he returns home quite improved in health, and considerably reduced in avardupois.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Huston were in the city Monday from their Eight Mile home. Mr. Huston has his re-seeding done and is going ahead with the spring plowing, determined not to worry over crop prospects and weather conditions.

The new feed cutting machine that Judge Campbell ordered some time since, has arrived at Heppner and is being put in shape to go on the job at the Barney Doherty sheep shed down in Sand Hollow, for the grinding of fertilizer.

Two salesmen wanted for this territory to sell Wearproof men's $12.50 suits. Selective patterns. Best seller. Repeater. Commissions daily. 417 Exchange Bldg., Portland, Ore.

Chas. Latourell returned the end of the week from Pasco where he spent several days on business.

Too appealing to forget

You do not soon forget that which stands for perfect-coffee satisfaction—Golden West. The memory of that last delicious sip carries over—to the next.

But, remember, too, that much of the quality you like in Golden West comes from the mountain sides of distant lands where the world's best-flavored high-grown coffee berries are selected. The rest is the result of 40-years of scientific blending and roasting, and of vacuum packing to carry that goodness to you.
