HEPPNER WINS FIRST GAME OF THE SEASON

Score Close in Game With Arlington Here Sunday Afternoon.

PITCHING FEATURE
Roche, for the Locals, and Broughton, for Arlington, Show Good Form and Allow But Few Hits.

A good crowd of ball fans saw Arlington go down to defeat here Sunday afternoon by a score of 2 to 1 in the first league game of the season, the Heppner-Lone team taking the long end of the score. It was a fine day for the game, and it is probable that few games later in the season will be better.

The locals secured their scores early in the game, holding the visitors scoreless until the ninth frame when, through an oversight, the ball was well-timed hit, they brought in one run. This was the only time throughout the game the visitors advanced a man beyond second.

The game was essentially a pitchers' battle, Roche and Broughton both performing with mid-season efficiency. Only a few hits were allowed, while several innings were not hit at all. This, of course, indicates that both teams are shy on batting practice and perhaps proved easier victims now than they will be later. The fielding of both teams was good, but two hit balls, going through the infield, and one of these was almost impossible to handle. The Arlington score and one for the locals were attributable to overthrows at first base, each overthrow being followed by a hit which advanced the runner to scoring distance.

The Heppner-Lone team plays at Condon next Sunday.

Broughton, who pitched for Arlington here Sunday, was on the mound for Heppner last year. He shows indications of developing into a real speed artist. It is not definitely known whether he will be with the Columbia river team all season or not, but if he is, his team will be fortunate.

"PANDORA"

That the cause of education, whether at home or outside of the city limits, is near to the hearts of our citizens, was attested last evening by the appreciative audience who attended the operetta "Pandora," given by the fifth and sixth grades of the lone school at Star Theater.

These little people, appropriately costumed, letter perfect in their lines and without promptings or self-consciousness, gave a performance which reflected much credit upon themselves and their instructor.

We understand there were forty-six adults, nineteen children, one baby and most of the theater staff present. Hope still lives.

CONTRIBUTED.

According to present plans, Dr. H. R. Green, Deputy State Veterinarian will spend a few days in Morrow county the latter part of the month to complete some requests for T. H. testing that we were unable to fill last winter. Anyone wishing their cows tested should get in their requests for this test at once. It may not be possible to make the test where there is only one herd requesting it in a community. However, when there are five or more herds in the community requesting the test, it will be made. These requests should reach the County Agent not later than April 15.—R. W. Morse, County Agent.

A Pathe Picture

Division Engineer Baldock and Supt. Scott of the market road department of the state highways were at Heppner on Tuesday. They were lining up on the county's market road program, and took time to consult with a number of the Heppner citizens on the proposition of closing the Lena-Vinson gap of the O-W highway, in which this community is much interested. Of course these gentlemen were in no position to do more than offer suggestions in this regard, but impressed those present with the desire of the state road department to have this particular piece of road completed.

W. A. RICHARDSON DIES AT PORTLAND

City Recorder and Pioneer of Heppner Succumbs Follows Operation Yesterday.

Walter A. Richardson, city recorder of Heppner, and a pioneer of this community, where he has resided for more than forty-seven years, died at the Portland Sanitarium at 4 o'clock this morning, being past 62 years of age. Death came to him suddenly, following an operation for bladder trouble. The remains will be brought to Heppner tomorrow evening and the funeral will be held from the Elks Temple on Sunday at 2 p. m., with interment in the Heppner cemetery.

Mr. Richardson was taken suddenly ill on Tuesday evening and that night was hurried to Portland, being accompanied by his son-in-law, K. K. Mahoney, where on Wednesday forenoon at the Portland Sanitarium he underwent the operation. From this he rallied in fine shape and all reports up till late yesterday were to the effect that he was getting along splendidly, with every prospect of recovery. At about 4 o'clock this morning he was taken with a sudden pain about the heart and died in a very few minutes.

Mr. Richardson is survived by his widow, Rosa Richardson, and one daughter, Mrs. Kenneth K. Mahoney. He was recently elected to the secretaryship of Heppner Lodge No. 358, R. P. O. Elks, and had not become suddenly ill he would have been installed into that office tonight. For the past two years he had been in poor health and but few of his friends realized he was suffering to the extent that he did. His sudden demise came as a shock to the community.

Mr. Richardson was also a member of Doric Lodge No. 29, K. of P., and of the Woodman order.

Ford Coupe Reduced To Kindling Wood

As a result of too much speed the Ford coupe of E. M. Shipley, section foreman of Inez, was reduced to a condition of kindling wood on Sunday evening when the machine turned over on the highway just beyond the Ed Clark place. Shipley was driving the car, and in the machine with him were "Red" Cochran and Harold Abalt. The young men had been riding Heppner to take in the hall game, leaving town shortly after dark.

It is reported that at the time of the accident the machine was making around 50 miles. It left the road and striking a culvert was turned over and struck on the top with such force that the wood work and glass were ground up, wheels were smashed and the occupants thrown clear, miraculously escaping injury, though Shipley had his back pretty badly wrenched. The car made another turn after the top smashed, and it certainly looked as though a cyclone had struck it.

Shipley was later brought before Justice Corrie to the city on a charge of reckless driving on a public highway and was given a fine of $125.00 and costs $25.00, which he paid, stating that he was ahead of that, as he had sold the remains of the car for $50.

Friends and neighbors of Mrs. E. W. Turner tendered her a pleasant surprise at the Turner country home in Sand Hollow on Tuesday, the occasion being the 61st birthday of Mrs. Turner. A very pleasant day was spent and there was an abundance of dainty refreshments, brought in by the visitors. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Ferguson, Mrs. J. O. Turner, Mrs. Richard Howell, Mrs. Casbeer, Mrs. Chas. Henrich and R. W. Turner. In honor of the same event there was a big dinner at the J. O. Turner home on Sunday, to which the Turner clan was invited and a fine time was had there also.

IS AWARDED NUMERAL.
Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, April 2.—Wilma Leach of Lexington, sophomore in vocational education, was awarded a numeral for being a member of the sophomore girls' basketball team this year. As the sophomore class team won the interschool championship for the year they are the only ones receiving the coveted class numeral.

EASTER CHICKS

By SATTERFIELD

Lexington Boy Will Be In Big Wrestling Meet

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, April 5.—Walter Nolan of Lexington, freshman in pharmacy, will represent O. A. C. in the Pacific Northwest Wrestling Association meet to be held in Portland April 9 and 10. Nolan will enter in the 145 pound weight. Two men in each weight will be sent from here. Keen competition is expected as all of the larger universities, colleges and athletic clubs of the coast will be represented.

EASTER SERVICES.

An Easter program of unusual interest will be given at the Methodist Community church next Sunday, beginning at the Sunday school hour, 9:45, continuing through the morning church service, and concluding in the evening at 7:30 with "The Story of His Last Week," told in Scripture, song and drama, illustrated by beautiful lantern slides.

Many of these pictures are reproductions of the old masters, and portray vividly the scenes of Our Savior's passion, and revive the atmosphere of Jerusalem where the tragedy of the universe was enacted on earth's soil.

Some of the numbers of special merit are:

"Easter Morn" — Chas. Notson
"The Resurrection" — Mrs. Roger Morse
"Rebber" — Miss Lillian Allenger
"Gethsemane" — Miss Case
"City of Gold" — Mrs. Notson
"Alive" — M. L. Case
"Need" — Miss Bernice Woodson
"Unfolding of the Lily" — Mrs. Brammer
"Children of Jerusalem" — Intermediates

All of which is blended into a perfect whole by appropriate Scriptures and the splendid musical numbers prepared by the chorus choir under the direction of Mrs. Bessie Gibb. Miss Bernice Woodson and Mrs. Ray Taylor at the piano.

HARDMAN

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Batty left for Klamath Falls last Wednesday night because of the death of Mrs. Batty's father, but were unable to get thru because of snow slides in the mountains. They went to Maupin and Durar, where they visited with relatives, returning to their Hardman home Monday, April 6.

Our high school baseball team played the lone team on the lone field with lone winning a decided victory, the final score being 21 to 2. Dale Bleakman scored in the first inning and Lewis Batty in the last. We have hopes of a better score in the return game to be played at Hardman April 25th.

Mrs. Ella Bleakman, who has been seriously ill for the last few weeks, is now on the road to recovery.

Laura and Lucy Williams of Hardman Hill have been ill for several days.

REGULAR P. T. A. MEETING.

The regular monthly meeting of the P. T. A. will be held in the high school auditorium next Tuesday at 8 o'clock p. m. One very attractive feature on the program will be a paper by Mrs. Arthur McAttee on "Moral Education." Those who have ever heard Mrs. McAttee know we will miss a rare treat if we fail to hear her next Tuesday. Other numbers are poems and songs by the first grade children and a piano solo by Margaret Notson.

Twenty acres, garden, pasture, small house, barn, sheds, 400 hens, water in house, mile of town, price $125 per acre, terms, Box 88, Hermiston, Ore.

Hanson Hughes has been spending the week in Portland, looking after business affairs. He left for the city on Friday.

For Sale—Reed baby carriage in good condition. Phone 982.

CLEAN-UP DAYS—APRIL 13th to 18th

To the Citizens of Heppner:
The annual clean-up time for Heppner has arrived. The week of April 13th to 18th has been set for this purpose when all of our citizens are urged to get in and clean up about their front yards, back yards, streets and alleys. A special request is made on all of those who are keeping cows within the city limits, or harboring stock of any nature, that the premises will be cleaned of all rubbish and manure; there are piles of old manure in the vicinity of Main street, and these should be removed and the premises made sanitary. You are commanded to do so.

On Monday, the 13th, there will be proper means provided for hauling away all rubbish that has been gathered and placed in containers on the streets and alleys in easy access. Have all rubbish ready by evening, April 13, and the city will see that same is removed without cost; all rubbish should be hauled away, however, and if not ready when the city conveyance calls, property owners will be compelled to properly dispose of same at their own expense.

BY ORDER OF THE CITY COUNCIL.

Standing of Heppner Student High at U. of O.

Margaret Woodson of Heppner, a first year law student at the University of Oregon, was among those students to receive nothing less than B in academic subjects for the winter term ending March 20, according to the grade sheet issued by the registrar's office. Forty-nine women and 41 men students received no grades less than B for the past term's work. Only three, two women and one man, received I in all subjects. I is the highest grade given, and specifies honors as applied for at the beginning of the term. Passing grades at the university range from I to V.

MOTHER DIES IN PORTLAND.

E. N. Gonty was called to Portland early last week by the very serious illness of his mother, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Groshen. Mrs. Groshen passed away at her home at 357 1/2 Second street on Monday and her funeral was held on Wednesday, interment being in Mount Calvary cemetery. She was aged 65 years and is survived by her husband, Charles Nicholas Groshen, two sons, Edmund Gonty of Portland, and Edward Gonty of Heppner, and one daughter, Mrs. A. Lamotte of Portland. Mrs. Groshen was a resident of Heppner at one time, but removed to Portland a number of years ago and has made her home in that city since. Out of respect for his mother, the Gonty Shoe Store in this city was closed until after the funeral.

NOTES FROM HEPPNER III.

Nearly all of the pupils who have been absent from school on account of the "flu" have returned.

The pupils of Heppner school are collecting information and working on essays for the Oregon History contest. This contest ends April 23. Heppner high school baseball team will play their next game at Lexington April 10. This is expected to be a fast game.

TO LIBRARY PATRONS.

All those wishing special books in the next shipment of the Traveling Library, please notify me by Saturday evening, April 11th.

MRS. L. B. DEVINE, Librarian.

The county road department is now busy at work improving the upper end of the Hog Hollow grade and smoothing out some of the bumps over Franklin hill, so that auto traffic coming and going between Heppner and Pendleton may get along with a few less bumps. Judge Ronge thinks they will have the road in very good shape within a few days, and there should be no difficulty in getting over the short stretch between Lena and Vinson, and all the rest is good macadam.

At the Christian church on Sunday there will be regular preaching services both morning and evening. Mrs. Clara G. Essen, state Sunday school superintendent, will be present and conduct the services, her subject in the morning being "The Resurrection." Regular Bible school session at 10 a. m. There will be no Endeavor meeting in the evening owing to the Vesper service by the Girl Reserves coming at the Endeavor hour.

Zane Grey's "WANDERER OF THE WASTELAND" at Star Theater Monday and Tuesday, 20c and 30c.

Barney Doherty was in from Sand Hollow on Monday interviewing some of his old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Morgan of Condon paid Lexington a short visit on Monday.

Howard Lane bought a Ford truck from Latourel Auto Co. last week.

Mrs. Ralph Finley was visiting friends in Lexington on Tuesday.

The ladies of the Christian church are serving a big chicken dinner at the church parlors this evening. Let's everybody go.

NOTES FROM STATE MARKET AGENT

Know the New Law.

On application to the State Market Agent, 714 Court House, Portland, folders giving the provisions of the new potato grading and inspection law, in condensed form, will be sent to any person, and the folder also gives all the standard grades, the definitions, and other information.

State officials have been advised to see that the law is enforced, and they are warning growers, shippers and retailers that they will be checked up on.

The law will work out for the grower who is working for a reputation and profit of any grower or shipper reliable stock and an honest pack. Such an one should welcome his name and grade on the container. When consumers become more familiar with the provisions of the law and the grades, they will order by grades and insist that they receive the grade they ordered. Retailers and shippers will soon learn the growers who are observing the law. The purpose of the act is that all concerned shall get what they pay for. It puts a premium on a first-class pack.

Unreliable Scales Mean Trouble.

A source of much trouble and misunderstanding between the farmer and the elevator or warehouseman is unreliable or inaccurate scales. There is little excuse for this. The state has a department, under the jurisdiction of the State Market Agent, for testing and correcting unreliable scales. There is no charge for the service, and a competent man will be sent on request at any time.

Recently a scale inspector found a scale with an error of three pounds to each draft of grain, the result of which on the car of 750 sacks amounted to 450 pounds—the number of pounds billed but not put into the car. Another scale showed an error of 180 pounds on an average load of 4000 pounds.

Many scales are balanced by tying nuts and washers on the counterpoise, and many are not properly installed, not being boxed in, with the result that the wind will often make a difference of from one to six pounds, depending on its velocity. At one of the Portland mills the force of the wind on a box car of grain, weighed upon track scales, showed a variation of 1600 pounds. The pressure of wind upon a truck load of five sacks of grain being weighed inside a warehouse will cause a variation of from two to three or more pounds from outside weights.

Out weights must be accurate that positive knowledge of each car may be had; then it is comparatively easy to check the weight received at the terminal markets, where all scales receive particular attention for accuracy, being tested several times during the year by and against standard weights, the same being certified to by the U. S. Bureau of Standards. Country scales should be given far more attention. When they are accurate, much of the present misunderstanding will be removed.

Building Up From Cement.

Several years of mistakes and failures in co-operative work have taught growers valuable lessons, and the work is now going forward much more safely and satisfactorily. They now realize the value of strong personalities, dynamic leaders, men and women of executive ability to work with and direct. And as the organizations are founded on such solid foundations, they succeed. Farmers are now following the methods of big private corporations. They argue that what others have done they can do—and they can. The co-operative movement is fast spreading over the country and during the past year there have been comparatively few failures.

LEXINGTON

Ben Lind and family of Focattelle, Idaho, spent the night in Lexington on their way to Longview, Wash. They drove by way of Lexington to avoid the oil that is being put on the highway between Boardman and Arlington which is proving very disastrous to clothes and cars.

R. L. Rose and wife of Portland were in Lexington on Tuesday. Mr. Rose is representing the LaSalle correspondence school of Chicago and was here interviewing several customers of his school.

Miss Wilma Leach has been chosen to represent the Women's Athletic Association of O. A. C. at Los Angeles. Miss Leach leaves Corvallis Tuesday for the California city.

The first campers of this season in the auto camp grounds were in the grounds Tuesday night; two families from Nampa, Idaho, on their way to St. Martin's Springs.

The ladies of the Christian church are serving a big chicken dinner at the church parlors this evening. Let's everybody go.

John and George Partlow, now of Underwood, Wash., but formerly residents of Boardman, were brought to Heppner on Saturday by Sheriff McDuffie to answer to a charge brought against them by the grand jury of obtaining money under false pretenses. After hustling around they were able to furnish bail and were released from custody, to appear later when circuit court is in session.

J. G. Thomson is the proud possessor of a Chrysler sedan, delivered to him this week by Walter LaDuane, local agent. It is certainly a swell car. Mr. Thomson had driven a Cadillac for many years and was supposed to have the habit so well fixed that he could not be induced to take anything else. We understand that he is thoroughly well pleased with his new machine.

Rev. Wood of Ontario will be present and conduct the services at 11:00 a. m. at the Episcopal church on Sunday. Services in keeping with the Eastertide will be held, and a cordial invitation is extended to all friends of the church, as well as the public of the city, to attend the services and hear Mr. Wood.

E. L. Bosteller, typewriter doctor from Baker, was in the city over Wednesday, looking after the needs of flock typewriters. Because of a breakdown to his car, he was compelled to remain over here today to have that doctor's also.

The Fuller Bruah Company has a permanent job for a local man with car to handle our business in Morrow, Gilliam and Wheeler counties. Good pay and opportunity for a live wire. Write us at Walla Walla for more information.

Clerk Anderson has been quite busy this week issuing fishing licenses. The season opens on the 15th, when there will be a grand rush for the streams about town and a consequent raid upon the finny tribe.

Wallace McDuffie, who has been enjoying a visit with his brother, Sheriff McDuffie for some time, and also spent a while in Portland, returned to his home in Baker this week, over with Frank Eldor.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Turner, Bobby and Jeanette spent the week end at Hood River where they enjoyed a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Livingstone. They returned home on Sunday afternoon.

An 8-pound daughter arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Wilson in this city on April 8th. Both mother and daughter are doing well, and Dan has been passing out the smokes to his friends.

Judge Gilbert W. Phelps of Pendleton was here over Thursday last and held court. He was accompanied by Mrs. Phelps and Court Reporter Beckwith. They returned home on Friday.

The Endeavorers will hold an Easter food sale at the store of Humphreys Drug Co. on Saturday, April 11, beginning at 9 a. m. Cakes and pies and cookies will be offered.

Can you beat it? Zane Grey's "WANDERER OF THE WASTELAND," with Jack Holt, actually filmed in the West, in natural colors, Star Theater, Monday and Tuesday.

Fred Tash returned home from Walla Walla on Sunday. He had been spending several days there with his mother, Mrs. Hiram Tash, who is quite seriously ill.

Mrs. Carrie Vaughn of Portland is a guest at the home of her son, Chas. Vaughn and family for a few days. She arrived here Tuesday morning.

Al Hennickson was over from Pendleton for a few days the first of the week, looking after business affairs here and down Willow creek.

A guest this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Olson in this city is Mrs. Jack Richardson of Baker, who is a sister of Mrs. Olson.

Beauty work done every Wednesday and Saturday at Mrs. Curran's Millinery Shoppe, Marcelling a specialty. Mrs. Florence Seale Davis.

Andy Rod was in from the big ranch on Heppner Flat Wednesday. Plowing is the order out that way, and the ground works fine.

See Zane Grey's famous story, "WANDERER OF THE WASTELAND," in natural colors, at Star Theater Monday and Tuesday.

Short Session of Circuit Court Held Thursday

A short session of circuit court was held at the court house in Heppner on last Thursday, when Judge Phelps went over the docket and cleaned up several cases that had been pending, and were ready for final action. The grand jury turned in their report after being in session for a couple of days, and the result of their labor was the presentation of 6 true bills and one not true bill. Other matters disposed of were: Okanogan State Bank vs. J. W. Heppner; settled and dismissed.

Credit Service Co. vs. I. Bleakman; dismissed on motion of plaintiff.

Farmers & Stockgrowers National Bank vs. Edgar J. Ball; dismissed on motion of plaintiff.

Mary Dilworth Gately vs. Paul O'Meara; demur to separate answer sustained.

Heppner Farmers Elevator Co. vs. R. D. Allattot and D. E. Gilman; motion to make more definite and certain allowed.

Eugenists Mean Well, But Earth—Big Alma Mater Why Ten Commandments But Can You Enforce It?

The eugenists in the birth control convention plan for a better race by "artificial selection," which would mean picking the right husband for the right wife.

You can do that with cows, horses, etc. But with them you only breed a body, among human beings you produce that very mysterious thing called a soul, and that's different.

You might marry a John L. Sullivan to Hypatia, or a Michael Angelo Bosses to the Venus of Milo and be bitterly disappointed in results.
