

Local Happenings

Mrs. Carrie Lewis and son Travis arrived at Heppner on Sunday evening from their home at Bradus, Montana. They will make a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stacy Roberts. Mrs. Lewis is a sister of Mrs. Roberts and it has been 23 years since they met last, when Mrs. Lewis and her husband left Bradus for Montana. Her coming was a surprise to Mrs. Roberts who had no word that her sister was on the way here until she was called up from Arlington on Sunday.

A card this week from C. M. Rutz of Willamina, Oregon, states that he and his family are getting along fine, and everything is quite prosperous in that section of the Willamette valley with plenty of moisture and vegetation growing well. Mr. Rutz states that he is employed on a good job a short distance from home and is well pleased with his location.

The process of working over the meat market in the Garrigue building is progressing under the direction of Henry Crump, and it will not be many days before C. W. McNamer will have everything in shape for opening of the new market. He will occupy the room recently vacated by Dave Wilson, instead of the one formerly occupied by Gurdane and Son.

Professor James M. Burgess, newly elected superintendent of the Heppner schools, arrived on Saturday from Palo Alto, Calif., where he has been attending Stanford University for the past winter. Mr. Burgess has been putting in the week here, getting acquainted with the situation. He expresses himself as well pleased with his prospective field of labor.

Dean T. Goodman, accompanied by Mrs. Goodman, his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Goodman and Mrs. A. D. McMurdo motored to Pendleton on Monday. Mr. Goodman brought home a new Star sedan for Mrs. Frank Anderson, while Mrs. Goodman drove the other car home after the folks had enjoyed a pleasant visit at Pendleton.

Jasper Crawford, who is a student in Journalism at the U. of O., arrived home from Eugene on Sunday evening. He is helping in the C. I. shop this week, running the "line" and assisting the force with the work of getting out the 1925 Heblsch, high school annual. He expects to return to his studies next week.

Ed Musgrave, who farms on Rhea creek, was a visitor in the city on Tuesday. The cool weather has caused the wire worms to work pretty lively on his place, and some damage to the growing wheat is noted. This will cease with the warmer weather conditions now prevailing.

Many were the fishing parties out on the various streams accessible to Heppner on Sunday. We have not learned how great were the catches made in every instance, but Orve Rasmus reports that he landed 20 fine speckled beauties up Willow creek, one of these being a whopper.

Attorney C. E. Woodson departed yesterday morning for Portland to attend to business affairs, and from there will go on to Eugene to attend a meeting of the board of regents of the state university. He expects to be absent for the most part of a week.

The Frank Turner shearing crew and outfit left town yesterday morning for the Jas. Carty ranch at Tub Springs, where they will shear out the Carty sheep, and perhaps several other bands as well.

The families of P. M. Gemmill and Spencer Crawford motored down to Boardman on Sunday afternoon, enjoying a nice ride and taking a view of the project, where they found vegetation coming along fine.

Gilbert Coats was down from Hardman on Saturday and made this office a pleasant call. Spring is opening up well out that way and the warmer weather is making vegetation put out lively.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter LaDusire returned on Sunday from Portland, where they had been to deliver a new Maxwell coupe to Miss Leta Humphreys.

Beauty work done every Wednesday and Saturday at Mrs. Corran's Millinery Shoppe, Marcelling a specialty. Mrs. Florence Seale Davis.

Charles Vaughn is out again after being confined to his home for several days with a slight attack of the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Sweek motored to Pendleton on Friday where Mr. Sweek was called on legal business.

Jas. Carty and son were visitors in the city for a short time Tuesday from their Tub Springs ranch.

Judge R. L. Bengt and family drove over to Pendleton on Saturday, where they spent the day.

FOR SALE—8 head of No. 1 dairy cows. R. D. Wilson, Wells Springs Ranch.

Our Washington Letter

(By N. P. S.)

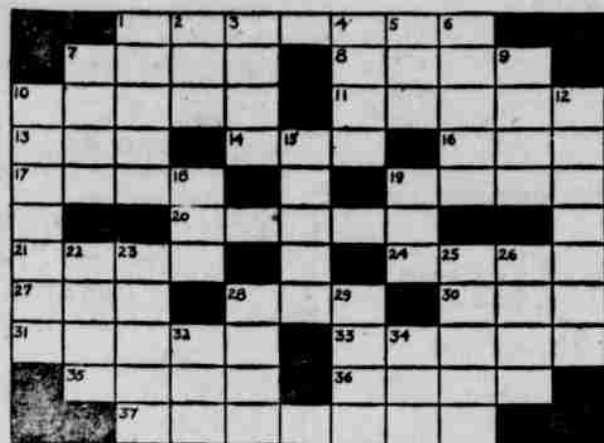

Washington, D. C., April 24.—There is on foot a deliberate attempt to belittle President Coolidge's program of economy. There is no doubt in the minds of many in Washington that this attempt is being made not only by political opponents, but also by some who are interested to see that the government shovels out money in expenditures which would result in their personal gain. This is evidenced by the heterogeneous collection of rumors, insinuations, and fully thought-out propaganda, including imaginings and double-meaning articles which, with the Washington date line, is being broadcast throughout the country. Under the classification of vicious and misleading propaganda, one can, by carefully reading articles sent out from the nation's capital, discern the effort that is being made to misconstrue the attitude of the President in the matter of economy. It is extremely

This Week's Cross Word Puzzle

By Mrs. Lee Yoeman

HOW TO SOLVE A CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

The first letter of each word is indicated by a number placed in the blank white space, and by referring to the list of words given below, you will find the definition. For instance, number one horizontal gives the definition of a word which will fill in all the white spaces to the first black space at the right. Number one vertical gives the definition for a word which will fill in all the white spaces to the first black space below. The black spaces indicate the end of a word, and no letter is placed in them. When completed, the puzzle must read both horizontally and vertically or across and down.

Horizontal

1. It's misuse is inexcusable.
7. It takes more than one to make it.
8. In the eye and in the sky.
10. To spread one's self boastfully.
11. Canvas shelter (plural).
12. To move slowly.
14. Adam did it and we've had to work ever since.
16. What you can't stand up and do.
17. An Indian tribal appellation.
19. Lima is its largest city.
20. This word could apply to "Jack be nimble, Jack be quick."
21. To pull along by main force.
24. An agreement.
25. Eternity.
28. A tree with a chewy bark.
29. The unfortunate absent member at the Ladies' Aid.
31. What the boss did to the office girl while she was doing it to a bill of lading.
33. What you are as soon as you are out of bed.
35. What Abe Lincoln pulled the pig out of.
36. Cupid's best friend.
37. Half man, half beast.

Vertical

1. What Dad does to the coal pile with a speculative eye in cold weather.
2. What we should hate to ride into town on.
3. A small sunken court in front of a basement.
4. A very simple amount or particle.
5. A form of the verb "To be."

6. What a small boy does when he introduces water to his face and hands.
7. A small piece of land.
9. What gossip creates.
10. The pirate's aspirations.
12. Demosthenes as he walked the seashore.
15. A crucial time for the plaintiff.
18. What the ladies hate in skirts.
19. What the originator of a cross word puzzle possesses.
22. To move about uncertainly from place to place.
23. A monkey shine.
25. An American lady prominent in England.
26. What we all do too much of.
29. The friend a feller needs.

It's a good thing those Putnam boys are going back to school next week.

YOU heard the latest exploit, didn't you? Let's the water running in the bath tub and ruined the living room wall. Just redecorated, it was, and Mrs. Putnam knew she couldn't ask to have it done over. But her cousin Jim, the decorator, said if the boys would buy the Acme Quality No-Lustre Finish he would do over the walls himself. Mrs. Putnam says now she isn't sorry it happened—the walls are simply lovely—and she has learned something about wall finishes she wishes she had known years ago.

PERUNA

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH CAUSED 3 YEARS OF SUFFERING

Mrs. Rosalia Kania, 39 Silver Street, New Britain, Conn., had a terrible experience and gives full credit for her recovery to Per-una: "I had cramps for three years and thought I would never be any better. I could not eat without distress. Nothing helped me. I had catarrh of the stomach. Now, after taking Per-una, I have no cramps and am feeling well and healthy. I wish every sufferer from a catarrhal disease would take Per-una."

There are thousands, pain racked and miserable as the result of some catarrhal complication who could just as well be strong and healthy.
