

BOARDMAN

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Peck and Mrs. W. H. Woodard of the Highway Inn motored to The Dalles Saturday.

James Wells, county assessor, has been doing some assessing over in this part of the county the past few days.

The Misses Alice Aldrich, Louise Sears, Marvin Swift, and Mrs. Joyce Willis motored to Umatilla Saturday evening to attend the movie.

J. C. Ballenger and family were Hermiston visitors Friday. While there they called on Mrs. Raymond Crowder and little daughter, Phyllis Rae. Mother and babe are getting along splendidly and returned to their home on Monday from the nurse's Mrs. Hayden's home.

C. G. Hayden and Bob Rayburn were Hermiston visitors Saturday. While there Mr. Hayden had two teeth extracted.

Hewell Spagle and wife returned from Hubbard and Salem, Ore., where they visited. Mr. Spagle returned to Salem again where he will be employed on the highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Demaro and baby, former residents of Boardman, who have been living at The Dalles, visited a few days with her father, W. H. Gilbreth and family. They left Monday for La Grande where Mr. Demaro will be employed on the railroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo V. Root motored to Sunnyside, Wash., last Friday. They took Mr. Root's brother, Marvin Root and family, to Mabton, where they boarded the train for Seattle where they expect to make their future home. They have been living at Hermiston the past several months. Mr. and Mrs. Root returned home Saturday. Mrs. Max De Weese had charge of the postoffice during Mrs. Root's absence.

What has happened to the Boardman-Irigan Fair? Have heard nothing of it for some time.

A number of Boardman people are interested in the damage suit of Frank B. Ritchie against the Walla Walla Valley Ry. Co., and the O.-W. R. and N. company, now pending in the Pendleton courts. He is suing for $1000 damage for the death of his baby about a year ago, who fell into a post hole and was strangled because the scarf around his neck caught in a wire which was over the post hole.

Mrs. Ritchie visited Boardman in the interest of the C. E. work and made a number of friends while here.

W. A. Murchie who has been in the hospital at The Dalles was moved to his home in Wasco. He is improving and the abscess which has caused him such pain is healing.

Miss Irene Jensen spent the weekend at her home in Walla Walla.

W. H. Stewart and wife and son Ray of Echo, were boosters for Boardman at the ball game Sunday.

Mr. Hayes, the new maintainer on this section of the highway has rented the C. G. Hayden house opposite the Boardman Trading company.

Frank Farnsworth of Okanogan, Wash., an old friend of John Jenkins, and J. J. Wells of Heppner, visited at the Jenkins home Thursday. Mr. Farnsworth was the man who lost his wife last winter when she was burned to death in her home.

Mrs. Henry Kigles and daughter, Mrs. Harvey Huff, spent the day with Mrs. Royal Rands on Tuesday.

Mr. John Jenkins has been on the sick list but is much improved.

Friends will be interested to hear of the arrival of a 94 pound son at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Harris in Independence, Ore. Mrs. Harris will be remembered as Winifred Warren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Warren.

It is reported that Mr. and Mrs. Patten are parents of a 9 pound son at Condon last week. Mrs. Patten is a local girl and was formerly Della Olson.

H. McCarty of Freewater, Ore., shipped in a carload of potatoes recently which he disposed of in short order, only a few sacks remaining.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Macomber and Miss Mabel Gray and Arthur Allen of Arlington, came up Saturday night to attend the Odd Fellows dance.

The plowing crew on the highway have finished their work and it certainly makes an excellent speedway like a pavement. If it were possible to keep it in its present condition it would be well worth while.

Boardman played in hard luck Sunday in their game with Hermiston and were defeated 8 to 1. They expect to square themselves the next game when they meet Hermiston on the home field. Kitz pitched the entire game but was off form and the men of whom great things were expected failed to come up to scratch.

Eldon Wilson was hit on the cheek by a fast ball and had his cheek cut open, necessitating a doctor's attention, and a stitch was needed to draw the wound together.

L. V. Root and wife made a business trip to Hermiston Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Ralph Cairns went to Hermiston on Wednesday to have some dental work done.

Ralph Davis has traded his Maxwell sedan in for a sumptuous new Nash coach to be delivered August first.

Mrs. J. O. Russell and family and Francis Gilbreth spent the week-end in The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wicklander, Chas. Dillabaugh and Sam Shell attended the successful meeting of the Pomona grange at Umatilla last week.

Governor Pierce was one of the speakers and he discussed the income tax question and taxes in general. George Palmeto, state grange master, also spoke as did Senator Taylor and A. R. Shumway, representative of Umatilla county. Mr. Wicklander is master of the Pomona grange which meets every quarter.

The next meeting will be in Boardman on July 3, with Greenfield grange entertaining the Pomona, which is an organization of granges in Morrow and Umatilla counties.

On their return home they had an exciting trip battling with the wind and finally the Ford apparently became discouraged and quit so they had to be towed home. The delegates report a splendid trip. The fourth degree work was put on by the team from Touchet, Wash., and was beautiful. This work will be put on here in July by one of the degree teams. Over 300 were seated at the table on Thursday evening at the banquet.

Obeys the Potato Law.

The grower or dealer who observes the new potato law will benefit himself and will not have to fear prosecution. The law simply forces the growers and shippers to state what kind of stuff they are selling, and to back it up with their name and address. No man putting up an honest pack will try to evade the law. There is a penalty of both fine and imprisonment for violation, and the legislature made it the duty of the state department to prosecute violators. Leaflets giving the new law and also the standard grades will be sent to anyone for the asking by the State

Market Agent, 714 Court House, Portland.

Chas. Thomson and wife returned home on Sunday from Portland, riding in a new Studebaker six of latest model which Mr. Thomson purchased while in the city.

FRIDAY and SATURDAY, MAY 1 and 2:

HOLBROOK BLINN, JACK MULHALL, ENID BENNETT and HARRY MYERS in

"THE BAD MAN"

By PORTER EMERSON BROWNE.

"Laughter is good for the health" declare the wise men, so in presenting "The Bad Man" we feel confident that a goodly share of health and happiness will be spread for our audiences.

The story of a Mexican cattle rustler whose heart is as big as the plains which he traverses, and whose sense of humor makes him a lovable character. IF YOU ARE SEEKING A DIFFERENT KIND OF PICTURE AND A MIGHTY FINE ONE AT THAT, don't fail to see "THE BAD MAN." It's comedy plus.

Also "THE INVADERS"

Grantland Rice Sportlight and FINANCIALLY EMBARRASSED, comedy.

SUNDAY and MONDAY, MAY 3 and 4:

JACKIE COOGAN in

"A BOY OF FLANDERS"

Adapted from Ouida's famous story, "A Dog of Flanders." The tale of a little Belgian orphan and his Great Dane dog both bound together as outcasts in a fight for liberty. Just the picture everyone's looking for; it pleases all. Jackie's acting in this picture proves him a genius.

Also comedy "SITTING PRETTY"

TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY, MAY 5-6:

LEATRICE JOY, RAYMOND GRIFFITH and SYDNEY CHAPLIN in

"CHANGING HUSBANDS"

A merry mix-up of wives and husbands that gets funnier and funnier with every foot.

NO SERIOUS MATRIMONIAL PROBLEMS. JUST A LOT OF GOOD FUN.

If you don't like the title, forget it—you'll not forget to laugh.

Also Alberta Vaughn, George O'Hara (by the way, these two are married now), Al Cooke and Kit Guard (you will remember them all in "Fighting Blood" and "Telephone Girl" series) in

"GETTING GOING"

A complete story in itself, but one of another series called "THE GO-GETTERS" and that is what they are. Fine comedy. We will tell you more about this great combination next week.

THURSDAY and FRIDAY, MAY 7 and 8:

Hoot Gibson in

"The Riding Kid From Powder River"

Johnnie Walker and Alene Ray in

"Galloping Hoofs."

From now on we will have a new picture every Sunday, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday—still four changes per week, but Saturday alone.
