

Local Happenings

Heavy showers of rain nearly every day this week, played havoc with the plans of the school children and spoiled their picnics. The eighth grade were to go to the mountains yesterday but the heavy showers of rain prevented and there was considerable disappointment. Some of the other grades managed to get a little fair weather and enjoyed themselves. The high school was scheduled for today, but had to give up, owing to the continued wet weather. The farmers are all smiles, however, and thus the law of compensation works out. The thing that counts, after all, is the harvesting of a good crop of grain.

James S. Burgess, superintendent, elect of the Heppner schools, came in from Portland on Monday to attend a meeting of the school board. He has been busy for several weeks in interviewing prospective teachers for the high school and grades and at the school meeting submitted applications of several that he recommended for the positions unfilled at that time. Mr. Burgess returned to Portland on Tuesday and expects to come to Heppner the first week of August to get in readiness for the opening of the fall term of school in September.

Leon Logan, J. W. Osborn and John Gray were Cecil people in Heppner on Tuesday. Good rains recently have brightened the crop prospects in that section of the county greatly, and it is expected that there will be an average yield of grain this season. While some seeding was late, the grain is coming along fine and growing fast with every prospect of being ready for the harvest at about the usual time of former seasons.

Marcel, the 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Jones, residing near Heppner, was severely burned Sunday morning. His mother was scalding the cream separator and having a dipper of hot water in her hand, the boy ran into it and the water poured over a portion of his face, neck and arm, causing burns that laid him up. The injuries were attended to by a physician and the lad is reported as getting along O. K.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Livingstone and daughter Lois were visitors in Heppner on Friday. Mr. Livingstone being on his way out to Hardman to deliver the address to the graduating class. They returned to Hood River on Saturday, and Mr. Livingstone came to Heppner Sunday by train to deliver the baccalaureate sermon to the Heppner school.

Messrs. Finch and Schwarz entertained the crowd at the Star theater on Saturday evening for about thirty minutes with an acrobatic performance. These young men are coming to the front as tumblers, and their performance on Saturday evening was good. They are booked to put on a stunt at Gandon some time after the races there.

Miss Laura Burnside, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Burnside of Eight Mile, was united in marriage to Mr. Thomas J. Kelly of Lynn, Mass., on Sunday, May 10th, at Pendleton. Mr. and Mrs. Kelly are both employed at the Eastern Oregon home for the feeble minded.

M. L. Case and R. H. Quackenbush drove to Hood River on Monday to look after some business. Mr. Case has an apple tract at Hood River, and reports that a big rain hit that section the end of the week, for which the Hood River people are duly thankful.

This Week's Cross Word Puzzle

By MARGARET REYLMUN

HOW TO SOLVE A CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

The first letter of each word is indicated by a number placed in the blank white spaces, and by referring to the list of words given below, you will find the definition. For instance, number one horizontal gives the definition of a word which will fill in all the white spaces to the first black space at the right. Number one vertical gives the definition for a word which will fill in all the white spaces to the first black space below. The black spaces indicate the end of a word, and no letter is placed in them. When completed, the puzzle must read both horizontally and vertically or across and down.

The interior of the Morrow County Creamery has been undergoing a cleaning-up process this week and treated to some white paint. The repairs necessitated the suspension of butter making for a few days, but Manager Cox has everything running at full blast now.

John Pieper reports that his grain is coming along O. K., it being in the boot now and just right for the reception of the rains the last of the week. Mr. Pieper was in the city for a short time on Saturday afternoon from his home in Pieper canyon.

Wm. Copenhagen was in town Tuesday from his ranch north of Swaggart buttes. His wheat is now heading out and coming along fine. A big rain hit that section on Saturday night and the ground is well wet, coming as a big boost to the growing crops.

Vivian Cason, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Cason, was thrown from a horse late Saturday evening, the result being a broken arm at the elbow. The break was attended to by a physician and the little lady is getting along all right.

W. R. Walpole, a leading business man of Irrigon, was a visitor in Heppner on Wednesday.

Answer to last week's puzzle.

Pauline Forbes is furious—and I certainly can't blame her

EVERYONE knows that it will take all the spare cash that Joe Forbes can scrape together to swing the deal for the big Hawkins farm. And then to have people talk about her extravagance and say that she made Joe buy her a new car. Especially when he did the whole job himself. She says she thinks she'll put a can of Acme Quality Motor Car Finish on top of the radiator cap and a big sign above it, "Paint work by Joe Forbes."
