

BOARDMAN

Mr. Latham, one of the farmers on the East End, was compelled to replant his corn because of the ravages of the China pheasant. The farmers are quite incensed over the damage done by the pest and would like relief from the government. They have become a pest on this project and destroy corn, melons and other crops in great quantities.

See D. E. Thompson of Pendleton was a Boardman visitor Monday evening.

Charlie Harrington is selling lots of strawberries now.

Jack Gorham motored to Stanfield Tuesday on business. Mrs. Gorham and Mrs. C. G. Hayden went as far as Hermiston and visited friends there.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Van Donge and four children, Marjorie, Millard, Dean and Junior, of Corvallis, arrived Saturday for a week-end visit with Mrs. Van Doga's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Cumins. They were on their way to the Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Fisher of Nollis, Ore., came Saturday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Cumins. Mrs. Fisher is their niece.

A. P. Ayres and W. A. Knauft motored to Hermiston Saturday to get some repairs for their station wagon. J. K. Johnson and family were Hermiston visitors on Friday. Rachel had some dental work done.

L. W. Compton of Umatilla substituted for Bob Smith at the telephone key at Mezer while the latter was under the weather.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Healey were called to Portland the early part of last week to attend the funeral of a brother-in-law, Walter A. Packard, who died Sunday of heart trouble after an illness of several months duration. Funeral services were held Wednesday. Mr. Healey returned home Friday. His wife remained to be with her sister for a time.

Jess Allen purchased the stacking outfit from C. S. Callkins. The outfit is a Jay Hawk and had been used only one season.

Boy Duncan and Doyle Hubbard were Boardman visitors on Wednesday, coming over from Willow creek. Ralph Humphreys and wife departed Thursday for Elgin, Ore., where he will be in charge of the maintenance crew on the highway.

Glen Hadley and Eck Warren were home a day or so last week, having had to quit shearing on account of the heavy rains. They are at Killbuck's this week where they have 15,000 head to shear.

L. C. Cooney made a trip to Condon last week in his truck.

C. S. Callkins and daughter Alice were guests at a delicious dinner on Wednesday evening at the W. O. King home.

Walter Stottle motored up from Portland Saturday for a week-end visit at the Nick Faler home. His wife and two children, Phyllis and Betty, who have been visiting her parents for the past week, returned home with him on Monday.

Mrs. Glen Hadley was hostess at a small afternoon tea on Friday honoring Mrs. Tagg of Gearhart, Ore., who is here visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. O. King. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Humphreys, Mrs. L. C. Cooney and Joe Gorgor were guests at a pleasant evening Wednesday at the Ray L. Brown home. The evening before Humphreys left for their new location. Ice cream and cake were enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Mulkey of Arlington were guests Sunday at the Frank Cramer home for a pleasant dinner.

Andy Andregg has purchased a truck and is hauling cream to Hermiston every other day, taking cream for other patrons as well as his own. He is milking between 25 and 30 cows. He has purchased a number of hogs and brings the buttermilk from the creamery to feed them. His son, Charlie, drives the truck.

Guy Lee and wife were overnight visitors Friday with friends in Boardman. They left Saturday morning for their home in Perrydale, Or. Mr. Lee will return to Pilot Rock again in September.

Albert Macomber, who has been in charge of the maintenance work from Arlington to Rufus the past year has been transferred to Olex.

Mr. Rayburn is building a porch across the front of his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kibben of Port Collins, Colo., were week-end visitors at the W. H. McEffer home. They had a splendid trip, having been about three weeks on the way. They plan to motor on to British Columbia and then down to California before returning to their home.

J. G. Ballenger and family motored to Walla Walla, returning Sunday.

Boardman bids fair to become a second Petaluma. A number of the ranchers have started in the poultry business, some on a large scale, some on a smaller one. We visited the Chas. Dillon poultry ranch Saturday and saw chickens and more chickens (of the feathered variety). Mr. Dillon has white leghorns and at the present time has about 700 hens and about 1000 baby chickens. He is shipping a case of eggs a day at present. Walter Knauft has about 300 hens and is shipping a case of eggs every other day. They also have about 240 turkeys. The Johnsons have 500 baby chicks and they too have white leghorns, but also have about 60 leaved Plymouth Rock hens.

Mrs. S. L. Beck on the East End has a great many young turkeys, as has Mrs. Nick Paley and Mrs. Messenger, and no doubt others whose names we did not get. We have the soil conditions, climate, green feed, all three essentials for successful poultry production.

C. S. Callkins and wife were hosts at a most beautiful dinner on Sunday at their home. The guests who enjoyed the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. W. O. King and children, Mr. and Mrs. Tagg and Mrs. Glen Hadley.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gorham were visitors at the Raymond Crowder home while in Hermiston Sunday.

Mrs. Gladys Gibbons and daughter, Norma, returned Sunday from a pleasant vacation in Portland. They visited at the Dale Albright home.

Jay Cox was in Boardman over Sunday. His family will visit at Lexington and Heppner for another week.

L. C. Cooney of the East End drove to Condon last week in his truck, returning Saturday. While on the way to Trail Fork, 18 miles southeast of Condon, he became mired in the mud and had to have a team pull the truck out. This is an unusual thing for this time of year and all the farmers over that way are wearing a broad smile and predicting 40 bushels of wheat to the acre.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Bleckman and daughters, Misses Beth and Alice, were visiting at the Glen Hadley home the last of the week, returning to their home in Hardman Sunday.

C. G. Hayden returned Monday from a wonderful trip to Southern Oregon. He and Mr. Brice went as delegates to the I. O. O. F. Encampment. Mr. Hayden visited at the Jesse Cooper home near Ashland. The Coopers visited here two summers at the Hayden home and will be remembered by a number of Boardman people. While down there Mr. Hayden visited some old friends whom he had not seen for 19 years at Butter Falls. On their way down they went by way of Bend and Klamath Falls. He returned by way of the Pacific highway.

Mr. Oscar Kosar and son Everett left Sunday for West Timber, Ore., where Mr. Kosar is located.

Plans for a Community Hall at Boardman are being discussed. A committee has been appointed with representatives from various organizations and a meeting is to be held soon. P. M. Smith, representative of the Modern Woodmen, John Brice of the I. O. O. F., Nate Macomber, American Legion, Mrs. Leo Root, the Auxiliary, Mrs. Royal Bands, the Royal Neighbors and W. A. Goodwin, the Grange.

It was found necessary to change the date of the movie, "The Lost Battalion," to May 27, instead of May 28. The Auxiliary is giving this.

Boardman won from Hermiston, 5 to 1. It was a good clean game from the start but at no time was Hermiston in the game. Standish beat Umatilla by a 3 to 1 score. This leaves Standish, Umatilla and Boardman tied for first place. Next Sunday Umatilla comes here and it will be a good game as the local boys are out to win.

CECIL

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Ross and son of Waco spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Funk at the Curtis cottage near Cecil.

Messrs. H. Krebs and W. Lowe and Misses A. C. and M. H. Lowe spent Sunday at Rose Lawn, Hynd Bros. ranch in Sage Hollow.

E. Irvine arrived in Cecil Sunday from La Grande with a new truck for Wm. Sexton, highway patrol man of this section.

Harold Ahalt, government trapper, has been working the Cecil vicinity during the week.

Mrs. Karl Farnsworth and children of Rhea Siding left on Sunday to visit friends in Lone, Heppner and Monument, before joining Mr. Farnsworth in the mountains. We are glad to hear Mr. Farnsworth is feeling so much better since reaching the mountains and our best wishes go with the family who will be missed very much by us all.

Leland Ewing and Edward Thiele arrived in Cecil on Wednesday from Oakland, Ore. Leland is a native son of Cecil. His father, W. B. Ewing, sold out his ranch near here several years ago. It is now owned by W. H. Chandler.

Weather in all its various moods has been our portion during the week beginning May 17th to May 23rd. No serious damage has been done in this neighborhood. Wheat is looking splendid after the heavy rains.

Ed Bristow, one of the prominent mechanics of Lone, and his wife and sons were visiting friends in the Cecil vicinity on Sunday.

W. B. Barratt of Portland spent several hours on Tuesday visiting friends in Cecil before leaving for Heppner.

W. V. Pedro arrived at Ewing on Wednesday. He has been busy during the last week getting his band of sheep, which he recently bought, set-led on their summer range on his Hamilton ranch above Heppner.

C. D. Morey, who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. H. J. Steeter at Cecil for some time, left on the local for Portland on Wednesday.

Misses Annie C. and Violet M. Hynd spent a few days with friends in Walla Walla during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lundell and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Henriksen and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McEntire and children were callers in Arlington during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Bird of Walla Walla were calling on Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Lowe at Cecil on Monday. They were enroute for the coast.

Earl Morgan of Boardman was a Cecil visitor on Thursday. Earl is watching his wheat which is growing fast since all the rains of the last few days.

J. W. Osborn of Fairview, Leon Logan of Four Mile and H. J. Streeter of Cecil were doing business in Heppner on Monday.

Mrs. O. Wigglesworth of Morgan and Miss Dolores Crossell of the Sullivan ranch near Morgan were visiting Mrs. Pat Medlock at Rockcliffe on Friday.

W. A. Thomas of Dotseboys Hill was a Cecil visitor on Sunday. He is delighted with the late rains which were just what was needed.

Fountain opens June 1st. Patterson & Son.

Dempsey Boyer came over from his ranch near Kimberley on Monday and is spending the week here. That part of Grant county will have bumper hay and grain crops this season.
