They seem under the impression that the entire issue of bonds will be sold at once, thus putting a heavy burden of interest on the taxpayers, which in turn must be met by an increase in taxation. This is not the plan as we understand it. It will take several years to complete the road program when the money is provided and the bonds will only be disposed of as needed. The present bond issue will be paid off before any of the new bonds require attention and it is figured that there should be no increase in taxation over what is required now for the bonds the county is maturing.
