Local Happenings

Frank and Seymour Wilson of Huntington Beach, Calif., were visitors in Heppner on Tuesday while looking after business matters. These men have been located in the Southern California section for a good many years, but are still property owners in Morrow county, having land in the vicinity of Ione. They have prospered in their ventures in the South and seem quite well contented with the situation there, although Seymour believes that after all our climate has it over theirs at Huntington Beach, and is frank to acknowledge that it suits him better. We are sure that this summer would have satisfied him thoroughly, if not weather is what he is looking for. They report that Charley Johnson, now living at Inglewood, Calif., is prospering well, making money in real estate, besides having a fine income from the oil wells on his land at Huntington Beach. So far as they are able to report, the Morrow county colony living in the vicinity of Los Angeles is doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Frayn, who recently returned from a visit to Seattle, where they took in the Knights Templar conclave, also enjoyed a visit with friends at Vancouver, B. C., and visited points of interest in British Columbia. It was a delightful trip as that country looks fine this time of the year. Mr. Frayn noted, however, that at nearly every place visited there was evidence of shortage of water and the lawns seemed to be suffering, many of them not looking nearly so well as they do in Heppner.

Prof. Jas. M. Burgess, superintendent of the Heppner schools, arrived here the first of the week and will be busy from now on getting things ready for the opening of school on September 8. All teachers but one have been secured for the new school year. The resignation of Miss Wilson, elected as domestic science teacher, was recently accepted by the board of education, and as yet her successor has not been chosen.

An attraction for Saturday evening, August 15, is the cowboy dance at the fair pavilion, on which occasion there will be special music by Fletcher's Corgiel and Cowboy Orchestras of Pendleton. Free dancing from 9:30 to 9:45. "Wear your 10-gallon hat and high heel boots, bandana handkerchief and look real cute."

Sam Ganger, who has been very ill at the hospital in Heppner for the past ten days, suffering from ptomaine poisoning, is now rapidly recovering and should be able to return to his home at Ione within a few days. Mr. Ganger is proprietor of the Ione hotel.

Rev. E. C. Alford has returned from his vacation, the most of which was spent at Suttle Lake, Oregon, in attendance upon the Epworth League conference. He was accompanied by Mrs. Alford. As a side trip, Mr. Alford made a climb to the top of South Sister, one of the famous Three Sisters mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Louie Campbell of Pendleton were here on Sunday, being guests at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Campbell. They were accompanied by Mrs. C. L. Keithley, who enjoyed a short visit with friends here. The company returned to Pendleton Sunday evening.

The family of L. E. Bibebe is spending the month of August at the coast, while Lou remains at his post in Heppner to enjoy the heat and smoke. He may decide, however, to break loose and take in the coast country for a short spell of recreation before the family returns home.

J. H. Duncan and family of Portland were guests at Hotel Heppner on Tuesday. Mr. Duncan is a traveling man and has his family with him for an outing, being prepared to make camp at any suitable place along the highway as they travel.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Case and several members of the family returned home from Newport on Tuesday evening. They have been spending several weeks at this popular coast resort where they found the weather conditions delightfully cool.

Sam Hughes returned Tuesday evening from a visit to Portland, where he spent several days on business. He reports the smoke screen hanging over the metropolis as being very heavy, but weather is warm and no prospects of rain.

D. C. Walls and wife were visitors here the first of the week from Pendleton, coming over after their little son, Woodrow, who has been spending the past month at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wells in this city.

Alex R. Livingstone, Jr., of Boston, woolbuyer, was in Heppner over Tuesday night, coming over from the interior where he had been looking after the purchase of a few clips.

M. R. Mathew of The Dalles is back on the route again and was visiting his customers at Heppner Tuesday. Big Matt represents a number of Portland wholesale houses.

FOR SALE—Dodge touring car, A-1 shape. Reasonable. See John P. Hughes, Heppner, or write owner, T. A. Hughes, 1005 E. 5th St., N., Portland.

E. W. Falberg, machinist expert, and Geo. Steele, representative of J. L. Case Co., of Portland, were here yesterday on business for the company.

Postmaster Smead returned Tuesday from Portland, having spent a week in the city on business.

Mike Curran is enjoying a couple of weeks vacation at White Salmon, Wash., where he has a lot of friends and has access to abundant good fishing.

Mrs. Chas. Pointer of Salem was a visitor in this city on Monday, looking after matters of business. She is visiting with the folks at Lexington.

PEACHES FOR SALE—Early Crawford and Orange Clings, $1.50, prepaid, subject to market change. A. E. ANDERSON, R. 1, The Dalles, Ore.

FOR SALE—Good residence property in Heppner. Two-story house, good barn, chicken house, wood shed; 3 lots. Terms. See Sam Hughes.

Roger Morse and family left late yesterday afternoon for Vancouver, Wash., where they will visit with relatives for a few days.

FOR SALE—Two telephones, in good order; one at $7.50, the other at $10. See Andrew Baldwin at Morrow County Creamery.

W. E. Rutledge and wife of Miles City, Montana, were guests at Hotel Heppner on Tuesday. Mr. Rutledge is a sheep buyer.

E. C. Herzinger, district manager for the Northern Life Insurance Co., is spending a few days in Heppner this week.

FOR SALE, or will trade for a Ford car or cattle, one team, weight 3100 pounds. E. K. Mulkey, Boardman, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Chapin were Portland people stopping at Hotel Heppner Tuesday and Wednesday.

FOR SALE—Some 22 head of pigs; inquire of Pye & Grimes, Parkers Mill.

Wate Crawford and family of Morgan were visitors in this city on Saturday.

Horse pasture for rent. Telephone 7711, Heppner. H. V. Coxen.

FOR SALE—2 1/2-ton truck, $200.00. Phone 1F15, Heppner.

STRAY ANIMALS.

Came to my place on Eight Mile, Oregon, few months ago, one roan mare with a roan horse colt. Owner requested to come and take them away. GUY HUSTON.

PLEASE SETTLE UP.

Having lost all my business in the recent fire, I find myself badly in need of funds that I may pay those whom I owe. I am therefore requesting that all those knowing themselves indebted to me will make an effort to settle with me in full or in part immediately. I shall greatly appreciate your help now.

THE HEPPNER BAKERY can bake all the bread that is consumed in Heppner and then some. Does Portland bread bring any prosperity or payrolls to Heppner? Heppner bread costs no more and for cash you save 25%—9 cents a pound loaf, 3 for 25c. Do Portland bakers have any money invested in rpay taxes here? Do they donate any thing to the welfare of the city, or do they just take your money. THINK IT OVER.
