PREMIUM LIST
North Morrow County
FAIR

Boardman, Oregon, Sept. 11, 12, 1925.

OFFICERS:

CHAS. WICKLANDER, Pres.; C. H. DILLABAUGH, Sec.
LEE MEAD, Treas.

DIRECTORS:—S. H. Boardman, Mrs. C. E. Glasgow, W. T. Wright, Bert Knight.

Rules and Regulations.

All rules and regulations will be subject to the interpretation by the Executive Committee of the Fair Board.

All exhibits must be entered and in place not later than 1 P. M., Friday, September 11th.

Exhibits shipped to the Fair should be addressed to the Secretary of the North Morrow County Fair, Boardman, Oregon, and the charges prepaid.

Pens will be provided for poultry and feed and water must be provided by the exhibitors.

Names cannot be placed upon exhibits until after the judges have made out their awards. Judging will start at 1 P. M., Friday, September 11th.

No animal or article shall be allowed to compete for more than one premium, or to be entered in more than one class except threshed grains, which can be entered in the variety class and in their respective market classes. Where there is no competition an exhibit may be given a lower premium than first if it is not deemed worthy of a first place by the judges.

The decision of the judges regarding awards shall be final.

Exhibits must be left in place until 5 P. M., September 12th. Milk cows may be taken home after 5 P. M., September 11th.

Crop Estimates.

(Morrow County Farm Bureau News.)

The August crop estimate by F. L. Kent, Agricultural Statistician, shows the expected yield of our commercial crops in Oregon. In spite of some deterioration during July, due to not weather, Oregon's grain crops are found to be larger than they were last year. The same is true of hay and potatoes, but tree fruits and grapes are somewhat less than in 1924 or about the same in prospective yield. The prune crop will be but a small fraction of a full yield, the hop crop is expected to be about the same as in 1924. The July-August estimates show 6,732,000 bushels of winter wheat compared to 13,035,000 harvested in 1924. Spring wheat shows 10,120,000 bushels compared to 2,415,000 in 1924. This gives a 1925 estimate on all wheat of 16,852,000 bushels for 1925 with 15,459,000 in 1924. Barley is estimated at 4,809,000 bushels as compared to 2,425,000. Potatoes show an increase in Oregon to 4,990,000 bushels in 1925 from 3,760,000 in 1924.

United States crop of winter wheat is estimated at 416,697,000 bushels compared to 590,037,000 bushels in 1924. Spring wheat in spite of the large increase in the Pacific Northwest is estimated at 262,749,000 bushels compared to 282,636,000 bushels in 1924, making the 1925 estimate of all wheat in for United States 678,446,000 compared to 872,673,000 bushels in 1924. The United States Department of Agriculture on August 10 estimated the 1925 crop from 18 large producing countries excluding Russia at 2,146,855,000 bushels, an increase over 1924 of 2.3%.

Certified Seed Wheat.

(Morrow County Farm Bureau News.)

The forepart of July Professor C. C. Ruth, of Corvallis, and the County Agent inspected 5115 acres of grain for certification. Out of this acreage 2495 passed the field tests for certification. The inspection made was entirely on mixtures and it is possible that some of the grain will be shriveled so that it will not be extra good seed.

The following is a list of the wheats that passed the field tests:

Hard Federation.

Tom Boylen, Echo: Field A South of road, 420 acres, 99.99% pure, class A; Marquis, trace of barley and rye.

Field B, north of road, 900 acres, 99.99% pure, Class A; Marquis, trace of barley and rye.

L. Redding, Eightmile; 25 acres, 99.97% pure, class A; Trace of barley and Bluestem, good class A.

Louis Padberg, Lexington, 400 acres, class A; E. B., B .S., Club, trace of rye.

Federation.

Bob Thompson, Heppner, 50 acres, 98.40% pure, class B; Fortyfold, B. S., Club, trace of cockle.

A. E. Lawson, Heppner, 100 acres, 98.30% pure, class B; Trace of barley, Marquis, Club; good class B.

Turkey.

Frank S. Parker, Heppner, 200 acres, 99.99% pure, class A; trace of rye, B. S. and Club, good class A.

Gene Gray, Lexington, 80 acres, 99.96% pure, class A; B. S., Hybrid 128.

Earl Eskelson, Lexington, 200 acres, 99.94% pure, class A; F. F., B. S., H. 128.

Earl Warner, Lexington, 40 acres, 99.99% pure, class A; F. F. B. S.

Harry Munkers, Lexington, 80 acres, 99.92% pure, class A; E. B., B. S., Club.

Morrow County Grain Show.

(Morrow County Farm Bureau News.)

A Morrow County Grain Show will be held at Heppner during the Rodeo, September 24, 25 and 26. At this show cash prizes will be paid for market classes of wheat and variety specials on all important varieties grown in the county. Exhibits will be in bushel lots and much of the best wheat shown will be sent to Portland for the Northwest Hay and Grain Show in November. All entries must be made and exhibits in place not later than three o'clock, September 24. Exhibits must be left until five o'colck, September 26. Wheat may be entered in both the market classes and the variety specials. The following is the premium list for the Grain Show:
