

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HEREIM, Correspondent.

Marvin Howell and Claudio Brock of Wauna were guests at the Ballenger home the early part of the week. Mrs. Pat Patten and baby of Gordon spent the week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Olsen. M. L. Morgan and family of Pendleton were Boardman visitors Friday and Saturday, visiting at the H. H. Weston home and taking in the fair. Mr. Thore of Stines was a dinner guest at the Nissen home on Tuesday.

W. O. King was pleased to have his father and brother as guests over the week end. His father, P. O. King, is 70 years of age and with his son Bert had been on a vacation trip at East Lake where they caught some fine trout. They returned to their respective homes in Corvallis and Portland the early part of the week. Miss Malloy was a dinner guest at the Ballenger home Thursday evening.

A number of Heppner people were in attendance at the North Morrow County Fair on Friday and Saturday. Among those noted were Geo. Aiken and Dave McAtes, Sheriff McInnes, Dist. Atty. Nelson, County Judge E. L. Henry who was in attendance both days. County Clerk Gay Anderson and wife, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Sweet, Vawter Crawford, the editor of The Gazette-Times, Omer Higer and wife, A. M. Phillips, Frank Gilliam, County Sup't. Mrs. Helen M. Walker, Claude Cook, the creamery man, Mr. and Mrs. Bayles, Geo. Blackman, county commissioner, Harve McAlister, and P. H. Spellman of Willows.

J. B. Huddleston and sister, Miss Bess of Lane Rock attended the fair. Mrs. Quivita of Hermiston attended the fair on Saturday. She has asked if the women of the project would send a display to the women's section of the Hag and Dairy Show at Hermiston which is to be held soon. Canned fruits and vegetables, foods and fancy work are asked for. There are no prizes offered for a sectional exhibit so all work would be entered in even competition. Mrs. Quivita is very anxious to have a display from the Boardman and Irrigon sections. She expressed surprise and pleasure over the display here.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Stokes of Hermiston were Boardman visitors Saturday attending the fair. N. W. Usher of Walla Walla was here this week. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Demar and two children arrived Saturday from eastern Oregon where they have been located for several months. They visited at Messner and with other friends. Henry Ellis and family of Willows creek who purchased the Walter Cannon place several weeks ago, have moved up and are now settled in their new home. They have three children in school.

Friends will be sorry to hear that Lela Hecker was seriously injured in an automobile accident recently at Astoria. Five ribs were broken and one leg injured. She is at the hospital and getting along as well as could be expected under the circumstances. The high school girls served lunch both days at the school house and the boys sold ice cream. The proceeds will go to the athletic fund. The fair board gave a dance Friday evening with the Juniper orchestra furnishing the music, which was jazz enough to please the most ardent terpsichorean devotees. The dance was held at Bailey hall with the high school girls serving the lunch. Expenses were heavy and but $21 was cleared above expenses. This money goes for the purchase of lumber and other incidentals. The money appropriated by the county court can be used for prizes only so a different method had to be employed to raise money for other expenses.

Ray Brown has returned from a visit with his parents at Walla Walla, Wn., where he went for a few days to recuperate. Friends will be interested to hear that Miss Barbara Hixon who taught the primary grades in Boardman for the past two years, is teaching at Clatskanie, Wn., this year. She attended the U. of W. during the summer. Paul M. Smith and family motored out to Leo Gogger's in the wheat country, Sunday.

Mr. Culver of Portland was a week end guest at the W. G. King home. Mrs. H. P. Stokes of East Portal, Colo., accompanied the Davis family home on their return from Colorado. She is a sister-in-law of Mrs. Davis, and will visit here and in Portland for a time. Chas. Wicklander, master of the Pomona Grange, spent Sunday at Rhea creek where an all day meeting was held. He returned Monday morning.

The Fair Board wishes to extend their thanks to Mr. Dean of Hermiston and Miss Bouzher, the home economics teacher, who acted as judges at the fair. It is a position difficult to fill and the judges were fair and judged to the best of their ability. C. A. Beck of Ione spent Sunday at the Bailey home. Roger Morse, the county agent, was another willing worker who helped make the fair a success. Mrs. Zeigler and son Paul of San Diego, Calif., were overnight visitors at the Bailey home last week. A granddaughter, Miss Ruth Doyle accompanied them. They were on their way to Lewiston, Ida. Mrs. Zeigler is a friend of the Bailey's daughter, Mrs. Talbot, who lives in San Diego. Boardman has been in the throes of another school fight. These seem to be perennial affairs here. Matters were terminated Monday when the budget for the coming year was voted on with 62 for accepting it and 41 against. The board of directors purchased one school bus but were forced to await the action of Monday's election before purchasing the second bus, and things have been in a dreadful sort of confusion with one bus doing the work of two, and they were compelled to leave home at 3 o'clock in the morning. There has been strenuous objection to the action of the board in purchasing the bus and the contest was bitter with many innuendoes and insinuations, but it is hoped that matters will adjust themselves. One of the principal objections was against the practice of employing high school boys to drive the bus.

Bruce Ellis of Pendleton drove down Friday and was a guest at the H. H. Weston home. Mrs. Ellis is general agent for the Hudson and Essex cars. Pete Farley of Heppner was a visitor on the project Monday with the intention of buying hay. Eck Warren and wife returned Tuesday from Benton City, Wn., where they attended the funeral of Mr. Hopper, a brother-in-law. Mrs. Hopper returned with them and on Friday all motored to Condon. Mrs. Hopper remained there for a longer visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Berger motored to The Dalles on Tuesday. The Misses Blanche Innes and Irene Boyles returned Sunday from Outlook, Wn., where they have been for several weeks. Blanche plans to attend Monmouth this fall.

Mrs. C. W. Beardsley and children and Mrs. Clyde Carr motored to Paterson on Monday and also visited Mrs. Roscoe Williams at Irrigon. Miss Edna Boyles has changed her plans and will enter O. A. C. instead of Whitman. She will be a sophomore, having had one year's work at Pullman.

The North Morrow County Fair is a thing of the past. This fair which was really a community effort on the part of Boardman and Irrigon farmers was an unqualified success and much credit is due to the "faithful few" who made it so well worth while. The display of farm products and of canning and fancy work would have done justice to a place far larger. There was a bewildering array of articles on exhibit; we saw squashes, pumpkins, bed spreads, corcheted and embroidered; we saw apples, corn and melons galore; grapes, the most luscious looking bling; we saw corals, lily pads, the ceiling and sunflowers the size of young wash tubs; we saw fancy pillow slips, baby dresses, baby booties, baby caps, baby pillow slips; we gazed on canned beets, raspberries, fulsome peaches and pears. Reposing near the canned fruits were breads, some doughnuts, rolls, cookies "like mother used to make." Space will not permit the enumeration of all, but suffice it to say the fair was worth the effort. Let us now make our plans for next year for a bigger and better fair.

A. P. Ayers was a brave man, the only one on the project to show dairy cows, having one of his fine Holsteins there. A few chickens were exhibited and some rabbits. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gorham motored to Hermiston Sunday evening and attended the music, "Charley's Aunt." Lee Mead made an efficient secretary for the fair. An infinite amount of detail was part of the game and he handled the work with dispatch. All checks were paid the early part of the week and many of them were ready Saturday afternoon. We suggest that he act as secretary for the next fair.

C. G. Blayden and wife entertained Sunday at a most elaborate dinner, having Mr. and Mrs. Dudley, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred and Master Lowell, Lyle Blayden and J. T. Gorham and family as guests. The outside guests returned to their homes at Pendleton late Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Nick Gaglia and three children came home Sunday from a delightful vacation trip to various eastern points. They stepped first at Salt Lake where they visited Mrs. Gaglia's relatives. Then they went on to St. Paul and to Cumberland, Wash., where Mr. Gaglia's relatives reside. They had a most enjoyable trip, the only incident being its pleasure was on their return home. When they left Salt Lake their train hit a large car and the eight occupants were killed.

A jolly party went to the island on Sunday for a pleasure trip and also to seek Indian relics of interest. The trip was made in Geo. Mitchell's boat; a fine picnic lunch was taken and all enjoyed the day immensely. Those who went besides Mr. Mitchell were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Shell, the Misses Malloy, Bougher and Silver. It was a novel trip for the teachers and Mrs. Shell, who had never been across.

Joe Lyle was pleased to have his daughter, Mrs. S. W. Kenyon and her husband arrive unexpectedly last Wednesday from Logan, Kansas. Geo. Johnston and wife and W. H. Woodard motored to Yakima last week for fruit.

Horace N. Rayburn of Portland visited his brother Robert Rayburn for several days, leaving Tuesday for Pendleton to take in the Round-Up. Robert left Tuesday for a business trip to Condon. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lahmondier are parents of an 8-lb. boy who arrived last week in Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Vender came last week from California. They have a tiny son who was born in California. They are at the Lahmondiers. Miss Melvina Dillingham of Lebanon visited Sunday with her father, C. F. Dillingham, coming on 24 and leaving on the midnight train. She was on her way to Cheney, Wn., where she will attend the state normal. Master Fred Rossie, son of Attorney Rossie of Spokane, accompanied her, having visited at the Dillingham home at Lebanon the past month.

Ruel Knowlton and wife returned to their home in Hartford, Wn., after visiting at the Mefford home. Geo. Agee was a Boardman visitor Monday and Tuesday. He is employed with the state highway department and is working on Cabbage hill at present.

The Fair Prize List. Space will not permit the entire prize list, as it will be continued in these columns next week.

Sidelights on the Fair. Didja ever see a bigger squash than the one Howells exhibited? It took the blue ribbon—only weighed 112 1/2 pounds. Speaking of squashes, did you notice the many varieties; there were yellow ones, white ones, green ones, huge ones, frilly ones, knobby ones, tiny ones, crooked ones. Let's have a baby show next time.

No other section on earth can show buskier, prettier, healthier, brighter or finer babies than we can show you right here on the West Extension.

Didja ever see a finer display of hand work at any fair than that one Friday and Saturday? You need not reply as we know you didn't. What was wrong with the honey growers. Only two exhibits of honey and this one of the communities that has hundreds of colonies of bees. 'Tve been to several state fairs and many county fairs, but that's the best display of vegetables I've ever seen' was the comment of C. G. Blayden Friday.

The Umatilla Experiment station had a table at the fair with various sorts of literature and explanations of lamb feeding and a few tiny hales of hay and other items of interest and education. Those Irrigon folks are certainly splendid workers and such a fair makes for greater harmony between the two sections. We certainly showed outsiders just what we could do here. Any county that can grow such an array of vegetables need not worry about future finances.

C. H. Dillabaugh deserves an unlimited amount of credit for making the fair such a success. It was largely through his efforts that the county appropriations were obtained for this fair, and the accusations and innuendoes he received were unjust. True, he did receive the $10 prize for the best vegetable exhibit and the prize on cucumbers but any one who can raise and exhibit 27 varieties of vegetables deserves it. Mrs. Partlow, a woman of 82 years, received second prize for the best general vegetable display and it was some display too, and everyone was glad to see her get the prize money. Gladys Wicklander and Celia Partlow, school girls, the latter in the intermediate room, both won prizes in the domestic science department. Gladys on her cookies and cake and Celia on her Bing cherries, strawberries, Royal Annes. Good for the girls. Let's start now to boost for a bigger and better fair for 1926.
