

Local Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Curran of Gresham, Oregon, and their son, Hugh Curran and family of Pilot Rock, were visitors in the county during the week.

Miss Margaret Crawford departed on Sunday for Portland. After a visit of a few days in that city, she will sail tomorrow, in company with her cousin, Miss Rae Atherton, on the steamer Rose City for San Francisco.

Belated word has reached Heppner of the death of C. W. Oney, formerly of this city. Mr. Oney died at the home of his son, Bert Oney, in Bend on the 21st day of March, but his passing had not been made known to those interested at Heppner until this week, when relatives visiting here during the rodeo conveyed the intelligence.

Mr. and Mrs. Celous Keithley and Mrs. I. N. Prater of Pendleton, were visitors in Heppner over Saturday and a part of Sunday, returning home Sunday afternoon.

The Misses Alma and Leora Devin departed Sunday for Monmouth where they will enter the State Normal for the fall and winter.

T. H. Lowe and Roy Scott spent a short time in the city on Monday from Cecil. Mr. and Mrs. Lowe are leaving Cecil today for Portland, having turned over their business and the postoffice at Cecil to Mr. Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Westcott of Portland were guests several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Her in Heppner, coming here to help celebrate the Golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Her.

A very fine buck deer was brought to Heppner for shipment to Portland friends on Sunday. The animal was killed by a Mr. Ganger of Monmouth out in the timber on Potamus, and weighed with hide and horns, better than 225 pounds, being the largest buck killed hereabouts this season, so far as the record shows.

Mrs. A. T. Hereim and young son, accompanied by other friends of Boardman, drove to this city on Saturday to see the last day of the Rodeo. Mrs. Hereim, who is the representative of this paper at Boardman, was greatly pleased by the fine exhibition witnessed at the Rodeo grounds.

W. B. Barratt came up from Portland to take in the last day of the Rodeo. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Margaret, and they returned to Portland on Sunday.

Chance Wilson, Monument stockman, was a three-day attendant at the Rodeo, officiating as one of the three judges.

Miss Margaret Crawford departed on Sunday for Portland. After a visit of a few days in that city, she will sail tomorrow, in company with her cousin, Miss Rae Atherton, on the steamer Rose City for San Francisco.

District Attorney S. E. Notson accompanied the county court to Portland on Tuesday, to be present at the meeting Wednesday of the Unsettled and Morrow county judges and commissioners with the state highway commission and assist in the deliberations.

Mary Ellen, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Thomson, who was confined to a hospital in Portland for some time while recovering from an operation for appendicitis, returned home with her mother the past week. She is now getting along quite well.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Burroughs of Jordan Sidling were taking in the big doings here on Saturday. Mr. Burroughs states that his fine crop of fall apples is now being harvested. Much good fruit is produced on the Burroughs farm on Rhea creek.

The Misses Margaret and Bernice Woodson departed during the week to take up their work at the University of Oregon at Eugene. Miss Bernice will enter the university as a freshman this year, having attended school in Portland last season.

John Vaughn and family were up from Portland for a few days the end of the week, visiting with relatives at Lone and Heppner. Returning home on Sunday they were accompanied by Mrs. Carrie Vaughn who will spend a week or so in the city.

Miss Edna Vaughn came up from Portland on Friday an spent Saturday here, taking in the Rodeo. She returned home on Sunday, going to the city with Leonard Barr, her stepfather, who is spending the week visiting with his family.

Roy Her and family returned to their home at Portland on Tuesday after spending a week in this city to be present at the Her family reunion and take in the Rodeo. Roy is employed by the O.W. R. & N. and works out of Portland.

Edward Rietmann was in the city yesterday from his farm north of Lone. So far this fall but very little rain has fallen out that way and it is beginning to be badly needed, in order that the seeding of grain may be under way.

Waldo Terry of Baker, brother of Jack Terry of this city, was here for the Rodeo. He took part in the bucking contest the first day, but was disqualified when he hit the dust off Bluebird.

Mrs. A. T. Hereim and young son, accompanied by other friends of Boardman, drove to this city on Saturday to see the last day of the Rodeo. Mrs. Hereim, who is the representative of this paper at Boardman, was greatly pleased by the fine exhibition witnessed at the Rodeo grounds.

W. B. Barratt came up from Portland to take in the last day of the Rodeo. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Margaret, and they returned to Portland on Sunday.

Chance Wilson, Monument stockman, was a three-day attendant at the Rodeo, officiating as one of the three judges.

Attorney Glenn Y. Wells drove up from Portland for a visit with relatives here and to take in a part of the Rodeo. He was accompanied by his niece, Miss Myra Wells, daughter of Assessor Wells, who is taking a business course in the city. They returned to Portland on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McNamer entertained quite a number of visitors during the Rodeo, among them being Bert Mason and family of Lone, Mrs. S. Butler of Skamania, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Rodgers of Walls Falls, the latter being a brother of Mrs. McNamer.

A very heavy shower of rain fell over Heppner and vicinity on Tuesday evening, wetting up the ground in good shape. The storm was accompanied by some thunder but no damage was reported. The rain was not general over the county, however.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Peterson took in the Rodeo from their home at Ukiah. Mr. Peterson is the owner of the relay string which capped the three-day money. Mrs. Peterson was formerly Miss Ruth Haddleston of this city.

Pete and A. W. Gilliland, jockeys for the Peterson relay string, Rodeo winners, and Kenneth Dupuy, champion Ukiah buckaroo, were three Ukiah boys who took a prominent part in the Rodeo.

E. Nardyk, proprietor of Venturi garage at Lexington, was in the city for a short while on Monday, attending to matters of business.

Attorney F. A. McMenamin of Portland spent two days in Heppner the end of the week, taking in the Rodeo.

Jas. R. Stewart of Corvallis, formerly editor of the Fossil Journal and for many years a booster for permanent roads and promoter of the John Day highway, was a visitor here Friday and Saturday, having matters of business to attend to in this vicinity.

Dillard French of Gardane was an interested spectator at the Rodeo. His son Jack won the buckaroo championship as well as the prize for all-around cowboy. Herbert French, another son, also took part in the show.

Patrick Curran and Frances Doherty, both residents of Morrow county, were joined in matrimony at St. Patrick's church in Heppner on Wednesday, Sept. 23rd, Rev. Father Cantwell, parish priest officiating.

The regular meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary will be held at Bethel chapel, Monday evening next. Hostesses are Mrs. Frank Gilliam and Mrs. Andrew Olsen. Mrs. Walter Moore, Secretary.

Many lone people were here Saturday for the last Rodeo performance. Among them were Walter Cochran and family, "Busty" Cochran, "Dutch" Rietmann and family, "Hap" Woods and family.

Senator Robert Carsner of Gilliam county was a visitor in Heppner on Monday, being interested in some stock shipments from this point. He was accompanied by Mrs. Carsner.

Plett Bros. of Dry Fork made a hit at the Rodeo with their beautiful chariot team. They assisted in putting on the exhibition chariot race the three days.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Whittington of Bend arrived at Heppner on Friday, taking in two days of the Rodeo and having a good visit with former friends. They returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Luttrell were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Clark during the Rodeo. They returned to their home at Grass Valley on Sunday.

Mrs. Phill Cohn and daughter Eleanor were in Heppner for the last day of the Rodeo. They arrived by auto Friday, accompanied by Mr. Cohn.

Miss Ruth Tash left on Sunday for Monmouth and will enter school in the State Normal for the year. Miss Tash taught in this county the past year.

APPLES—Good Spitzenberg eating and cooking apples, $1 a box, Loh Hood River, cash with order. B. L. Clark, R. 1, Box 121, Hood River, Ore.

Mrs. Ida Dutton was a week-end visitor in the city from her home in Portland and enjoyed meeting many of her former friends while here.

Hiram Tash is a guest this week at the home of his son, Fred Tash, coming over from his home at Walls Falls on Friday.

Lost on Sept. 25, between Lone and Lexington, one new spare tire on wire wheel; reward, $5. Werner Rietman, Lone, Ore.

Dr. A. H. Johnston drove to Portland on Monday and after a few days of business in the city will return home on Friday.

M. R. Morgan and family of Lone were among the numerous visitors in the city from that part of the county on Saturday.

For Sale—Horses, mules, plow, harness, weeder and Holt motor combine. Troy Bogard, Eight Mile, Ore. Good frame building, 20 x 40 for rent; suitable for workshop or storage. Inquire Gentry Shoe Store.

Order Your SEED WHEAT Now We have some Forty Fold, average 97 1-4 per cent pure, and Certified Hybrid 128. Heppner Farmers Elevator

NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY YOUR LUMBER Rough lumber, at mill . . . $15.00 per M Shiplap, at mill . . . $19.00 per M No. 1 Rustic, at mill . . . $30.00 per M No. 2 Rustic, at mill . . . $25.00 per M No. 1 Finish, at mill . . . $35.00 per M No. 2 Finish, at mill . . . $30.00 per M Flooring, at mill . . . $35.00 per M Will deliver in truck-load lots of 1500 feet or more at Heppner for $6.00 per M. 16-Inch Pine Wood, at mill, $4.00 Cord Pyle & Grimes Parkers Mill, Oregon

Bargains In Drills I have VAN BRUNT and KENTUCKY DRILLS, slightly damaged by flood water at BARGAIN PRICES. KARL L. BEACH LEXINGTON, ORE.

Farmers Have your seed wheat re-cleaned and dry-treated on your farm. Phone or call at Peoples Hardware Co., Brown Warehouse Co., or see W. T. Wheeler

STYLEPLUS CLOTHES Styleplus Windsor Cheviots Smart dressers are wearing cheviots this Fall. Knowing they would, we arranged to offer Styleplus Windsors—cheviots of character. The fabrics are diagonals, broadwales, diamond weaves, herringbones, and super-mixtures. Shades are Collegiate Greys, Sand Tones, Burgundies, Delft Blues, Gothic Browns. Come in and see Styleplus before you buy any clothes—especially see the Windsor Cheviots. David A. Wilson Everything in Men's Work and Dress CLOTHES

Central Market C. W. McNAMER, Proprietor FRESH AND CURED MEATS, FISH AND POULTRY Call us when you have anything in our line to sell. Phone Main 652

SUPERIOR DRILL WITH THE ALEMITE OILING SYSTEM We have both the Superior and Kentucky Drills in both disc and hoe, also the Rotary Rod Weeder, which is sure to get all the weeds. You will surely save money by buying a new drill instead of using an old one that does poor work, and you know it does not pay to plant your seed on weedy ground. Gilliam & Bisbee

OUR Closing Out SALE Continues Pure Cane Sugar $7.00 PER SACK Kellogg's Corn Flakes, 10c pkg. Sinclair's Condensed Milk, 10c Can Graniteware and Tinware still at reduced prices. Piece goods, men's ware, gloves and all other items cut to sell. Entire Stock Must Go SAM HUGHES CO.

Now is the time to order your COAL for your winter needs TUM-A-LUM LUMBER CO. Heppner, Lexington, Lone Albers stands for Better Breakfasts! Albers Carnation Mush Count on Carnation Mush not only for a better breakfast but an easier-to-get breakfast. Five minutes . . . and this delicious whole wheat cereal is table-ready!

COMING TO The Dalles and Pendleton DR. MELLENTHIN Specialist in Internal Medicine for the past twelve years. DOES NOT OPERATE Will be in The Dalles on Saturday, October 10, Dalles Hotel, and in Pendleton on Sunday, October 11, at the Dorian Hotel. Office Hours: 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. ONE DAY ONLY No Charge for Consultation.

Dr. Mellenthin is a regular graduate in medicine and surgery and is licensed by the state of Oregon. He does not operate for chronic appendicitis, gall stones, ulcers of stomach, tonsils or adenoids. He has to his credit wonderful results in diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels, blood, skin, nerves, heart, kidneys, bladder, bed wetting, catarrh, weak lungs, rheumatism, sciatica, leg ulcers and rectal ailments. Below are the names of a few of his many satisfied patients in Oregon: Rose J. Aplin, Carson, Wash., nerve trouble. Mrs. Otto Will, Jefferson, varicose ulcer, leg. M. P. Christianson, Albany, bladder trouble. Mrs. M. A. Ewan, Coquille, stomach trouble. Robert Ziglinski, Seio, stomach and heart trouble. John Roth, Albany, adenoids and tonsils. Mrs. M. I. Olsen, Portland, appendicitis. Remember the above date, that consultation on this trip will be free and that his treatment is different. Married women must be accompanied by their husbands. Address: 211 Broadway Bldg., Los Angeles, California.

School Days Are Here NOW is the time to get your boy fitted up with one of our Oregon City Woolen Mills All Wool, Two Pants Suits; they look well after one year of wear. Thomson Brothers