MORROW COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER. Foreign Advertising Representative THE AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION.

The Sign of the Times.

OREGON is awakening. Awakening to what? The possibilities of advertising. The arousal from her state of hyper-somnolence is not yet complete, but she has stirred, drawn a long breath, rolled over and started to rub her sleepy eyes—mayhap, in a short time she will be up and at it.

Portland launched its campaign for $250,000 to advertise Oregon at a kick-off luncheon Monday. Mayor Rolph of San Francisco was there to lend a helping hand and point the way.

It is alright for Portland to take the lead, for what benefits Oregon benefits Portland primarily; it is the metropolis, the outlet to the world. But likewise, what benefits Portland benefits Oregon; an undeniable corollary.

A Good Indorsement. FREDERICK STEIWER, Pendleton, is getting some big boosts in his candidacy for the United States Senate, and one of the best that has come to our notice to date is from the pen of James J. Fee, a contemporary of Mr. Steiwer's in the profession of law at Pendleton.

commented favorably on Frederick Steiwer as a candidate for United States Senator, but left the impression he is lacking in initiative and aggressiveness.

cost 23 cents. A dozen oranges ate up a dollar bill. The articles mentioned are a good barometer of prices of other food products.

It is acknowledged by economists and other experts that the President's suggestions along the lines of cooperative marketing, if followed by Congress will do much in solving the problem of both the producer and the consumer.

Lost, on Sept. 26, between Ione and Lexington, one new spare tire on wire wheel, reward, $5.

James J. Crossley of Portland, Oregon hereby announces that he is a candidate for the Republican nomination for U. S. Senator at the May, 1926, Primaries.

Will work zealously for development of Oregon and support of measures for real benefit of farmers as suggested by their organizations.

"She's better than she used to be" starts easier, climbs hills better and gives less trouble all around. And I believe the answer is this new Zerolene 'F' for Fords I've been using. It costs less than the oil I'd been using, but it actually seems to lubricate better. Zerolene 'F' for Fords gets to all the parts requiring lubrication—especially the wrist-pin bearings and upper half of the cylinder walls. Zerolene 'F' for Fords is made by the Standard Oil Company's patented vacuum process. It deposits a minimum of carbon, and because it lubricates better it enables the engine to develop a noticeable increase of power over and above what Ford owners have been accustomed to expect. A Ford is an A-1 transportation investment. Protect your investment by proper lubrication. STANDARD OIL COMPANY (California) Zerolene For FORDS "Feeds those oil-starved Fords"
