

BOARDMAN

MRS. A. T. HERREM, Correspondent.

Mr. Mason of Madras was a Boardman visitor Monday and Tuesday at the Chaas Dillon home.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Johns and family of Waspa, Wn. Mr. Parlay and N. A. Knowlton of Gresham, Wn. were week-end guests at the W. H. Madford home. Mr. Knowlton came to see his wife who has been staying with her daughter, Mrs. Madford, for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gorham and Mrs. S. H. Boardman attended the Chautauque at Hermiston on Monday evening.

A. E. Johnson of The Dalles is at the J. H. Johnson home. He came up to be on hand for the opening of the season.

Bud Chaffee arrived Sunday for a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chaffee. Bud has been working at Wendling, near Eugene, for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Catkins and daughter Alice and E. Clark were dinner guests at the O. H. Warner home on Sunday. Edwin Clark is a brother of Mrs. Catkins and is on his way to his home in Eggs, Neb. After several months spent in California where he went to regain his health.

John Jenkins is the latest radio fan. He had a fine new set installed last week. Lee Mead purchased a set but returned it as it proved unsatisfactory. B. B. Lewis, the signal maintainer has purchased the set Bobby Smith had.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gorham and Mr. Carr motored to Madras Sunday to get Mrs. Carr who has been there the past fortnight visiting her parents.

A great many Boardman people motored to Blalock Sunday to see the wreck. A few went down Saturday night. Davis and Macomber went down at once as dispatchers and worked until 10 o'clock Sunday morning.

R. S. Kingsley, who used to own the Boardman Trading store was a Boardman visitor Sunday last Monday.

Alice Catkins had her tennis removed Wednesday by Dr. Miller, at Mrs. Warner's.

Mrs. W. A. Price enjoyed a visit from her father, C. G. Beebe who was enroute to his home in Centralia after a trip to Salt Lake City, where he visited a brother who was ill. Mr. Beebe left Monday for his home.

Frank Otto and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ballenger motored to Portland Sunday in the former's car. Ballenger will get their new Essex coach in Portland and drive on to Tillamook before returning home. Maxers is with her grandparents here. Mr. Murchie has been under the weather with a severe attack of indigestion but is recovering.

Most of the masculine contingent of Boardman attended the boxing match Friday night at Hermiston.

Dillon and Bergers motored to Heppner one day last week.

Mrs. Boardley has returned from a pleasant motor trip to Lewiston, Idaho, where she visited relatives. She drove the Ford alone and had no trouble of any kind.

Rally Day service was held Sunday at the church which was beautifully decorated for the occasion with fall flowers, and the brilliantly colored woodlinds. A program was given and the recitations of the little folks were especially enjoyed. The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Skobo was baptized by Rev. Swigger on that day.

The Boardman Trading Co. has been a busy place this week moving into their new quarters in the Mack building. Mrs. Chaas Goodwin assisted and W. A. Goodwin has been putting in shelves and similar work. Mr. Cobb, the proprietor, has been down from Walks Walks helping. Their new location is closer to the highway and the building has more light.

Boardman radio fans have been listening in and following with intense interest the national series, at the lumber yard. Mr. McPherson has been taking his new radio down there daily and an improved board makes the game doubly interesting.

Mrs. Oscar Beck and her daughter, Mrs. Ray Dempsey (Thyrs) and husband were down last week for a few days visit at the Bailey home. They packed their household goods and shipped them to La. Cross, Wn., where they will make their home.

Lyle Blayden left Sunday for California after a few days visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Blayden.

Recent guests at the J. E. Johnson home were Miss Dorothy Johnson, Wayne Hall and Harlan Johnson of Wasco.

Mrs. W. O. King and two children returned last week and visited him. Boardman carried home 4 prizes from the women's exhibit at the Hog and Dairy Show at Hermiston. The exhibit was sent up merely to show a neighborly spirit but those articles which qualified for exhibit were judged with the rest, and Mrs. Nick Falter received second prize for her loaf of bread, Mrs. Jack Gorham 1st in child's dress and Mrs. Note Macomber 1st on her applique bed spread.

The school garage is nearing completion after waiting a long time for nails.

Mrs. E. E. Mulley and son Marie went to The Dalles one day last week for some dental work.

Mr. Dan Renner spent a few days in Pendleton last week visiting her mother and other relatives before their departure for Kansas City where they will make their home. Mrs. Marlowe, a sister-in-law returned home Sunday with her for a visit at the Baxstier home.

A most congenial crowd gathered Tuesday at the schoolhouse at a party given by the ladies aid with husbands of the members, teachers and the minister and his wife as invited guests. Various games were played that created much amusement and laughter. The "poi luck" luncheon was a feast instead of a lurch and was an important feature of the evening. Mrs. S. H. Boardman made an exceptionally clever toastmaster and called on C. S. Catkins who responded for the husbands, Rev. Swigger and Mr. Boardley, who answered for the teachers. A number of the high school girls looked after the younger children so the mothers were free to enjoy the evening.

LEXINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Alexander and daughter, Miss Florence Alexander, of Chehalis, Wash., arrived Friday by auto from Lethbridge, Canada, for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kelly. Mr. and Mrs. Alexander are parents of Mrs. Kelly.

W. A. Wirtz, Tom-A-Lum auditor, was on business at the Lexington yard Friday of last week.
