

NORTH END ALIVE TO ROAD NEEDS

Situation Is Reviewed At Pine City Meeting Last Sunday.

OUTSIDERS SPEAK

Pendleton and Other Umatilla Delegates Present; Demands of Section to be Fulfilled.

It was five years ago this last July that the Butter Creek Highway association was brought into existence down at Umatilla. The primary object of the association, as we understand it, was to get a force behind a road program that was in the making...

On Sunday afternoon at Pine City, in answer to the call of J. P. Conder, president of the association, there were gathered representatives from Hermiston, Stanfield, Echo, Pendleton, Lexington, Heppner, Alpine and the community round about the Pine City neighborhood...

President Conder presided in an efficient way and succeeded in having the meeting move off in a snappy manner. He explained that the meeting was called a little late purposely, as he desired to wait until definite action had been taken on the completion of the Lena-Vinson gap in the Oregon-Washington highway...

Many speakers were called upon from among the number present. Fred George of Echo spoke briefly upon the subject of "First Things First," his talk being from the standpoint of a member of the Echo commercial club. He reviewed some of the work of the association and told how, by their united efforts they were enabled to get the county court of Umatilla county to agree to the building of the hard surfaced road out of Hermiston to the county line near Jackson on Butter creek...

Dr. Haylor, Eye Specialist of Portland, in Heppner October 23 and 24. The members of the football team will leave early Friday morning for Bend, to be on hand in plenty of time for the Bend-Heppner game Saturday. Mr. Finch, coach, plans to alter the formation on the defense for the Bend game. He will probably change Aiken and Stout to tackle positions; E. Merritt to end; Evans to center; E. Doherty to full; and E. Buckman to quarterback. This he believes will strengthen the line and at the same time not weaken the backfield. Harold Erwin will help Mr. Finch as trainer in the shower room and on the field.

Four cars will be used to carry over the members of the team, and in addition several cars of rosters are expected to make the trip. The cast for the Senior play "Hold That Line Jimmy" has been chosen. The cast is: Jimmy Graham, president of Crayton College, Jim Thomson, energetic leader; his best intimate friend, Crockett Spruill; Chubby Conroy, captain of the football team; Earl Merritt; Jasper Allen, president of the school board; John Turner; Shirley Allen, niece of Jasper Allen; Nellie Babcock; Margie Winston, most energetic girl in college; Velma Felt; Flossie, latest girl in college; Irene Lovgren; Arabella Washington, cook for college; Margaret Prophet.

BOARDMAN WOMAN HAS FINE RECORD MAKING SWEATERS

Mrs. L. M. Hadley, formerly of Hardman, now of Boardman where she is making her home for the winter, has a fine record as a volunteer Red Cross knitter, and below we quote from a letter she has written to Mrs. Lillian Cochran, chairman of the Morrow County chapter, who has called for volunteers again that sweaters might be provided for the disabled veterans of the late war...

CONDON AND HEPPNER MIX IT TO 6-6 TIE

Visitors Surpass in Passing Game While Locals Are Best in Scrimmage.

Before a good sized crowd on Bodeo field here Saturday Condon and Heppner high school football teams played to a 6-6 tie. The Condon lads made their counters with two place-kicks while Heppner gained hers on a touchdown. Condon, receiving on the first kickoff, opened up with an aerial attack which carried them to Heppner's 20-yard line. On being held three downs without making yardage, they made their first place kick. The second came in the last quarter, when again after threatening Heppner's goal, Condon was forced to place kick in order to score.

Legion Auxiliary Ladies Sponsor Benefit Party

The American Legion Auxiliary will give a card party in the Heppner hotel dining room, Wednesday night, October 28, beginning at 8 o'clock. Auction bridge will be played. The public is cordially invited to attend. Tickets will be 50 cents each. The fund raised by this means will be used to spread Christmas cheer among disabled veterans in Hospital 77 and their families.

FOOTBALL TEAM GOING TO BEND; HIGH SCHOOL WILL PRESENT PLAY

Some members of the cast of the annual staff have already been chosen. Margaret Prophet will be editor-in-chief; Howard McDuffee will handle the business end, and Jim Thomson will charge the editorial end of the athletic section. Friday night the student body had a pep rally. There was a good turnout and everybody seemed to have the old spirit of Heppner high. The absence of Duck Lee, the yell leader, caused a few blunders, but on the whole the rally was a success. After going through the show a mad rush was made for the billboards where the bonfire flames were rolling and leaping up in the sky. Some one got in a hurry and lighted the fire too soon but the "gang" got there in time to see the last results of the freshmen's hard labor vanish. Later a portable victrola was brought to the fire side and dancing ended the happy-go-lucky rally.

The biology class has completed its study of grasshoppers and will begin the study of trawfish this week. This was chosen by Mr. Smith for it is the easiest of animals to dissect. There will be no school on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of the coming week on account of the bonfire institute at Pendleton. All Morrow county teachers will go over there to have a joint institute with Umatilla county. Last Wednesday the student body was shaken up by a few thrilling talks given by members of the football squad and the coach. The first was by Coach Finch, who tried to arouse more interest in high school athletics. Howard McDuffee gave a stirring talk on the slacker who would not turn out and back the high school's football team. Duck Lee, pep leader, gave a short talk and then led the student body in a few snappy yells for the team. The last speech was made by Captain Gene Doherty, who spoke for the team and what they thought of the hard work of the teachers that turned out for the first game. The result of the rally was seen in the unusually good turnout for the game Saturday. The yells were mighty and between halves a big serpent through the field kept up enthusiasm.

Some games were played and then the oath was given the freshmen, which made them promise to do certain things. The paddle was used freely on the freshmen to indicate to them what a violation of this oath would mean. Refreshments were served after the initiation. The Heppnerian Literary society

E. E. Brodie, editor of the Oregon City Enterprise, accompanied by Mrs. Brodie, was a visitor in Heppner last night while on the return home from a trip to Walla Walla. Mr. Brodie was formerly minister to Siam but resigned that post some months ago and with his family returned to the United States and has again assumed editorial supervision of his paper, a daily, published at Oregon City. He never overlooks the print shops when he passes through a town, as we were honored by a very pleasant visit from Mr. Brodie.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Jim Cowins is carrying a broken right shoulder. The injury occurred to him while in the mountains last week, but he discovered that the shoulder blade was broken until Monday when he came to town to consult a physician. In a fall Mr. Cowins not only broke the shoulder blade, but dislocated the shoulder joint, and when the doctor took hold of him he discovered he was far worse hurt than he thought.

ONE MAN CLAIMS OLYMPIA YOUNG WOMAN AS BRIDE

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Ware at 216 21st street, Olympia, Washington, was the scene the past week of a pretty wedding, when their daughter, Miss Evelyn Elizabeth Ware became the bride of Noel K. Dobyns of Ione, Ore. The service was read at 1 o'clock by Rev. R. H. Edmonds, formerly pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian church.

THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH GETS BIG BUCK.

Ven. Sidney W. Cressley will hold service in All Saints Episcopal church on Sunday next, October 25th, at 11 o'clock. Regular services will be held from now on the second and fourth Sundays of each month. The church school will meet at 9:45 a. m. every Sunday.

ARE MAKING FINE SORGHUM.

Tim Rippee is over at Boardman where he is assisting in the manufacture of sorghum for a number of the residents of the project. He came over to Heppner Friday with a sample of the product and handed out small quantities to various friends who pronounce the article first class. Messrs. John Jenkins, E. Cumins and Chas. Harrington are the project farmers interested in this sorghum venture, and Tim, having been raised in Missouri, knows just how to handle the cane and cook the sap, so he is chief operator at the manufacturing plant for the time being. The cane grows well at Boardman and it is expected that the production will improve should the present venture prove a success.

POSSIBILITIES OF UMATILLA RAPIDS TOLD TO YAKIMA

(Monday's East Oregonian)

Pendleton men to the number of five will leave tomorrow morning for Yakima where they will represent this district at two meetings that are to be held in the Yakima valley in the interest of the Umatilla Rapids association. The local men who will make the trip include G. A. Hartman, vice-president of the association, George C. Barr, secretary, James Johns, E. B. Aldrich and Roy W. Riner.

Wednesday morning the local men and other officers of the association will meet with the directors of the Yakima Chamber of Commerce, and at 1 o'clock they will discuss the possibilities of the Umatilla Rapids association. A luncheon will be given to which representatives of the commercial organizations of the various towns in the Yakima valley have been invited.

Marshall N. Dana, president of the association, will explain the objects of the association and the progress made to date in realizing these objects. A. H. Devers of Portland is expected to accompany Mr. Dana from Portland to the meetings. Lewiston, Idaho, Walla Walla, Pasco, Hermiston and Alderdale, Washington, are also expected to have representatives present.

State Sunday School Worker Will Be Here

Mrs. Jean M. Johnson, general secretary of the Oregon Council of Religious Education and Mrs. Clara G. Esso, one of the field workers, will be the speakers at a joint meeting of all Sunday schools and churches of this community, Sunday evening, October 25, at the M. E. church, at 7:30. On Monday meetings will be held at 9:30 a. m. and 2:00 p. m. These women have some fine things for us to hear; let us give them a good hearing as they speak in the interest of the general Sunday school work of the state.

Lexington Organizes Town Football Team

Russell Wright, who has been chosen as manager, writes this paper that Lexington has completed the organization of a town football team, and their first game of the season is scheduled for next Sunday, October 25th, at 2:00 p. m. with Arlington on the latter's grounds. Mr. Wright expresses the hope that other towns will organize teams, and the Lexington team extends a challenge to any such teams within Morrow and adjoining counties. There has been some talk of Heppner getting a town team together, and should they do so, games will no doubt be arranged with Lexington as well as with other teams of the neighboring towns. Lexington would like a game with Heppner on Armistice Day or Thanksgiving.

YOUNG PEOPLE ARE MARRIED AT CECIL MONDAY

Miss Annie Hynd Becomes Bride of Elvin R. Schaffer at Beautiful Ceremony in Hall.

On Monday last the Cecil Hall was again the scene of a beautiful wedding, when Elvin R. Schaffer claimed for his bride Miss Annie C. Hynd, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hynd, highly respected residents of the Cecil neighborhood. The ceremony occurred promptly at 11:00 a. m., the beautiful service of the Episcopal church being read by Archdeacon Sidney W. Cressley of the Eastern Oregon diocese, the officiating clergyman.

The bride was led to the altar by her father, by whom she was given in marriage, and attended by Miss Willetta Barratt of Portland as bridesmaid. William Jackson, cousin of the bride, of Arthur, Ontario, was best man and the bridal party marched to the altar to the strains of music played on the piano by Mrs. Henry Krebs. The hall was gaily festooned in white and pink and beautiful bouquets of flowers tastefully placed completed the decorative scene that was in keeping with the occasion.

Following the wedding ceremony the guests were seated at the banquet table, place cards being used. The dinner was bounteous and delightfully served. A large wedding cake decorated the center, and at the proper time this was divided by the bride and passed to the guests. Immediately after the wedding feast, the young couple departed for Portland where they will spend a short honeymoon. They were accompanied as far as Arlington by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Krebs and the train. Their leaving was somewhat hindered by those who pressed upon them congratulations and hearty good wishes, all of which was emphasized by the distribution of an abundance of rice, and as she left the bride cast her bouquet at both Cecil and the train. Business Is Good. She Didn't Cry. Pity Poor New York. Thinking Is Hard.

Business IS GOOD. Tell that to your inquiring friends. The value of crops will be TEN THOUSAND MILLION DOLLARS. Farmers are more cheerful, prices are good.

The state of New York pities itself because it pays $500,000,000 income tax, almost a third of the entire national tax. New Yorkers shouldn't forget that if they pay $500,000,000, it is because forty-seven other states send all their wealth to New York banks, spend millions in New York shops and hotels, and allow New York's high finance to tap with its corporations and its intricating ownerships the sources of wealth all over the United States.

President Coolidge will leave the coal situation for the present to Congress and hope there will be no profiting in the meantime. So reads the dispatch.

That is a large hope, for "in the meantime" many dealers have raised the price fifty cents a ton. With the public, panic-stricken, rushing to buy that means comfortable profiting.

Mrs. Elsie Eaton Newton, Ohio lady, found herself facing the emptiness of life, with her two daughters married. Many ladies would have sat down to have a good cry. Mrs. Newton went to Marietta College, worked hard, got her B. S. degree, and her two granddaughters sitting in the audience, to cheer.

Now she is Dean of Women in Marietta College, and happy. There is no life emptiness, except in the brain. Keep that busy and life is all right, and your two daughters are married and your husband dead.

The next generation will read about "the navy patrolling the route," to save the fliers if necessary, and that will seem as strange as to send an automobile with a carrier pigeon in case it should fall down.

Mr. Kinkle, in New York, to prove gratitude for the recovery of his son, supposed to be hopelessly ill, will build a 65-story building, partly religious, partly commercial, made up of a church and a hotel, with 4,500 bedrooms. Ten per cent of profits will go to missionary work looked after by the son. The father will look after the profits.

The dining room will hold 2,000 in the tall building, thus far, in the United States. This religious building contrasts interestingly with the old sinful Tower of Babel, which probably was about one-half the proposed height of this 65-story hotel.

The great Bernard Shaw, in a mood of unusual but accurate humility, says the world a thousand years hence will know nothing about him except that the great French sculptor Rodin, once made a bust of Shaw, biographical dictionaries contain this: "Shaw, Bernard; subject of bust by Rodin; otherwise unknown."

Even that's an overstatement, for in a thousand years Rodin won't be remembered any more than Shaw. Rodin in art, 1000 years from now will be as important as Kipling in literature or Shaw in philosophy.

After war broke out, the czar put Russia on a cold water basis, stopping the sale of vodka absolutely. This column then suggested that absence of whiskey would mean mere cold thinking by Russians, and that one result of such thinking would be the absence of the czar. That prophecy was fulfilled.

Now Bolshevism restores vodka to its old alcoholic amount—about forty per cent. Men to whom thinking is new dislike the unpleasant sensation and effort.

And governments that want to rule in peace find their work easier when the crowd ruled is well supplied with whiskey.

Butter Creek Couple Married at Pendleton

Miss Kate Irene Moore became the bride of Neil G. Robertson at a wedding in Pendleton Monday afternoon, according to Echo News. The ceremony was performed by the pastor of the First Christian church, Rev. Guy L. Drills, pastor, officiating. A number of friends of the couple from Butter creek were among the guests.

Mrs. Robertson has lived for several years on her Butter creek farm, which was operated by her brother Hiram Moore. Mr. Robertson was formerly a resident of Uiah, but has been living in the Butter creek country for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson will make their home on Butter creek. Mrs. Robertson is quite well known to many Heppner people.
