

Local Happenings

A letter received this week from our old friend, Col. C. C. Boone of the Roseburg Soldiers Home, indicated that he is getting along fine and enjoying himself. Being well equipped with hunting and fishing equipment, the colonel states that he is killing time as a sportsman, recently taking a couple of hunting and fishing trips. These netted him plenty of fish but no deer, as the latter are hard to get. He sends regards to all old Morrow county friends.

Theo. Beck, formerly engaged in farming in the Eight Mile section, came down from Walla Walla the last of the week and is getting the balance of his staff together so that it may be transferred to his new location. Mr. Beck will make his home at Walla Walla, where he expects to continue in the farming game. He states that it is very dry up that way now and that good rains are as badly needed there as here as the dry weather is hindering the fall seeding.

Owing to an automobile accident, in which his machine was rather badly smashed, Rev. Allyn Eason was unable to reach Heppner for services at the Christian church on Sunday. He will be here for the coming Sunday, however, and services will be held both morning and evening. No particular details of the accident reached Heppner but in a telegram Mr. Eason stated that he was not hurt, even though his car was put out of commission.

Percy Garrigues of Portland and Orve Rasmus of this city returned to town Tuesday evening after several days of hunting in the timber. They were not successful in landing a buck deer, and hoping for better luck in another line, they departed today for East Lake, where they will angle for some of the big trout for a few days before Mr. Garrigues finishes his vacation season.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Jackson and son William, who have been visiting at the Cecil home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hynd at Cecil for the past four weeks, departed on Tuesday for their home at Arthur, Ontario. They are returning by way of Salt Lake City and Denver. Mrs. Jackson is a sister of Mrs. Hynd and this is their first visit to the Pacific coast.

Dr. Earl McFarland, collector of customs at Portland and one time resident of Heppner, when he was a kid, and John Welch, also of Portland, were visitors here on Friday. Being personal friends of Dr. Fred E. Frazier, they accompanied him on a hunting trip and enjoyed some good bird shooting before returning to the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hynd of Ukiah came over Monday to attend the Schaffer-Hynd wedding at Cecil. Charley states that the "sky line" road from Ukiah to Ditch creek is now in very excellent shape and the trip to Heppner, a distance of 51 miles, can be made easily by car in 2 1/2 hours.

The lone hotel changed hands on the 15th of this month, Pyle & Grimes, recently of Parkers Mill, having purchased the hostelry from M. B. Haines, the owner. This hotel has been run for the past two years by Sam Ganger, who a short time since rented out the place and removed to Portland.

Andy Bood departed for Portland on Sunday morning, where he will spend a few days on business. He was accompanied by John Kilkenny and George Thomson, the latter being on his way to Seaside for a short visit with his family, located there for the winter.

F. L. Harwood returned Sunday night from Portland. He spent a few days in the city the past week attending the radio show, during which time he secured the agency at Heppner for the Freed-Eisemann line, bringing some of the machines home with him.

Ralph Jones, who was doing business in the city Saturday from his home on Butter creek, reports that it is pretty dry out Lena way and the ranchers would welcome rain. It is too dry to plow at the present time, though grain that has been put in the ground is coming up well.

Postmaster Smead returned home Saturday evening after spending a couple of weeks in the mountains deer hunting. Regardless of the fact that Mr. Smead put in the time faithfully, he returned home empty handed, all buck deer having succeeded in evading his eagle eye.

Tom O'Brien was in the city on Saturday from his ranch down on Butter Creek. The sheep are now coming in from the summer range in the mountains and Mr. O'Brien thinks range conditions down that way would be greatly improved now by some good rains.

License to wed was issued on Monday by County Clerk Anderson to Wrex Earl Hickok of Portland and Miss Edene L. Moore of Ione. The wedding was an event of the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Moore in Ione, parents of the bride.

E. R. Lundell, John Louy and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wood were lone people in Heppner for a short time on Tuesday afternoon. They came up in the new Studebaker Standard six coach of Mr. Wood's, just delivered over to him by the Lundell agency at Ione.

George Henriksen of Cecil, who was recently operated on at the Heppner surgical hospital for appendicitis, has returned to his home, being quite recovered from the ordeal. Mr. Henriksen was a visitor in Heppner on Tuesday for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Huff of Arlington were guests on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McCaleb in this city. They were accompanied by Mrs. Carrie Burnham who visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Smead.

Paul Webb was down from the Webb ranch on Balm creek Monday, looking after business matters in the city.

R. W. Turner this week purchased the Mary D. McHaley residence property in north Heppner, adjoining the Turner home. Mr. Turner contemplates making some improvements about the residence and may later move into the property to reside.

Maurice Frye, proprietor of Heppner's electrical store, went to Portland Thursday evening and attended the radio show held in that city over the week-end. He returned home Sunday pronouncing the show a great success.

Mrs. A. M. Phelps returned home on last Thursday from Vancouver, Wash., where she spent several weeks during the illness and quarantine of her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Phelps, because of scarlet fever.

Born—At the maternity home of Mrs. G. C. Aiken in this city, on October 20th, to Mr. and Mrs. Gene Ferguson, a son. Mother and child are reported as doing well by Dr. Johnston, their physician.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Barlow were over from Boardman on Friday. They are now permanently located there and have charge of the Latourell filling station which they have leased.

C. R. Gunzel, banker, and Chas. Allinger, contractor and builder, of Ione were visitors in Heppner for a short time Tuesday afternoon while looking after business matters.

Frank Roberts is up from Portland and in this week doing some repair work in his building where the telephone company is located.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Rugg were Rhea creek folks in Heppner on Sunday.

Dr. A. D. McMurdo returned home last evening from his stay of a couple of weeks in the mountains for the closing of the deer season. The trophies of the hunt are somewhat conspicuous by their absence, according to the doctor's report.

R. W. Morse, county agent, returned Saturday from Corvallis. He spent a few days in the college city the past week, attending the conference of county agents held there.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Lisenallen and Jack Hynd Jr. were over from Pendleton on Monday to attend the wedding of Miss Annie Hynd, sister of Mrs. Lisenallen and Jackie.

Strayed—3-year-old black mule, branded inverted 3 on right shoulder, from his pasture 6 miles east of Hardman, Paul Webb, Heppner, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Helms, farmers of the Lexington district, were doing business here on Monday.

Born—in this city on Monday, October 19, 1925, to Mr. and Mrs. John C. Powell, a 9-lb. son.

John Jenkins was a Heppner visitor Saturday from his home on the Boardman project.

High School Debaters To Vie For DeCoup Cup

University of Oregon, Oct. 19.—Although debating season does not begin until January, a number of Oregon high schools have started work in competition for the DeCoup cup offered to the winner in the Oregon High School Debating league, according to Dr. Dan E. Clark, secretary of the league.

Tryouts are being held at a number of schools, the reason being, Clark said, that Pendleton has won the cup twice and needs only one more victory to gain permanent possession. Salem, Grants Pass and Ashland, last year's winners, are strong contenders. Finals are held at Eugene in May.

The BULL'S EYE

Editor and General Manager
WILL ROGERS

The Wise Guy and The Clown

A constant reader of my "Bull" Durham Ads writes in and says: "If there was another smoking Tobacco the equal of 'Bull' Durham a lot of us would quit you no matter how much it cost. But alas there is no equal at any price as we have all found out at various times. So we must hasten to turn the pages and groan, whenever we encounter the CLOWN Ads of Will Rogers, who is trying to discredit the worth of the WORLD'S FAVORITE TOBACCO."

See that Bird wrote this whole Ad for me himself. He knocked me but he boosted "Bull" Durham. He fell right into my hands. Its only by the wisdom of our smart people that us CLOWNS and Fools are allowed to ride in Limousines. They say "The Lord protects the foolish," so, I am nestling right under his wing. So thanks Mr. Smart Man, write us another Ad. It will only cost you two cents
