

Local Happenings

Dr. A. D. McMurdo is enjoying a visit with his mother, Mrs. C. E. McMurdo, and sister, Miss Doris McMurdo, who arrived at Heppner the past week in company with Mrs. A. D. McMurdo, who recently joined them at San Francisco. The doctor's mother and sister, whose home is at Charlottesville, Va., have been spending a number of weeks visiting with Major H. B. McMurdo of the President, Col. C. D. McMurdo and Dr. P. F. McMurdo of San Francisco, brothers of Dr. McMurdo. Mrs. McMurdo and daughter contemplate extending their visit at Heppner over the winter.

Mrs. Helen M. Walker, county school superintendent, and several Morrow county teachers returned home from Pendleton on Tuesday evening after the close of the Morrow-Umatilla teachers' institute held in Pendleton on Monday and Tuesday of this week. Mrs. Walker pronounces the institute one of the best she has ever attended, the list of instructors being exceptionally fine. The drive home was made with some difficulty because of the heavy fog prevailing.

Harry French was in the city a short time Monday from his mountain home. Mr. French is some gardener and has produced an abundance of fine garden truck this season. Some of the finest turnips coming to the Heppner market are from his place and he has no trouble disposing of the product here. He was exhibiting some big ones Monday and has raised the vegetables by the ton, which he feeds to his cattle and sheep and on which they prosper well.

J. H. Bush and family were visitors here over Tuesday, driving up from their home in Vernonia, Oregon. Mr. Bush runs the movie theater at Vernonia, where he enjoys a fine business in that thriving mill town of Columbia county. While here, Mr. and Mrs. Bush and family were guests at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Kirk on Willow creek. They departed for their home Wednesday.

F. H. Wilson, who has been spending the past three months at Ione, was attending to business matters at Heppner on Saturday, preparatory to returning to his home this week at Santa Anna, Calif. H. Smith and sons have rented the Wilson wheat farm southwest of Ione, and Mr. Wilson states that the fall seeding there has been proceeding rapidly and the grain is coming up well.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Neill were visitors at Heppner on Tuesday from their home at Pine City. Mr. Neill states that he did well in raising a hay crop this year in spite of the fact that his alfalfa froze out last winter. Between six and seven hundred tons of good hay were produced on his place and it has been disposed of at a good figure, hence Mr. Neill is not feeling so bad.

Rufus Holman, for many years commissioner of Multnomah county, and a prominent business man of Portland, was here on Saturday. Mr. Holman is a member of the firm of Davis & Holman, printers, binders and blank book manufacturers, and is making the Eastern Oregon territory in the interests of his firm. While in Heppner Mr. Holman made this office a pleasant call.

W. O. Dix returned home Sunday from Eugene and other Willamette valley points. Mr. Dix was a delegate from Doric Lodge No. 20, K. of P., to the grand lodge at Eugene and after its adjournment enjoyed a visit of a week with old friends before returning home. Mr. Dix is at present looking after the store of Johnnie Hiatt while the latter is away at Portland.

Max Buschke, Clarence Scrivner and Wm. Pless left in the Buschke car yesterday, their destination being some place in California. Both Buschke and Pless expect to find employment for the winter, but Mr. Scrivner was undecided as to just what he would do, and may return to Heppner after a few weeks of knocking around the Golden state.

Mrs. D. M. Ward underwent a serious operation at the hospital in the Dalles on Friday morning. From latest reports she is getting along well.

Two Letters

The first written twenty years ago, the second recently by Mrs. J. H. Bourland, Frankston, Texas.

June 2, 1904, she writes:—
"For twenty-three years I was a constant sufferer from chronic catarrh. I had a severe misery and burning in the top of my head, a continual dropping of mucus into my throat causing frequent expectoration. My entire system became involved and I grew worse. It seemed as if I could not recover from a constant cough and frequent attacks of bilious colic. My bowels were affected, causing alarming hemorrhages. I tried many remedies and finally took Pe-ru-na. In three days I was relieved of my bowel trouble and entirely cured by five bottles. I most cheerfully recommend Pe-ru-na."

June 26, 1924, Mrs. Bourland writes again:—
"I will soon be seventy-nine years old and enjoy good health for one my age. I still recommend Pe-ru-na and take it myself when necessary."
For more than half a century Pe-ru-na has a proud record of good deeds. Men and women the world over stand ready to testify to its value in the treatment of all catarrhal disorders.
Send your money orders to the PE-RU-NA COMPANY, Columbus, Ohio, for book on catarrh.

Rev. W. L. Reber of Seattle, general secretary of the American Sunday School Union, will accompany Rev. Clark M. Smith, missionary of the Dalles, on a trip to Morrow county on Sunday next. Several Bible schools in Morrow county are under the care of the American Sunday School Union and direct supervision of Missionary Smith.

Spencer and Jasper Crawford motored to Portland on Friday to be present at Multnomah field on Saturday and witness the big game of football between University of California and University of Oregon. Though the score was a one-sided affair in favor of the Californians, the game was a fine one to witness, nevertheless.

George Thomson returned home the end of the week from a stay of a few days with his family now located for the winter at Seaside, Oregon. Mr. Thomson states that the weather was very pleasant there and had been for several weeks, and his family is enjoying the change to the seashore very much.

Joseph Rector became sick the first of the week at his home east of Heppner, and was brought to the hospital at Heppner where he is under the doctor's care. Mr. Rector is past eighty years of age and has always been hale and hearty. It is hoped his present illness will not prove to be serious.

Dr. Earl Else, prominent physician and surgeon of Portland, accompanied by Mrs. Else and her sister, Miss Emmons, drove to Heppner on Sunday night. In company with Dr. A. D. McMurdo, Dr. Else enjoyed a pheasant hunt on Monday and bagged his limit of the birds. They returned to Portland Monday night.

C. L. Sweek left for Portland on Tuesday night, being called to the city by the very serious illness of his partner, C. E. Woodson. From his reports, Mr. Woodson cannot be expected to survive long, though for a time his family and friends were encouraged to believe that his condition was improved.

P. G. Farley, Harold and Henry Cohn were in Portland Saturday to attend the big football game. They returned home on Sunday.

Discoloring of Plants Is Not Due to Frost

University of Oregon, Eugene, Oct. 21.—Jack Frost has been discredited. Contrary to prevalent belief, frost has no connection whatever with brilliant colors of autumn foliage, according to Professor A. R. Sweetster, head of the botany department. The striking reds and yellows of the hillsides of Western Oregon are achieved by a complicated process within the plant itself, Sweetster said. Upon the approach of winter, nature stops the flow of sap and green coloring matter into the leaf, and by a process not yet understood, even by botanists, the leaf takes on the red and yellow hues, he explained.

A Corking Novel By Author of "Graustark"

Everyone who is familiar with "Brewster's Millions" or the Graustark novels will be doubly interested in George Barr McCutcheon's latest novel, "Oliver October," to be published serially in the Heppner Gazette Times beginning with the next issue.

"Oliver October" is the fascinating story of a pygmy's prophecy and its effect on the life of the person it concerned. There is plenty of action and mystery and suspense—all of the well known McCutcheon variety.

George Barr McCutcheon has been writing continuously since early in 1901, when the first Graustark novel was published. This was a phenomenal success and caused him to abandon his newspaper career and devote his entire time to fiction.

Among his better-known stories are "Beverly of Graustark," "A Fool and His Money," "The Daughter of Anderson Crow," "West Wind Drift," and "Viola Gwyn."

"Oliver October" begins in the next issue of the Heppner Gazette Times. Start reading it and you won't want to miss a single installment.

1000 Club Proposed To Erect New Building

University of Oregon, Eugene, Oct. 27.—Announcement of the 1000 club, composed of prominent citizens in all parts of the state who are to contribute $100 each to the proposed state Fine Arts building, has just been made by Mrs. George T. Gerlinger, university regent.

Four members were enlisted in the club the first day. Mrs. Gertrude Bass Warner, donor of the Murray Warner oriental art collection which will be housed in the Fine Arts building, is first, Sam Bass Warner, professor in the school of law, is second, and Ralph Budd, president of the Great Northern railway, is third on the list.

A gift of $1000 from Mrs. W. P. Jewett of Eugene, has just been received for the Fine Arts building fund.

The 1000 club campaign is the third step in the drive for money to erect the building. The first step was a series of letters which netted $5000. The second was the All-Oregon 1925 Exposition held in Portland.

Since the state lacks money to spend for new buildings, public spirited citizens conceived the idea of constructing the Fine Arts structure through popular contributions, after the plan of the Woman's building which was completed in 1920.

FREED EISEMANN THE GREBE Synchronphase

Two Radio Leaders

announced by HARWOOD'S

Both FREED EISEMANN and THE GREBE models set up on the floor. Listen in most any evening. Phone for demonstration in your home.

FREED EISEMANN THE GREBE Synchronphase

The instrument used by President Coolidge—a duplicate of which is on the floor. No fancy frills or flub-dubs. FREED-EISEMANN has put the quality into the working parts, making the cabinet very plain, thereby giving full radio value. The receiver is hairsharp in tuning and will give results that even the most experienced radio fan will approve of, yet it is so simple to handle that the beginner will find it easy to operate.

A superb receiver combining many exclusive GREBE features. The "Color-tone" hushes annoying sounds and allows notes of voice and instrument to reach you in full normal tones. The Flexible Unit Control, by means of which all dials may be set by rotating one. The Low-Wave Extension Circuits which enable a GREBE operator to pick up low wave stations that cannot be tuned in with the ordinary sets.
