Ione Student Gives Talk

O. A. C., Corvallis, March 12—Miss Catherine Jones, of Ione, was one of the principal speakers at a banquet for all members of the college Y. W. C. A. held in the college tea room last Thursday night.

In her talk, "Three Points Lead Outward," she gave a discussion of how Y. W. C. A. links the campus first with the community, then with the nation, and finally with other nations. More than 100 faculty members and students attended the banquet.

High School Girls and Boys Enjoy Good Time at Pendleton

Mr. and Mrs. Will Ganger of Pendleton, entertained the six basketball girls and their coach at a dinner party last Friday evening. Those attending were the Misses Genevieve Tillotson, coach; Gladys Lundell, Eleanor Swanson Helen Balsiger, Norma Swanson, Irene Devin, Inez Clark and host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Granger. Miss Clark is a niece of Mr. Ganger.

Mr. and Mrs. Buffington of Pendleton, entertained the Ione boys with a "big feed" after the games Thursday night. Those present were J. Clifton Tucker, coach; Carl Ray, Nolan Page, Carl Linn, Clarence Linn, Virgil Colvin, Carlton Swanson, Ray Barnett, Edmund Bristow, Robert Harbison, Mr. and Mrs. Buffington and son, Gail. The Oregonian says that the Heppner Farmers' Elevator Co., is listed among the violators of game laws on record at the state game commission office as the result of a fine of $25 at Heppner Monday. The corporation entered a plea of guilty to a charge of failing to report furs purchased in 1923.

The McDevitt Bros. from the Ione country, were in Boardman Wednesday and hauled two truck loads of lumber which is to be used in building the Community Hall out beyond Carty's. They expect to dedicate the hall on March 17.—Boardman Mirror.

We call attention to the announcements of R. L. Benge and Wm. T. Campbell for County Judge and L. P. Davidson, for County Commissioner this week. All these gentlemen are exceptional fine men, and they ask your due consideration of their respective claims for the office they seek.

Judge Frank Robinson expects to leave Saturday for Portland to be gone for a few days. According to the number of letters he receives from Portland written in a feminine hand, we surmise there soon will be "two hearts that beat as one." It is quite natural with some, to seek out a life companion as one nears the boundary line of age, and from the various trips the Judge has taken to Portland in the past, it is presumed he has at last found and won, the winsome one of his choice.

Carl Troedson and "Swede" Colvin are at Morgan this week loading out 8 cars of grain for R. E. Harbison.

All Steel Construction that insures lifetime service

Models 30 and 32 "Caterpillar" Harvesters have already proved, by the way they stand up in the most severe service, that they will give a lifetime of service. A remarkable achievement, but a logical one, for Holt has used in these models all-steel construction, anti-friction roller bearings, positive and simple lubrication, safety-release snap clutches, and many other long-life features.

Long life is insured at no sacrifice of any other desirable quality. These all-steel models are light-weight, light-draft, easily handled and remarkable grain-savers. Operating costs are low; a small crew handles the entire outfit.

Model 32 for 1924 is an even better machine than ever before. It now has a 40 inch draper, bigger motor, air cleaner, stronger wheels, increased leveling capacity—many other new features. It is the first real combined harvester of its size—12 ft. cut, 20x31 inch separator.

Model 30 offers the same qualities in an 18 ft. cut machine.

Write for full information about either or both of these machines, or about other sizes and types of Holt Harvesters.

Walt Smith left Tuesday for Portland and Salem on business matters. Frank Engleman and Henry Hainer served as ballast as far as Portland.

J. H. Cochran left Wednesday for Soap Lake, Wn., where he remains a month for the benefit of his health. Mrs. Cochran accompanied him as far as Yakima, where she will visit with her daughters, the Mesdames H. R. Holman and G. B. Reese. They traveled via auto.

Letter received by J. H. Bryson, from Mr. Helicker at Fort Lauderdale, Florida, states that the family will leave there in about three weeks for Ione, going via the Southern route by auto thru Texas and California.

An order of ham and, and a line up for dinner, is now George Ritchie's order at the hotel. It's measles at his home, with Frank Griffin wearing an asafetida sack around his neck.

WANTED—Some good work mules not under 1200 lbs., and to sell some good young mules. Leave word at the Lundell garage at Ione. ELLIS MCLEAN.

If financial conditions do not improve pretty soon, said Carl Troedson, "I am going to Heppner and get a job booting the woolies over the range."

During this lovely weather, it would not go amiss if the Mayor would see that rubbish on Main street and the city park is cleaned up. Do It Now.

You Can Now Enlist In The Navy

Word has been received from Washington by Lieutenant D. E. Barbey of the Portland Navy Recruiting Station, that enlistments in the navy would be resumed for a short period.

All recruiting was stopped on January 10th as the navy was at that time in excess of its complement. It is expected that recruiting will be again discontinued in about three weeks, and only young men who can furnish exceptionally good character recommendations and who can pass a rigid physical examination are being accepted.

Peter Bauernfiend, the grand old man of Cecil, was here transacting business Tuesday.

Eleven candidates have filed for sheriff of Umatilla county. It is probably a good paying job.

John Wilks and Ray Blake of Grass Valley, merchants, were here Sunday on business matters.

The O. W. R. & N. have a work train here putting in new telegraph poles and adding new wire service.

LOST—March 1st, on Ione Ella Road leading from Bert Mason's store, purse containing a $20 gold piece, small change etc. Finder leave with Ione Independent office and receive suitable reward. C. W. BARZEE.

Everybody Helped Build

This Huge Skyscraper
There has just been installed a battery of 129 high electric flood lights around the 26-story Wrigley building in Chicago, an illumination which makes this big skyscraper visible for 15 miles.

And, by the way, that is the magnificent building that every one of us folks has been helping to pay for by chewing gum.

Leave your watch repairing at the McMurray pastime for Haylor the jeweler, Heppner.
