

CATERPILLAR
ALL-STEEL
HARVESTERS
MODELS 30 AND 32

Model 32, cutting 12 ft. (15 ft. in light grain) marks the high point of achievement in harvesting equipment to meet your conditions and requirements. It is of all-steel construction, weather-proof, will last a lifetime. Light weight, light draft, Hyatt roller bearings throughout. Lubrication an easy once-a-day job. 40 inch draper and powerful motor handle the longest, heaviest straw. Leveling capacity for steep grades.

Model 30 offers the same qualities in an 18 ft. cut machine, with 26x36 inch separator.

"The Holt people not only build a harvester that is right, but they take care of you right, too"—is the way one Holt customer sums up Holt service. Users of "Caterpillar Harvesters are always glad to tell how such service has contributed to their success and satisfaction—starting them off right when the machine is delivered, carrying adequate supplies of parts at convenient points and making delivery promptly, aiding in the securing of competent help. It's worth considering, in choosing a harvester, that Holt interest in your success insures a worth while service.

Seventh. Eubanks out 1 3, Lewis doubled and out when trying to score on Drake's double on disputed decision at home plate. Drake out at second during the argument.

Eighth. Vic out 6 3, Roche walked, Cochran fanned, Dutch flied to second.

Ninth. Werner on by error second, and out on Roberts' roller; Eubanks on by error of Clow, Lewis singled, Drake doubled and Lewis thrown out 6 5; Vic flew to 6.

Condon wants another game and will be accommodated at Ione on Sunday. This will be the hottest contested game of the season, and also the last, unless we should play at Heppner July 4th.

Our ball club has made the best showing it has made in many years having been defeated but twice during the season and having won nine games. The two defeats were handed us by Condon and we are not going to let them even the score in Sunday's game.

The club is ahead financially, but needs help to pay the deficit on the grand stand and every fan is urgently asked to get out and boost for the home team Sunday, and help them win as well as to place the team to the good financially.

The gate receipts are to be evenly divided with Condon, Sunday, and we must have a good crowd in order to pay the Condon boys for their assistance in giving us this extra game. Let everybody boost the game.

being tried out at the station are showing more striking differences this year than usual, owing to the extremely dry weather.

While it is extremely dry, these meetings will be of as much interest this year as in any year previous, and the difference between various practices are showing up better than in good years. Please notify the County Agent if you are going, and whether you will have any extra room in your car. Those wishing to go who have no car, should also notify him so arrangements can be made for extra cars if needed.

Very truly yours,
R. W. Morse
County Agent.

Personally it makes no difference to us whether the man who kills us labors under the delusion that we have money or acts on the inspiration of boot-leg booze. In either case we expect to be a long time dead. Gentlemen of the legislature and the bench, make the penalty fit the crime.

Why so Tender?

Every day's news dispatches bring us a repetition of one sickening story. The story of gas and alcohol in combination on the highway,—a story whose details include the loss of property, or limb or life itself, and not seldom all three.

If we venture forth on the highway in our trusty Ford it is at the risk of being crowded into the ditch by some drunken road hog, losing our Lizzie and coming home on a stretcher with a broken leg. Do our wife and children go for a spin; some alcoholic maniac seated at the steering wheel of a gas wagon may meet them on the way and send them to the to the hospital or the cemetery.

The story varies in many details but one feature is always the same. That feature is the leniency with which the drunken aggressor is always treated when he gets into court, if he gets there. The maximum penalty seems to be a fine, all too nominal and possibly the suspension of his license.

We know not whether the blame for this attaches to the legislature or the courts, whether it is a vice inherent in the statute or pertaining to the judicial function but we feel that every drunken auto driver is a potential murderer. If he escapes the commission of the crime it is due to the intervention of fortu-
