Old Settler Visits Ione

J. A. Taylor who left this section 44 years ago was here on a two days visit last week.

His grandfather homesteaded a part of the townsite of Ione, including the ground on which the Hotel Ione now stands.

His home is now at Riverside, California, to which place he returned Sunday, July 13.

Echo Pastor Visits Ione

Rev. J. T. Keating, pastor of the M. E. church at Echo, was in Ione Wednesday in the interest of the Children's Home of the W. C. T. U. at Corvallis.

This home is designed for dependent children in the state of Oregon.

The home consists of a large farm on which it is planned to erect a number of cottages where such dependent children as may be received will have care and protection.

One of these cottages has been erected and about 75 children are now being cared for. There is at this time a waiting list of 150 children who cannot be received until additional buildings are erected.

We understand the Ku Klux Klan of the state have pledged $50,000 to this benevolent enterprise, and the Baptist church $25,000.

An offering for this work taken in the East Side Baptist church of Portland recently netted $8,000.

The contribution of the local K. K. K. amounts to something over $100.

Leave your watch repairing at the McMurray pastime for Haylor the jeweler, Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Swanson and Mrs. Pettys spent Sunday in Pendleton.

A new coat of paint on C. W. Swanson's Chop Mill has much improved its appearance and incidentally done something to brighten up the little old town.

C. A. McMurray drove from Rochester, Nevada, where he has been employed in the mines, which are now closed, there being almost no water in that part of the country. He expects to stay with his brother about two weeks.

Lexington Items

Mr. and Mrs. Walker of Hardman were visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Fredrickson last Saturday.

Mrs. Walker left Sunday for Monmouth where she will spend the summer.

Mr. Carl Yaunt was a recent visitor in Lexington, visiting Mr. Frank Burgoyne.

Mr. Hopper of the Heppner Battery Shop was in Lexington Wednesday on business.

A number of Lexington people including Mr. J. J. McMillan and family, Mrs. Wm. McMillan and several others, left Thursday for Mt. Hood, and vicinity, huckle-berrying.

The McMillan Brothers finished threshing lately.

Four hundred pounds of wool were stolen from the Scott-McMillan Warehouse Sunday night, the thief having sawed through the floor to get in.

Mrs. W. G. Scott returned home Sunday from a visit at Pendleton and Pilot Rock.

We still have a few Lang ranges in stock. Engleman Hardware Co.

Mr. E. L. Padburg and his children Hazel and Derrill motored to Hood River Monday to pick blackberries. They were accompanied by Mrs. J. H. Bryson and her son Francis and Mrs. Bert Mason, and returned home Wednesday.

LOCAL and PERSONAL

A party of Ione people including Judge Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Farris, Mrs. Walter Corley and Jack Ryan, left early Monday morning on a trip to the Opal mines, a few miles beyond Parkers mill in the mountains. They returned Monday evening about 9:30 o'clock and report a very enjoyable trip.

The first carload of 1924 wheat from Ione was shipped Tuesday morning by the Independent Warehouse Co.

Mr. Chas. Erwin finished harvesting this week. The average yield of wheat per acre was 15 bushels.

Mr. C. A. McMurray, accompanied by his wife and four children, is visiting his brother Laxton McMurray of Ione.

Not so many steps

—no coal or wood to lug
—one filling lasts for days

—Steps! how many of them Pearl Oil and a good oil cook-stove save you! Those needless steps for heavy coal, for wood and the ashes.

One gallon of economical Pearl Oil often lasts for days, and it is so much handier and quicker.

Pearl Oil's intense flame is concentrated heat—and it is odorless and clean-burning too! The Standard Oil Company refines and re-refines it for best results. Avoid disappointment—ask for Pearl Oil by name.
