Confines Jazz to Decks of Ships and Ballrooms

San Francisco.—Jazz music must be confined to ballrooms and decks, said an order posted by E. Grant McKiernan, passenger traffic manager of a coastwise steamship company. Passengers, the order explained, must be protected from impromptu doublings of foodstuffs which might occur as some waiter waltzes into the saloon to the strains of lively music.

Through the Glad Eyes of a Woman

By Jane Doe

TO ANY PRETTY GIRL

YOU know, of course, that I envy you immensely. In fact, I'm rather jealous of you. But my jealousy isn't altogether of the green pea-tinted variety. A good deal of it should be spelled with a "Z"—Zealousness—if you will. I feel toward all you little kitted bits of womanhood with your deliciously fresh and engaging ways, your sublime and unconquerable optimism, much in the same way as your own mother does, or should.

If you belonged to me I should want, oh, so much, to see that those first wonderful eighteen years of your life were filled with the joy and beauty of existence.

I should try to give you all the sunshine during your flapperhood, so that you would always have your memories to compensate you when the clouds which are so deadly inevitable come to shadow the brightness in your eyes and put a weight on your heart.

Of course, I should want to spank you—occasionally!

And the very hardest spanking I should administer would be when I discovered you allying yourself too closely to the powder puff and bunny's foot, and wasting your money on "facial treatments," vibro massages and such-like beauty restorers only intended for the thirties and forties.

I am aware that to be pretty and good to look at is often your overwhelming if secret ambition, and you wouldn't hesitate one second if you were offered the choice of the charms of Helen of Troy and the brain box that would help you to carve a niche for yourself in posterity.

And all of us of the sex, with a few misguided exceptions, would do the same, seeing that we are all very much aware that beauty, when it is beauty and not camouflage, is the easiest and pleasantest known method of achieving fame and fortune yet discovered.

But, if you are lucky enough already to possess the loveliness that makes of your flapper years a triumphal procession, do take care of it as you would some very precious thing and remember that if it is to be lasting it must be backed up by a foundation of good health.

So much for the quest for beauty. I should also want to spank you if I found you were side-tracking your intelligence.

Believe me, there is no more delightful and intriguing combination than the girl who is as interesting as she is pretty.

It is easy enough to remedy dullness. Get the newspaper habit, keep your eyes wide open and take a real and vivid interest in everything and everybody.

Live—don't stagnate. So many of you start out in life electing to be butterflies.

Few pass the grub stage when it comes to the intelligence test. Just a word about charm.

If you want the world at your feet, pretty girl, go out of your way to be charming. You will astonish yourself when you realize the power of a bright and frequent smile, the sympathetic little air, the scrupulous courtesy, the frank speech and the absence of all "side" and cattiness.

When one thinks of the multitudes of snappy, depressing and uninteresting women one comes daily in contact with one little wonder that men seem to veer with one accord to the fluffy, the frivolous and the flirtful.

Stake your claim on fair manners, fair speech and, above all, fair play, as well as fair looks.

And believe me, you won't go far wrong. My love to you!

New Mud River Station.

Weed, Cal.—A second river of mud has started to flow from Mount Shasta. It is 50 yards wide. From Hoey, a point on the Weed-Klamath branch of the Southern Pacific, four miles from Weed, comes the report that mud from the north side of the mountain is flowing past there.

It is thought to be due to the melting of a glacier on Mount Shasta.

Robbers Ditch Checks.

Four Killed in Mandalay.

He seldom lives frugally who lives by chance. Hope is always liberal, and they that trust her promises make little scruple of reveling today on the profits of tomorrow.—Johnson.

Bandit Pities Worker
Cincinnati, Ohio.—Even bold bandits display a sense of pity sometimes, according to John Brown caretaker of a gasoline filling station here. Brown was robbed recently of $3,450, his employer's money. "How much of this belongs to you?" Brown said the bandit asked him, fingering the $34 in change and currency he had taken. "Fifty cents," the caretaker replied. Tossing a half-dollar on a desk the bandit made his exit.

Natural Law.
Let a man hope for any great and noble thing, and the strength and greatness of that hope will pass into his soul.—John White Chadwick.

State News in Brief.

Salem.—Toy Makers, Inc., with headquarters in Portland and capital stock of $5000, has been incorporated by Jose Kecheis, Fred Heilig and N. G. Riebeling.

Pendleton.—The first deer hunting casualty reported this year in the vicinity of Pendleton is that of Orla McLain, 23, who is in St. Anthony's hospital with a fractured leg.

Myrtle Point.—Ground was broken Monday for the building of the new theater for this city. The contract was let this week to the Young Construction company of Marshfield.

Freewater.—Joe Keeler, 64, a resident of this city, died early Saturday morning following the amputation of his left leg, as a result of having been accidentally shot by his son, Earl Keeler, Friday morning.

Salem.—With the exception of the state penitentiary, all of the state institutions will have a surplus of funds at the expiration of the present biennium. This was announced at the offices of the state board of control Sunday.

Eugene.—Hop contracts whereby the output of two 15-acre tracts in Lane county, west of Harrisburg, are to be sold to Wood, Hanbury, Rhodes & Jackson of London, England, at 15 cents per pound were filed for record in the office of the county clerk here.

Pendleton.—Five Umattila county farmer boys, members of the Jerimiston Pig club, have entered the pig-feeding contest of the Union Stockyards company of Portland to compete for prizes offered by that concern at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition.

Salem.—The annual Marion county show and industrial exhibit will be held here November 29 to 32, inclusive, according to announcement Saturday. Letters are being sent out by chamber of commerce officials advising the farmers and other exhibitors of the dates of the show.

Salem.—Whether the so-called "states use" plan will be adopted in connection with the operation of industries at the Oregon state penitentiary, as recommended by the national committee on prison and prison industries, probably will be decided by Governor Pierce within the next few weeks.

Silverton.—Carl A. Benson, owner of the Benson pheasant farm and president of the Silverton Lions club, has received word from Washington, D. C., that he was appointed to act on various federal boards and committees operating along the western coast in the interest of migrating fowl and upland game.

Hood River.—E. O. Blanchard, president of the First National bank, who has just returned from a motor tour through the Yakima and Wenatchee, Wash., apple sections, says that both of the districts will show a decided falling off in apple tonnage this season as a result of the disastrous frost of last spring.

Pendleton.—Another big land deal, the second within the past 10 days, was announced here Saturday in the sale of land and leases on land by George LaFontaine to Polydere Moens. The consideration involved was not made public, but between 1300 and 1400 acres of land 10 miles east of Pendleton were involved, in addition to the LaFontaine farming outfit.

Cottage Grove.—Despite 50 per cent crops of pears elsewhere in this section, the biggest pear crop in the history of the Lorane valley is being harvested there this year. The picking of the Bartlett's has been completed and about 95 per cent of these were No. 1 grade. The picking of the De Anjou's is starting. The harvest of Bartlett's was more than 150 tons.

Baker.—A bond issue for $500,000 will be voted upon by the taxpayers of Baker county at the fall election for the grading and surfacing of the Baker-Cornucopia and the Baker-Unity roads, according to a decision reached at a mass meeting held at the court house here which was attended by representatives from Unity, Hereford, the Eagle Valley, the Pine Valley and the business men of Baker.

Harrisburg.—The sinking of a second cofferdam at the site of the west center pier of the Pacific highway bridge across the Willamette here, and the initial work at the west end pier excavations were new steps in the building this week. Progress on the east central pier is going as speedily as possible; the steel cofferdam is down to within four or five feet of its depth, but work is slow, owing to the hardness of the bottom the steel must be driven through.
