Mrs. L. L. Funk accompanied by Mrs. Geo. Krebs and sons and Mrs. W. Sexton all of Cecil, were visitors at Morgan school Friday afternoon.

Rebeccas Initiate Two

Thursday evening of this week the Ione Lodge of Rebeccas initiated two members and further celebrated the occasion by a most enjoyable program of games followed by a substantial lunch.

Among the entertaining features of the evening's program were a number of trials of skill, grace and speed between two rival teams of hoboes and tramps. The hoboes were adjudged the winners and awarded a prize. The contests ranged from a well fought game of football to a trial of speed in hanging out and taking in a washing. In this last contest both parties covered the line with lightning speed and themselves with glory.

Mr. E. L. Padberg who has been under doctor's care in Pendleton, arrived in Ione on Tuesday of this week to vote. He returned to Pendleton Wednesday and will remain there until his condition is improved.

W. A. Thomas was a visitor in Cecil while voting on Tuesday. W. A. enjoyed meeting all his old friends who were also voting. Although politics was the leading topic they all parted the best of friends.

Mrs. Emmett Cochran of Heppner accompanied by Frank Turner also of Heppner were calling on Mrs. T. H. Lowe at Cecil on Wednesday.

Rain has fallen steadily for several days during the past week and all farmers and stockmen are quite relieved. The long dry spell seems to be over at last.
