

Ione Independent

VOLUME XIII

IONE, OREGON, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1924

NUMBER 24

Cecil News Items

Dick Logan of Four Mile spent the week end with friends in Boardman.

Mrs. Geo. A. Miller and son Elvin were calling in Cecil on Saturday. Elvin is now busy putting up a fine radio which he hopes to have ready for "listening in" soon.

Mrs. Alf Medlock and children spent Wednesday among their friends in Morgan.

"Wid" Palmateer and party of friends were doing the sights of Arlington on Thursday.

Mrs. Weltha Coimbest of "Fairview" was visiting Mrs. H. J. Streeter at Cecil on Wednesday and Thursday while her brother, J. W. Osborn was doing business in The Dalles for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Funk and daughter Geraldine of Cecil returned from Wasco on Sunday. They were attending the funeral of their stepbrother Donald Yocum who died from the results of being shot in the leg while hunting.

Walter Pope was visiting at the home of W. H. Chandler on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hynd of Heppner arrived at Butterby Flats on Friday. They were accompanied by their son Jackie and his pal Clifford Driscoll, students of Heppner high school. The boys returned to Heppner on Friday after having a glorious time down on the farm and were in time to answer the roll call at school on Monday.

John Kelly, prominent sheepman was down from Heppner on Monday, looking after feed and water for his sheep on Willowcreek.

Miss Myrtle Chandler of Willowcreek ranch was calling on Miss Annie Hynd at Butterby Flats on Tuesday.

W. V. Pedro who has been doing business for several days in Pendleton, returned home on Tuesday. A fine garage has been put up at the W. V. Pedro home at Ewing besides other improvements which are under the supervision of A. A. Manning of Pendleton.

Charlie Hynd of The Pines, Ukiah, and several of his men arrived at Butterby Flats on Tuesday with a fine bunch of cattle belonging to Hynd Bros., which will winter at Hynd Bros. ranch at Cecil.

Heavy rain fell on Tuesday, Nov. 18th, and more than delighted all stockmen and wheatmen. Everyone is marking against time since the sandstorms are a thing of the past.

While engaged in shingling the roof of E. R. Lundell's new woodshed, Perry Hopkins fell off receiving a severe shaking up. We have been unable to discover how high he bounced when he struck the ground.

"A warm friend"—one of our hot water bottles. Bullard's Pharmacy.

High School Notes

The boys basketball practice will start as soon as the gymnasium is finished. Although we have but two letter men back, Linn and Bristow, we have some good prospects in Graves, Lundell, G. Ritchie, W. Ritchie, Bryson and Brashears. Dean Ekleberry who was center on the North Powder team last year will be a valuable asset to Ione. Mr. Tucker will again coach the team.

Virgil Morgan returned to school last Thursday.

Clair Young was absent from school Friday, in order to drive his grandfather, Mr. Farrens to Yakima.

William Brashers, who has returned from work at Hood River, entered school this week as a senior. He will resume his office as secretary-treasurer of the student body which was filled by Clarence Linn in his absence.

The girls basket ball practice will start under the direction of Miss McIntyre as soon as the gymnasium is completed. We have only one regular player, Norma Swanson, and two substitutes, Mary Fletcher and Elva Balsiger from Ione's team of last year. Marvel Akers, a junior, was the jumping center for Hardman last year. The underclassmen will no doubt bring forth some very good material as soon as a few practices are held.

Look forward to the senior carnival, Dec. 5, in the new high school gymnasium. This will be the last carnival of the year, and the first event in the new gymnasium. The money will be used to help pay the senior graduation expenses.

For Sale or Rent: on easy grain payments one quarter-section of land near Morgan, known as the W. C. Crawford homestead. Address C. W. Barzee, 1036 Clackamas St., Portland, Ore. n7-21

Frankie Holub, accompanied by his mother, left for Portland last Sunday, and will consult a specialist about his arm which he has been unable to use for some time because of an injury received while practicing football.

W. E. Bullard and family drove to Hood River on Sunday to see Mrs. Bullard's father who is very sick. They returned to Ione on Monday.

Leave your watch repairing at Swanson's Feed and Supply store for Haylor the jeweler, Heppner.

Fellowship Meeting

Fellowship meetings of the Congregational churches of the Mid-Columbia Association have been in progress this week. The initial meeting of the series was held at Condon Tuesday evening and was followed by similar meetings at Lexington and Ione Wednesday afternoon and evening.

At the Ione meeting a family supper was served at six o'clock, followed by an informal but inspiring program.

Visiting representatives included pastor and Mrs. Pendleton and Mr. and Mrs. Harris of Condon, pastor and Mrs. Preston and Messrs. Pease and Roberts of The Dalles, and Mr. and Mrs. Keller and Karl Beach of Lexington.

Supt C. H. Harrison of Portland was also in attendance.

The Fairview Sunday school will give a mixed program Saturday evening, November 22nd, at the Fairview schoolhouse.

Special meetings at the Christian church are going forward this week with good attendance and interest.

The Baptist Ladies' Aid Society will hold another sale at Moore's furniture store on December 6th. Besides several articles left over from the sale last week, more have been finished and will be disposed of at the December sale.

J. P. Louy returned last Tuesday from Portland, where he was transacting business for a Los Angeles oil company which is interested in oil development around Ione. Mr. Louy expects F. N. McConnell, a representative of the company, to arrive in Ione some time this month with drilling machinery, ready to start the work without delay.

Ed Weatherill is again on the job at the garage after a few days visit with relatives in Portland.

Protect yourself against the uncertainties of winter. We can assure you a good position in your own county, that will pay you well. Write us at once. Nogar Corporation, 301 Couch Bldg., Portland, Oregon. 3t

On Wednesday evening of this week a number of friends and relatives of Miss Alice Rietmann giving a very enjoyable surprise party at her home in honor of her twentieth birthday.

The evening was spent in playing mah jong, chess and other games, after which light refreshments were served.

Those present were Mr. and Omar Rietmann, Mr. and Mrs. Werner Rietmann, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rietmann, Palmer Roche, David, Victor, Robert, and Otno Rietmann, and the Misses Portia Kidwell, Gertrude McIntyre and Ruby and Vera Engelman.

Lexington News Items

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Padberg were in town Wednesday on business.

Mr. Hobe Johnson has been ill with the Grippe since Sunday.

Mr. Fred Lucas's son-in-law, Robert Fordney, returned from Pendleton on Tuesday.

Mrs. Wm. Copenhagen was in Lexington getting orders for turkeys, Tuesday.

On account of the short days school is beginning at 8:40 A. M., and 12:45 P. M., and closes at 3:25 P. M.

Mr. Maurice Frye of Heppner installed an electric lighting plant on Gerold White's chicken farm.

J. A. Miller was in town Wednesday on business.

A quantity of wheat was sold in Lexington Tuesday at $1.40 per bushel.

Mrs. Carmichael visited her daughter in Heppner on Tuesday. Wednesday night she gave her promised chicken dinner to the football team for winning every game this season.

Mr. Harry Schriever and his brother Charles were in town Wednesday on business.

Mrs. Barton of Heppner was visiting friends in Lexington on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cutsforth were Lexington visitors, Wednesday.

Mr. Bruce Grady returned on Monday from Portland.

Mr. E. J. Miller was a business visitor in Lexington, Wednesday.

A Thanksgiving program will be given in the high school auditorium Wednesday afternoon, by the high school and grades.

The "Cannonball Express" which stops at Ione twice each day was delayed on Wednesday until about 6:15 because of a big slide on the main track at Rooster Rock, seven miles this side of Troutdale. The slide occurred on a straight piece of track and completely covered it for a distance of almost 100 feet. The fast mail train, No. 5, struck the slide about 6 A. M. and ploughed about halfway through before she could be stopped. All parts of the train remained on the track, however, and no one was injured. As a consequence no mail was received from the other side of the slide until Thursday.

I have a full stock of furniture which I am selling at 10 percent reduction. All kinds of furniture repaired. S. E. Moore.

A Christmas bazaar and food sale will be held December 6th, in the Ladies' Rest Room of the McMurray building by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational church.

O. A. C., Corvallis.—Earl H. Blake of Ione plays saxophone in the Master Mason orchestra just organized. This orchestra, which includes several O. A. C. students and faculty members, has made one public appearance and expects to make another soon. Mr. Blake is a special in the school of electrical engineering.

The program will begin at one o'clock.

Several of the school teachers of Lexington are planning to go to their homes during the Thanksgiving vacation.

Lexington does not accept Heppner's challenge to play football on Thanksgiving and is negotiating for a game in the Valley on that date.

Bank of Ione

CAPITAL and SURPLUS

$35,000.00

State, County and City Depository

4 Per Cent

On Time and Savings Deposits

Safe Deposit Boxes

IONE, OREGON

When we say

"It's Guaranteed"
at our store, it means something.

WE BACK IT UP

Our Hot Water Bottles and Fountain Syringes are Guaranteed for 2 years. If properly taken care of they will last many more years than that. In case one should be returned, there is no charge for service on the one brought back.

We stock a good assortment of Household Rubber Aprons.

Bullard's Pharmacy

The Kodak Store

Jack Holt in
"While Satan Sleeps"

Saturday Night November 21

November 28 and 29 at the
LEGION THEATER

Preparedness

Are you ready for winter?

I have a good stock of

HOWARD HEATERS
in Coal or Combinations

Portland Stove Works Cast Iron Combination Heaters. Common Air Tight Sheet Iron Heaters. If in need of a heater see my line and prices.

I can get repairs for your old ranges and heaters on short notice. Be sure to get name and numbers on old stove if you need repairs.

BERT MASON

IONE OREGON