

Ione Independent

VOLUME XIII

IONE, OREGON, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 26, 1924

NUMBER 28

Cecil News Items

Henry and John Krebs left on the local on Sunday for Portland, where they will spend the holidays with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. May of Cecil left on Sunday for Hood River where they will spend several days with their daughters.

Miss Mildred Duncan, a student at Boardman high school, arrived at Busy Bee ranch on Saturday and will spend the holidays with her parents.

John Crabtree left for his home at Marshfield on Thursday after visiting his brother J. E. Crabtree at Cuchoo Flats for a few days.

Mrs. L. L. Funk and daughter Miss Geraldine returned home on Wednesday after spending a short time with friends in Wasco.

Oral Henriksen of the Moore ranch near Heppner, and his brother Clifford of Pendleton were calling at Butterby Flats on Sunday.

Earl Morgan of Broadacres was doing business in Cecil on Tuesday.

Robert Lowe arrived home from his studies at Benson Polytechnic and will spend his vacation at Cecil.

Miss Violet Hynd, teacher near Ione, arrived at Butterby Flats on Friday to spend her Christmas vacation.

Mrs. W. Sexton of Cecil left for La Grande on Friday, where she will visit with friends for a few weeks.

J. W. Osborn of Fairview left on Tuesday for Portland to visit his sister for a few days and also attend to business matters while in the city.

W. C. Farrens left Cecil on Friday for a months vacation which he will spend with his family in Ione.

R. W. Morse, County Agent, was doing business in the Cecil district on Tuesday.

Mrs. Weltha Combest of Fairview has returned to her cottage at Cecil, where she will reside for the winter.

Mrs. H. J. Streeter and son Noel of Cecil were calling on Mrs. Jim Hardesty on Tuesday, and also visiting Mr. Gorten, uncle of Mrs. Streeter, who is lying very ill.

December 24 was the coldest day of the season, 23 degrees below zero having been registered at Cecil store on that day.

"Happy New Year to all."

Dr. A. C. Schmitt of O. A. C. Injured. Albany, Or.—Dr. A. C. Schmitt, instructor in the school of business administration at the Oregon Agricultural college and formerly president of the First National bank at Albany, was seriously injured in an automobile accident on the Albany-Corvallis road, two miles from Albany.

Local and Personal

Miss Eleanor Swanson arrived in Ione on Tuesday from the State Normal school at Monmouth to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Swanson.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes Gabbert of Portland are spending the holidays with Mrs. Gabbert's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Misner.

Miss Evelyn Mortimore accompanied her father to his home at Echo on Friday. She returned to Ione Sunday afternoon.

The Misses Tilson, McIntyre, and Kidwell drove to Arlington with Mr. Croissant on Tuesday. They are spending the holidays at their homes and will return to take up their duties as teachers in the Ione school after the first of the year.

The boys basketball team will hold practice every afternoon during vacation. Mr. Tucker, the coach, is endeavoring to secure games with the alumni, for both boys' and girls' teams for Monday night.

School was dismissed on Tuesday for a two weeks vacation. Several of the teachers left to spend the vacation at their homes.

Tom Davidson and Nolan Page arrived in Ione Friday evening from Corvallis where they have been attending O. A. C. They drove up with Elmo McMillan of Lexington.

Leave your watch repairing at Swanson's Feed and Supply store for Haylor the jeweler, Heppner.

Lexington News Items

In the latter part of last week the young people who have been away at college came home to spend the holidays. Among them are Maxine Gentry, Dallas Ward, Elmo McMillan, and Opal and Wilma Leach.

Elmer Pomroy drove into town on Tuesday from Kelso, driving a new Cadillac.

Howard Lane has been cutting ice for his meat shop. He expects to have about 1000 cakes 18 inches square and from 10 to 20 inches thick.

Others who are cutting their summer's supply of ice are Geo. and Gus McMillan, Wm. Barnett and Fred Lucas.

Apparently Ione and Lexington are trying to save on electric light bills as the lights have been turned off for a few hours several nights during the past few days.

Saturday night Karl Beach brought his family home from Walla Walla to spend the holidays. Everyone was glad to see them.

The Boardman basketball team arrived in Lexington Friday night to play a practice game, but Lexington was saving electricity so the game was called off.

Because of poor lighting and bad weather the birthday party given by the Ladies Aid of the Congregational church was not very well attended. Nevertheless those attending had a very enjoyable time.

D. B. Boone of Roseburg arrived in Lexington on Tuesday evening and is spending a few days visiting friends. He has

Notice to Sportsmen

There will be a mass meeting on Wednesday, December 31, to adopt resolutions to legislature for open season on pheasants, also for regulation of the deer season, and other important matters of interest to sportsmen. Meet at Legion Hall, 8:00 P. M.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Nelson and son Howard of Firth, Idaho, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gustafson and family of Sumner Wash. and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Nickles and daughter Marica of Seattle Wash. spent Christmas with C. W. Swanson. The Nickles and Gustafson families left Saturday morning for their homes. Mr. Nelson and family will spend New Years with Mr. Swanson before leaving for their homes in Idaho.

Miss Mildred Head of Clifton, Ore., and sister Elizabeth of Cathlamet, Wash., arrived in Ione on Wednesday and are visiting with W. W. Head and family during the holidays.

Mr. R. L. Eckiebury and son Deane motored to Scio on Saturday to spend the Christmas holidays with relatives. They were accompanied as far as Hood River by Carl Linn and J. V. Head.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Harbison spent a few days in Ione this week on business.

with him a German police dog valued at $150 which he raised himself.

Leonard McMillan has several radio sets on display in Burgoyne's store. You are invited to hear them.

Mrs. E. G. Haverstick and children left on Wednesday for Yamhill, Oregon, where they will make their future home. A car of household goods was shipped on Tuesday, and Mr. Haverstick left Ione on Thursday to join his family at Yamhill.

P. G. Balsiger drove to Astington Saturday to meet his daughters, Arlene and Helen, who are students at the University of Washington. They are home to spend the Christmas vacation.

The senior class play advertised for Friday, December 19, was postponed until Monday the 22nd as the town was in darkness. Nevertheless the carnival was held by the aid of gas lamps and other means of lighting. Quite a large crowd attended in spite of the cold.

In the popularity contest Miss Venice Cochran won in a close race. Floyd Grabill bought the greatest number of votes and therefore shared the large cake with the popular young lady.

On Monday night the play was held and the carnival continued. In spite of all drawbacks the entertainment was a financial success.

Leave your watch repairing at Swanson's Feed and Supply Store for Haylor the Jeweler, Heppner.

Notice

One buckskin horse, weight 1100 lbs., has been on the A. L. Douglas ranch for the past three months. Owner may have same by paying three months feed bill and price of this Adv.

M. J. Ingalls.

Bank of Ione

CAPITAL and SURPLUS

$35,000.00

State, County and City Depository

4 Per Cent

On Time and Savings Deposits

Safe Deposit Boxes

IONE, OREGON

Appreciating your Business and hoping that the pleasant relations now existing between us will continue, we wish you a bumper crop and much happiness and prosperity for the New Year.

Have you one of our Oregon Weather Chart Calendars?

Bullards Pharmacy
The Gift Store

Presto!

A lighted match to the wick and your oil cookstove is instantly ready. It concentrates clean, steady heat directly on the cooking utensil.

No coal or wood to lug, or ashes to shovel out—a clean, cool kitchen free from dirt and smoke.

To obtain best results, use Pearl Oil—the clean-burning, uniform kerosene—scientifically refined and re-refined by a special process.

Pearl Oil is sold by dealers everywhere. For your own protection order by name—Pearl Oil.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY
(California)

PEARL OIL
(KEROSENE)
HEAT AND LIGHT

STANDARD OIL COMPANY
(California)

Xmas Suggestions

With only four shopping days left you must get busy.

My stock contains many useful articles consisting of

Silk Hosiery, Fancy Art Goods, Handkerchiefs, Aprons, Gloves and Mitts, Socks, Ties, Sport

Shirts, Fancy China and Cut Glass, Pyrex & Aluminum ware.

A large assortment of candies, nuts, fruits, and fresh vegetables for your Christmas dinner.

BERT MASON

IONE OREGON