

the usual drop next summer. By that time the new higher power stations, authorized at the recent radio conference called in Washington by Secretary Hoover, will be in operation. With those high-power stations it will be possible to cut through the atmospheric disturbances which have tended to hamper summer reception.

Also, these high-power stations will make it possible for the farmer to receive his market and weather reports during the daylight hours. Heretofore such reception has been extremely difficult, and this condition kept the farmer from buying radio. At the present time probably not more than 15 per cent of all the American and Canadian farmers have receiving sets. The farmers have had a very prosperous year and I look for a large percentage of them to begin buying radio within the next few months.

Thousands of people also have been waiting before buying sets in the belief that there would be revolutionary changes in receiving sets. The best engineers in the industry are of the opinion that there will be no such change. Development will be gradual and there is no danger of a person buying a good set today and finding it obsolete a few weeks hence.

Here in the heart of the world,
Here, in the noise and the din,
Here, where our spirits were hurled
To battle with sorrow and sin;
This is the place and the spot
For knowledge and infinite things;
This is the kingdom where Thought
Can conquer the prowess of kings,
Wait for no heavenly life,
Seek for no temple alone,
Here, in the midst of the strife
Know what the sages have known
See what the Perfect One saw—
God in the depth of each soul,
God as the light and the law,
God as beginning and goal.
Earth is one chamber of Heaven,
Death is no grander than birth;
Joy in the life that was given,
Strive for perfection on earth.
Here, in the turmoil and roar,
Show what it is to be calm;
Show how the spirit can soar
And bring back healing and balm.
Stand not alone nor apart,
Plunge in the thick of the fight;
There in the street and the mart,
That is the place to do right.
Not in some cloister or cave,
Not in some kingdom above,
Here, on this side of the grave,
Here we should labor and love.
