 —Mahomet.

AT THE CHURCH GATE

Although I enter not
 Yet round about the spot
 Ofttimes I hover;
 And near the sacred gate
 With longing eyes I wait,
 Expectant of her.

The Minster bell tolls out
 Above the city's rout,
 And noise and humming;
 They've hushed the minster bell;

The organ 'gins to swell;
 She's coming, she's coming!

My lady comes at last,
 Timid and stepping fast
 And hastening hither,
 With modest eyes downcast;
 She comes—she's here—she's past!

May heaven go with her!
 Kneel undisturbed, fair saint!
 Pour out your praise or plaint
 Meekly and duly;
 I will not enter there,
 To sully your pure prayer
 With thoughts unruly.

But suffer me to pace
 Round the forbidden place,
 Linger a minute,
 Like outcast spirits who wait
 And see, through heaven's gate,
 Angels within it.
 William M. Thackeray.

TRUTH

Across the front of New York's public library there is engraved a statement that might well be emblazoned in every city for all who pass to read to read. It says: "But over all these things, truth beareth away the victory."

Remember it. Sometimes it seems as if "these things" were victorious -- money, for example; intolerance, superstition, demagogery.

No. Truth, forget it or bury it as we will, will emerge. The whole French revolution, Carlyle says, was fought to demonstrate the proposition that a lie cannot endure.

IMMORTAL TRUTH

Truth crushed to earth will rise again;
 The eternal years of God are hers,
 While error, wounded, writhes in pain
 And dies among her worshippers.

William Cullen Bryant.

WHAT IS PATRIOTISM

At bottom, patriotism is love of country. Its basis lies in the defense of the family and what is necessary for its welfare. This love of home was expanded through the centuries to cover first a cave or tent, then a village, then a city or state where great businesses are transacted, and finally a country inhabited by millions of people with their instructions, traditions and ideals. Why should it stop with a country? Surely it should not, but should embrace all mankind in all parts of the world. Christianity teaches the brotherhood of man. As a man loves his own country, he will understand and respect the love other men have for their countries.

Today's saga of patriotism is almost invariably yesterday's tale of sedition." On the day of her execution as a spy, Edith Cavell said: This I would say, tending as I do in view of God and eternity. I realize that patriotism is not enough. I must have no bitterness toward any one.

Patriotism is love of country expressing itself in loyalty to the ideals for which the country stands. If these ideals are not worthy then patriotism has always demanded revolution as the right of the people.

The world is my country and to do good is my religion.

Thomas Paine

Washington experts figure that the total amount alcoholic liquors smuggled into this country, added to the amount of domestic whiskey legitimately withdrawn from bond, is not more than 12 per cent of the nation's pre war supply.

Out of more than 100,000 samples of confiscated whiskey analyzed at Washington not more than one tent of one per cent was found to be genuine spirituous liquors.

A Peculiar Disease

Notes of Interest to All Local Denominations

The next outstanding event in state religious activities is the great Christian Endeavor convention which meets in Portland next month. At the Convention rally held in Ione last week, a number of Endeavorers registered as delegates from their respective local societies.

Great leaders in endeavor will be in attendance from all over the world and a programme of speech and song has been arranged that will furnish inspiration, not only for the immediate occasion, but for many a day after the convention has passed into history.

The meeting of the Congregational church missionary society, scheduled for Thursday of this was postponed till further notice.

The midweek prayer service at the Christian church is being devoted to the study of the Sundayschool lessons.

More things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of. Tennyson.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine

Those who are in a "run-down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a Combined Treatment, both local and internal, and has been successful in the treatment of Catarrh for over forty years. Sold by all druggists. P. J.
