And what is so rare as a day in June?

U. S. WHEAT CROP VERY SHORT

The department of agriculture June crop report estimates the United States wheat crop will be almost 25 per cent less than last year, which indicates that this country will not be the world's bread basket this year.

But the condition of wheat in Europe, India, Canada and northern Africa other principal bread producers of the world, is good; much better than the United States, and the world need not fear a famine, experts say.

ALL HIGH BORN

No man is meanly born. About his cradle is the wondrous miracle of life. He may descend into the depth, he may live in infamy and perish miserably. But he is born great. Life may depart, but the source of life is constant.--- Calvin Coolidge.

When Adam delved and Eve span,
Who was then the gentleman?
How, or it be, it seems to me
'Tis only noble to be good.
Kind hearts are more than coronets
And simple faith than Norman blood.

—Tennyson

ARROW AND SONG

I shot an arrow into the air;
It fell to earth, I knew not where,
For so swiftly it flew, the sight
Could not follow it in its flight.
I breathed a song into the air;
It fell to earth I knew not where

For who has sight so keen and strong,
That it can follow the flight of song.
Long, long afterwards, in an oak,
I found the arrow, still unbroke,
And the song from beginning to end,
I found again in the heart of a friend,

And Will Be a Father Unto You, and ye shall be My sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.—II Cor. 6:18.

Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when He shall appear, we shall be like Him; for we shall see Him as He is.—I John 3:2.

Lodge News

Oddfellows ann Rebecca enjoyed a social hour last Saturday evening. At the close of the meeting, strawberries and cream with assorted cakes were served.

In spite of the heat and other social attractions a goodly number were present.

A number of Masons and Eastern Star members have projected a picnic in the mountains for the Fourth of July.

The tumult and the shouting dies
The captains and the kings depart;

Still stands thine ancient sacrifice,
An humble and a contrite heart.

Notes of Interest to All
Local Denominations

The World Convention of Christian Endeavorers meets in Portland next month, remember,

Among the celebrities expected to be present is Father Endeavor Clark, at whose church the First Congregational of Williston, Me. the first Christian Endeavor Soc. was organized and who has been President of the United Society from the date of its organization.

Francis E. Clark is now an old man and it is thought that he may wish shift the burden of official responsibility to younger shoulders. At any rate this coming convention will probably afford the most of us the only opportunity the most of us will ever have to meet the great leader of a great movement.

The Sunday School at Hardman has not been in session since the first of the year.

Every thing on this earth is bought and sold except air and sunshine, and they would be if a kind Creator had not made the supply too great.

Those who are in a "run-down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions.
