Laundryman—I can't see anything wrong with that lace.
"Lace? That was a sheet!"

It is no trouble at all for me to pitch a winning game of horse shoes. My only trouble is to keep from being counted out when I do pitch it.

Cheap Clothing

"It must cost less to clothe a woman than it used to," suggested the bachelor.

"How do you dope that out?" demanded the married man.

"Well," explained the bachelor, "There was a time when a woman would put everything she had on her back and now she puts nothing on it but a little powder."

GO, WINTER!
JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY
Go, Winter! go thy ways! We want again
The twitter of the bluebird and the wren;
Leaves ever greener growing and the shine
Of Summer's sun—not thine.
Thy sun, which mocks our need of warmth and love
And all the heartening fervencies thereof,
Is scarce hath heat enow to warm our thin
Pathetic yearnings in.
Get from us utterly! Ho! Summer then
Shall spread her grasses where thy snows have been,
And thy last icy footprint melt and mold
In her first marigold.
