YOUR EYES

EYE SPECIALIST IN TOWN

Dr. Clarke of the Clarke-Stram Optical Co., -326 1/2 Washington St. port, Portland, Oregon, will be in Ione at the Ione Hotel parlor, from 5:00 P. M. Tuesday, August 25th until 4:00 P. M., Wednesday, August 26th.

Those having eye trouble should see him. Examination free.

Better Keep Mum

J. B. M. writes: "Some men should learn a lesson from the foolish mosquito who often gets stung for telling what he is going to do."—Boston Transcript.

Original "Chapel"

The word chapel comes from cape, meaning a locket. It originally was applied to a chest in which the relics of a saint were deposited.

Coal Mined in Sewer

Coal discovered while a sewer was being dug in Coalbridge, England, is now being mined at the rate of ten tons a day.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES

The household goods of Supt. J. Clifton Tucker were shipped to Coquille this week by Mr. Troge. Mr. Tucker has been elected Supt. of Schools at Coquille which is the County seat of Coos County and has a population of about 1700. We all join in wishing the best of everything for Mr. Tucker and his charming family.

ITS THE TALK OF THE TOWN! WHAT?

That still in Bullard's window.

Dr. Clyde R. Walker has returned from his vacation.

George Ritchie and family went to Maupin Wednesday of this week. Mr. Ritchie returned to Ione Thursday, traveling over the Oregon-California highway and making brief stop at Wasco. Mrs. Ritchie and the children will remain at Maupin for ten days or so visiting with relatives.

W. E. Bullard and family went to Hood River this week; Mr. Bullard going on to Portland.

School opens on the eighth of September and on the same date giant schoolbook takes an otherfall out of Dad's pocket book.

Mr. C. C. Sargent had the misfortune to have his combine overturned on the highway one day this week. As he was driving past the Eubanks farm, the mules became frightened at a passing train and turning around in the road, upset the machine. We understand the damage was not very great.

One of the teachers has arrived and has taken up her residence in the Kincaid house.

Rev. Clark Smith of The Dalles, field worker for the American Sunday School Union paid The Independent's friendly call. He reports a very pleasant vacation and she tribe of Smith flourishing like a greep bay tree.

The edict has gone forth that never, never more may letters be mailed on the train. This edict we understand, emanates from high postal authorities and partakes of the nature of the laws of the Medes and the Persians in that it altereth not, Selah Quoth the raven, nevermore.

Origin of "A No. 1"

So far as known, this originated in the classification of wooden ships by Lloyd's, the English insurance association. According to their classification, A 1 or A No. 1 indicated that the equipment and ship were in first-class condition.

Lather Candles

Make a thick, dry lather on the hands with a good white soap. Roll the candles between the palms until coated with lather, then dry the candles will burn with a steady, even flame and will not drip.

Childhood Memory

Ouida, the pen name of the well-known English novelist, Louise de la Ramee, author of "Under Two Flags," is said to have been her own childish pronunciation of her first name, Louise, or Louise.

Rhodes' Scholarships

The Rhodes' scholarships were provided for in the will of the late Cecil Rhodes. Their object is to maintain a certain number of British, American and German students at the University of Oxford.

Elevator Passengers

The elevators of New York city, it is estimated, carry more than 9,000,000 passengers daily. This is said to be larger than the number of riders on street railways, subways and electric lines.

"Room With Radio"

F. Phillips, a London inventor, has perfected a device by which a radio loud speaker can be installed in every room of a hotel and can be turned on or off like an electric light.

MOTOR VEHICLE LIGHTS MUST BE LEGAL

Sept., 1925, chapter 323 of the laws of 1925, regulating the adjustment of motor vehicle lights goes into effect and, inasmuch as the law assumes that all motor vehicles within the state will have been provided with approved lighting equipment, properly adjusted according to legal standards, enforcement of the provisions of the law will begin upon that date by the traffic division of the department of the secretary of state.

No lighting station can legally adjust lights until it has on display, in a conspicuous place, a certificate of authorization issued by the Secretary of State and no mechanic can legally adjust lights until he has been examined and licensed so to do, and his certificate of authorization must also be made available on demand. To date 44 light adjusting stations have been approved throughout the state and licenses have been issued to 116 qualified adjusters.

PIANO SNAP

A high grade piano near Ione will be sold to a reliable party at a big saving. $10 monthly will handle. A SNAP Write at once to Tallman Piano Store, Salem, Ore.

The old magneto type of head lights will not meet with the requirements of the law and all operating under this type of illumination must be reequipped with acetylene or electric systems before they can operate on the public highways on and after the change can be made at a nominal cost.

A maximum charge of 75 cents is allowed by law for light adjusting service, exclusive of equipment to conform to legal requirements.

Secretary of State

HIS HEART IN HIS HEAD

"He's a cold proposition—a regular cabbage!"
"How's that?"
"Got his heart in his head."
