Pride is at the bottom of all great mistakes.

—John Ruskin

EVENING HYMN

The day thou gavest, Lord, is ended,
 The darkness falls at thy behest;

To Thee our morning hymns ascended,
 Thy praise shall hallow now our rest.

We thank that thy church un-sleeping,
 While earth rolls onward into light,

Through all the world her watch is keeping
 And rests not now by day or night.

As o'er each continent and is land
 The dawn leads on another day,

The voice of prayer is never silent,
 Nor dies the strain of praise away.

The sun that bids us rest is waking,
 Our brethren,neath the western sky,

And hour by hour fresh lips are making
 Thy wondrous doings heard on high.

So be it, Lord; thy throne shall never,
 Like earth's proud empires, pass away,
 But stand and rule and grow forever,
 Till all thy creatures own thy sway.

—J. Ellerton

Wise Precaution

Despite the fact that the female generally has the smaller brain in point of weight, the average woman credits herself with having "more brains than a man." The latter has, of course, "too much brains" to dispute her.—Thrill Magazine.

Theory and Fact

"At last, my angel," said the happy man, after he had settled with the minister, "we are really and truly one—forever."

"Theoretically, yes," replied the modern bride, "but, from a practical standpoint, it will be advisable to order dinner for two."

Good Losers

Mrs. Brookline—I understand the Eskimos are very keen domino players, and sometimes bet heavily, even putting up their wives and losing them.

Mr. Brookline—Well, I'll bet there are a lot of good losers among the Eskimos.—Tit-Bits.

THE CAT

"I golfed with Jack this morning and he proposed to me at the ninth hole."
 "That's nothing I golfed with him last week and he proposed to me at the third hole."

Bridge Too Narrow

Down in the creek
 Sleeps Jerry Bass;
 The bridge was narrow;
 He tried to pass.

Just the Thing

"I could relate instances that would arouse your righteous wrath!" declared Hon. Thomas Rott in the midst of his address. "I could tell you things that would make you blush."
 "Tell us! Tell us!" cried several eager voices from the crowd.

PRIZE ESSAYS

The prize essay contest conducted by the all-Oregon 1925 exposition committee will close Oct. 10 instead of September 15 as previously announced. The prizes for the contest, which is open to high school and grade school students of Oregon, aggregate $200, divided equally between the two divisions. Three prizes, $50, $30, $20, each, are offered for first, second, and third place respectively in the high school and grade school contests.

The contestants will write on one of two general subjects: (1) Oregon-made products, or (2) the educational and cultural values of art. The new closing date for the contest is also the closing date of the All-Oregon 1925 Exposition, to be held in the Civic Auditorium in Portland, October 5 to 10, which will feature Oregon-made goods and promote the cause of art in Oregon.

The subjects on the contest are designed to emphasize the role played in the economic life of the state by Oregon manufacturers, and of the importance of art in the life of the community. A number of titles are suggested by the committee as appropriate for the essays, although the contestants are not necessarily restricted specifically to them. An original or striking title which falls within one of the two general heads mentioned above, may be an important factor in judging the merits of an essay.

The suggested titles are:

1. The economic importance of Oregon-made goods.
2. Oregon's basic industries and their relations to the welfare of the State.
3. The value of a State-wide Oregon Products Exposition.
4. Art as an Expression of the Characteristic Culture of the State.
5. Art as an Essential in the Education of a People.
6. The value of an Oriental Art Exhibit to the Pacific Coast.

Essays must be written legibly in ink or typewritten, double spaced, and have wide margins. The size of the paper should be 8 1/2 by 11 inches. One side of the paper only should be used. The essays must not exceed 800 words and no essay exceeding 800 words will be considered by the judges. All direct quotations used by the contestants must be enclosed in quotation marks.

The essays must be in the hands of Secretary of the All-Oregon 1925 Exposition Committee, 651 Court House, Portland, Oregon, before the closing date, October 10. The judges of the contest are: Judge Charles H. Carey, former president of the Oregon Writers' League; Anthony Euwer, poet and illustrator; and Dean Eric W. Allen, of the University of Oregon School of Journalism.

Blarney With an Object

"Why is a strong man like you found begging?"
 "Ah, madam, it is the only profession in which a gentleman can address a beautiful lady without the formality of an introduction."

Inherited

Visitor—I presume your children ask you a great many embarrassing questions?
 Dad—Yes, it is wonderful how like their mother those youngsters are.—Edinburgh Scotsman.

FOR WHOSE GOOD?

Lady Visitor—Wonderful roads you have here; but who's benefited by them besides the motorists?
 Host—I might mention the undertaker, I think.

Needs More Legs

Consider the daschund.
 Oh, woe is the beast!
 He trots on four legs
 When he needs six at least.

Good Excuse

Sophomore—I thought you weren't coming back to college next term.
 Junior—I know, but a few weeks ago I heard father say there was a fine opening in the business.

Her Idea

Brown—I had no idea you were going to marry that little widow.
 Jones—Nor did I. The idea was hers.

Burglars' Mistake

Minister's Wife—Wake up! There are burglars in the house.
 Minister—Well, what of it? Let them find out their mistakes themselves.—Georgia Yellow Jacket.

Bible Thoughts for the Week

Sunday.
 Blessed are the pure in heart; for they shall see God.—Matt. 5:8.

Monday.
 A Merry Heart doeth good like a medicine; but a broken spirit drieth the bones.—Prov. 17:22.

Tuesday.
 He That Keepeth His Mouth keepeth his life, but he that openeth wide his lips shall have destruction.—Prov. 13:3.

Wednesday.
 Remove Far From Me vanity and lies; give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with food convenient for me.—Prov. 30:8.

Thursday.
 The Peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.—Phil. 4:7.

Friday.
 Is Not This the Fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke?—Isa. 58:6.

Saturday.
 Let This Mind Be in You, which was also in Christ Jesus. Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.—Phil. 2:5, 8.

To forgive our enemies has the same refreshing effect on our souls as to confess our sins.
