To thine own self be true, and it must follow, as the night the day, thou canst not then be false to any man.

IN SCHOOL-DAYS

Still sits the school-house by the road.

A ragged beggar sunning; Around it still the sumachs grow. And blackberry vines are running.

Within the master's desk is a deep scarred by raps official. The warping floor, the battered seats,

The jack knife's carved initials; The charcoal frescoes on its wall; Its door's worn sill, betraying The feet that, creeping slow to school,

Went storming out to playing!

Long years ago a winter sun Shone over it at setting; Lit up its western window panes, And low eaves' icy fretting.

It touched the tangled golden curls,

And brown eyes full of grievance, Of one who still her steps delayed When all the school were leaving.

For near her stood the little boy Her childish favor singled; His cap pulled low upon his face Where pride and shame were mingled.

Pushing with restless feet the snow

To right and left he lingered; As restlessly her tiny hands The blue checked apron fingered.

He saw her lift her eyes; he felt The soft hand's light caressing, And heard the tremble of her voice,

As if a fault confessing.

I'm sorry that I spelt the word; I hate to go above you, Because "the brown eyes lower fell,"

"Because you see, I love you!"

Still memory to a gray haired man

That sweet child face is showing Dear girl! the grasses on her grave

Have forty years been growing!

He lives to learn in life's hard school

How few who pass above him Lament their triumph and his loss.

Like her, - because they love him.

- J. G. Whittier

It May Glitter, but—

Midas was crowing over the gift that enabled him to turn everything he touched into gold.

"But think of me," grumbled Mrs. M., "having to keep all this stuff polished."—American Legion Weekly.

The Opportunist

Hub—That new partner of mine is never satisfied. He wants everything he sees.

Wife—You must hurry and introduce him to our daughter.

That Was That

"What is your desire?" asked the good genii.

"To shoot a game of golf in par."

"I'm not that good myself," said the good genii.

Moved a Long Way Since

"My boy has a camera, a radio set, and goes to the movies three times a week."

"Well, Jim, when we consider what it takes to amuse the youngsters of today, I often wonder how the deuce we kids were ever able to get a thrill by looking into a kaleidoscope."

At night after the evening meal is the "Wright hour." Then read aloud to the family.

Bible Thoughts for the Week

Sunday.
For Through Him we both have access by one Spirit into the Father.—Eph. 2:18.

Monday.
The Grass Withereth, the flower fadeh; but the Word of our God shall stand for ever.—Isa. 40:8.

Tuesday.
If Thine Enemy be hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he be thirsty, give him water to drink.—Prov. 25:21.

Wednesday.
Thou Art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness.—Neh. 9:17.

Thursday.
Eye Hath Not Seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the thing which God hath prepared for them that love Him.—1 Cor. 2:9.

Friday.
Serve the Lord with gladness; come before His presence with singing. For the Lord is good: His mercy is everlasting; and His truth endureth to all generations.—Ps. 100:2, 5.

Saturday.
Owe No Man Anything, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law. Love worketh no ill to his neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.—Rom. 13:8, 10.

TO KEEP HIS HAND IN

"The good golf bar is out of a job these days, with everything frozen in." "He might have himself called to testify before one of the investigating committees in Washington—just to keep his hand in, you know."

Casus Belli
All men want people to be free. All men dishonor flout. If there "another war" should be, What would we fight about?

Polite Approach
"Sir, I am compiling a volume of addresses," said the man at the door. "But I have never done any public speaking," said the man of the house. "I merely want your name for the city directory."

In Advance
"Allee has her bridesmaids all picked out." "Indeed! Whom is she going to marry?" "Oh, she hasn't picked out the man yet."

The Prodigal
"Where is your oldest boy, Trofus?" "Done run away from home. Mr. Wogges, thank you for asking. I can't say he's out in the cold world because he left on a hot day."

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has filed his final account as administrator of the estate of Lewis Henry Carpenter, deceased and that the County Court of the State of Oregon for Morrow County has appointed Tuesday, the 8th day of September, 1925, at the hour of 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, as the time, and the County Court room in the Court house at Heppner, Oregon, as the place, of hearing and settlement of said final account. A lazy man always works harder than a bizzzy one - the hardest work I know of, is to grunt-it is harder to sit still, and fight flies, than it is to get up and escape from them.

LORD of all being, the nighd afar Thy glory flames from sun and star;
CENTER and soul of every sphere,
Yet, to each loving heart, how near!

Notes of Interest to All Local Denominations

A special meeting of the C. E. Societies of the Willow Branch Christian Endeavor Union was held in the Christian church at Heppner Sunday evening and was attended by representatives of all the societies included in the immediate purpose for which the meeting was called was that of filling official vacancies caused by the resignation of officers who are going away to school. The vacancies were filled by the election of James Keller of Lexington as President; Thelma Forbes of Ione as Vice President; Robert Turner of Heppner as Secretary; and Ethel Moore of Heppner as Treasurer.

It was voted that regular meetings of the Union be held at intervals of six weeks, counting from Wednesday, September 2, and that a list of dates be prepared by the President and sent to the secretaries of the societies included in Willow Branch Union. Plans of work were suggested and referred to the Cabinet.

The Near East Relief will be represented in Morrow County this year by Mrs. W. Rambo who will pass through Ione, Friday, on her way to Heppner. Read Director Hansaker's letter in another column.

To forgive our enemies has the same refreshing effect on our souls as to confess our sins.
