NUMBER 21

WEDDING BELLS RING AT OLYMPIA

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Ware, 216, 21 Ave. was the scene of a pretty home wedding last evening, October 14, when their daughter Miss Evelyn Elyzabeth Ware became the bride of Noel K. Dobyns of Ione Ore.

The service was read at one o'clock by the Rev. R. H. Edmonds formerly pastor of the West Minister Presbyterian church.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, wore a pale green gown trimmed in flowers of pastel shades and carried a large bouquet of pink roses. Her maid of honor, Miss Ruth Nupp, the maid of honor wore a pale blue and carried a dainty bouquet of rose buds.

Miss Dorothy Ware, sister of the bride was very daintily dressed in delicate blue and carried a shower bouquet of flesh colored roses.

Mr. Jesse Dobyns acted as best man. The house was very attractively decorated for the occasion with gay autumn foliage and late fall flowers.

Following the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served.

After a short wedding trip to Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Dobyns will leave for Ione Oregon where they will make their home.

Mrs. Dobyns chose for traveling a dress of beige satin crepe with a wrap and hat of rust.

Mrs. Dobyns is well known here, having graduated last June from the fifth school.

Mr. Dobyns is a graduate of the Columbia Junior College of Milton Oregon, and also attended O. A. C.

Those attending the wedding were; Mrs. Herbert Olden of Ione Oregon, Miss Ruth Nupp and Mrs. Don Bishop of Raymond Wn., Mr. and Mrs. Warner Guiberson, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Kirsop, Mrs. Harold Dobyns,

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Ware, Mrs. Arthur Armstrong, Miss Neva Beulah Cameron, Rev. and Mrs. R. H. Edmonds, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Ware and Miss Dorothy Ware.

Ione Grammar School losses To Lexington

Ione lost the first game to Lexington on the local field last Sat.

The Lexington team was much heavier than the Ione boys and the team was pretty badly broken up so it resulted in a loss.

Johnnie Eubanks tried to kill himself by running his horse into a fence; Gus Ritchie went to the mountains which made a big difference on the team.

The Ione boys put up a good fight even if they were the losers. Bill Cool the left half back was the only one that was able to cover much ground. The Ione boys expect to visit Lexington Saturday and are hoping for a victory.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES

At Hood River, on Tuesday Oct. 23, at 2:30 P. M. Miss Edene Moore of Ione and Mr. Wrex Hicok of Portland were united in marriage. The officiating clergyman was the pastor of the Baptist Church.

The young people took the four o'clock train for Portland where they will establish their home. Mr. Hicok has employment with a contractor and builder.

The Boardman-Ione Game.

Ione was defeated 6-0 in the game played with the Boardman High School on Boardman's field Friday, Oct. 18. Ione's backfield was weak, and did not play as well as in the Condon-Ione game. In the second quarter boardman made touchdown through Ione's line scoring six points.

In the second half Ione not only held Boardman back but outplayed their opponents. The players who showed up well were Clarke and Head in the backfield and Eckleberry and Wayland Ritchie in the line.

On Tuesday of this week a reception was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Rietman. The young people were surprised at the residence of Mrs. Frank Engelman by a numerous company of friends.

The Engelman home not being large enough to accommodate the crowd the company adjourned to Legion Hall, where a most pleasant programme of games was enjoyed and the newly weds were the recipients of fervent good wishes and many valuable gifts.

At the close of the festivities, refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Rietman will soon take up their residence on the Allinger ranch.

Editor Independent,
I am out of the Rock Creek hills for good and now living below Ione.

I intend to name my new place Windsor Castle; just the same I see several old timers back in and around Ione.

I have left this county three times past forty years. I staid twelve years the first time I left.

One year the next time and six months the last time, no use to go fellaers, for you are sure to come back. Just as well save that railroad fare. Social people and equality is why they all come back to old Ione. I was thinking today about the last 4th of July I spent in old Missouri, 52 years ago last 4th and a nigger singer and banjo dayer on the grounds and this is one of his songs:

Oh it am hard to leave
And it am hard to believe,
And it am hard for to
Make up my mine,
For you done gone busted
Many boys heart
But youse not gwine
To busted mine,
I will take my knapsack
On my back,

My banjo in my han'
I will go all around
The United States, till I
Get in the promised lan,
On you will never see
This form again,
You will never get to
Shake dis han,
You will never get to
Kiss those ruby, to ruby
Lips till I get in
The promise lan.

Tillkam.
