THE AMERICAN FLAG When Freedom from her mountain height

Unfurled her standard to the air, She tore the azure robe of night And set the stars of glory there. She mingled with its gorgeous dyes

The milky baldric of the skies, And striped its pure, celestial white.

With streakings of the morning light;

Then from his mansion in the sur She called her eagle bearer down And gave into his mighty hand, The symbol of her chosen land. Flag of the seas! on ocean wave Thy stars shall glitter o'er the brave:

When death, careering on the gale.

Sweeps darkly round the bellier sail. And frighted waves rush wildly back Before the broadside's reeling rack, Each dying wanderer of the sea Sha I look at once to heaven and thee. And smile to see thy splendors fly In triumph o'er his closing eye. Flag of the free heart's hope and home! By angel hands to valor given; Thy stars have lit the welkin dome, And all tny hues were born in heaven.

Forever float that stndard sheet! Where breathes the fce but falls before us,

With Freedom's soil beneath our feet.

And freedom,s banner streaming

o'er us. -J. R. Drake

TELL THE WORLD

Inder no other government is the masses of the people been given such equal opportunities as in America.

With 16,337,605 electric light and power customers, 15,000,0 k automobiles, 14,000,000 tele phones, 9,000,000 phonographs, and 3,500,000, 110,000,000,000 Americans enjoy more of these moden conveniences than the peo ples of all other countries. What we consider necesities here are usually classed as luxuries by the rest of the world.

It is not just by chance that America has such things in the largest quantities for common use. It is here and here only that the individual enjoys the greatest freedom for developing ideas. energy, ambition and initiative. The result has been a growth unparalleled in the world's history. The best program yet offered by a Socialist or Communist leader not only fails to add anything to the advantages and free dom under which Americans have lived for some hundred and fifty years, but it actually reduces in a large measure the librties and protection guaranteed to rich and poor alike by our constitution.

Every citizen shou! I appreciate these facts. We should present them whenever possible to counteract spurious propsals which if not defeated can undermine the strogest governmental structure which exists today.

The Manufacturer Up with our banner bright, Sprinkled withstarry light; Spread its fair emblem from mountain to shore,

While through the soundingsky Loud rings the Nation's csy: Union any liberty, one evermore

Clothes for Sunday

WHAT has become of the old-time Sunday suit? The one that mother used to lay out on the bed for father every Sabbath morning and whose appear ance was a sign for children to straighten up and remember what day it was? Of course, it was black and very severe looking, with its cutaway cont.

high stiff collar and white bow necktle. The Sunday suit, however, is a thing of the past. It was an extravagance to have a suit for only one day in the week. Moreover, the man of today insists on being comfortable, So summer Sunday mornings find him donning a business suit for church, well pressed and enhanced with smart but, tie and gloves. If he feels he must observe the day by being the least by uncomfortable let him wear the vest to the suit to complete the outfit. Church over, a long afternoon and evening ahead, the business suit is put aside in favor of loose flannels, knickers, soft shirts with turn-down Sports clothes that make him at home on the golf thaks, at the wheel of his car or when pitching a few good balls to work off that Sunday dinner

The one requirement of Sunday clothes is that they must make you feel like a different person from the one you are all week long. One day's rest in seven is essential and by rest is meant, for the most part, change. A complete change of clothing is one of the best ways of getting this variety into our lives.
