NUMBER 30

LEXINGTON ECHOES

A Cantata, The Night Before Christmas under the direction of Mrs. Turner, Mrs. White and Miss Vale was presented last evening by grade student in Lexington Auditorium. It was extremely pleasing to a large audience Lexington patron would be delighted with similar entertainments through the school year.

Mrs. Tom Beymer from Hinton Creek was a visitor in Lexington on Tuesday. She was accompanied to her home by her mother, Grandma Booher who will remain during the holidays.

Among Lexington students at home to spend Christmas are Miss Gladys Bengel, from Whitman, Miss Opal and Wilma Leach and Maxine Gentry from Corvallis.

Elmo McMillen former Lexington boy was here from Corvallis to see old friends this week.

Buster Gentry and James Leach drove to Arlington Thursday where they met their sisters on their home coming from Cal.

Mrs. Laura Scott and her niece Miss Daisy Warner, will enjoy the Christmas at Pilot Rock.

Services Rendered

Stories of absent-mindedness were being related in the smoking-room of a transatlantic liner.

"I am very absent-minded myself," said a hitherto silent man. "I often find names and telephone numbers written in my notebook, but can't remember what persons they represent. Lately I had a general checking up. The name and address of one man baffled me, so I wrote to him asking if he had ever heard of me, and if I was supposed to do something for him. He wrote back a cordial, almost an affectionate letter, saying I had already done it. He was my wife's first husband."

Frankness

A member of the government, remarkable for his resemblance to his famous father, is said recently to have visited a woman in his constituency who is over one hundred years old.

Her memory is a little weak and she thought he was his father.

"We are all very proud of you," she told him, "but what a pity you have such a stupid son!"—Tribune.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES

The Wise Doctor

The doctor was calling on old Mrs. Canny. She was not very ill, but she always had some question to ask the doctor that had nothing to do with her own case.

"Doctor," she said on this occasion, "can you tell me why it is that some people are born dumb?"

"Why—hem—certainly," he replied, "it is owing to the fact that they come into the world without the faculty of speech."

"There, now," she remarked. "Now just see what it means to have an education. I asked Thomas more than a hundred times why it was, and all he could say was, 'Cause they is.'"—Baltimore News.

FRATERNAL MEET AT IONE

ODD FELLOWS & REBECCAS OF MORROW COUNTY HAVE GATHERING

VARIED PROGRAM OF SPEECH AND SONG FOLLOWED BY SOCIAL INTERCOURSE

I. O. O. F. Hall at Ione was the scene of a very pleasant reunion of Odd Fellows and Rebeccas on last Thursday evening. All the Lodges of the county being represented and the number in attendance about one hundred.

A mixed programme of instrumental music, songs and reading was rendered and a short address was rendered by Brother Head of Cathlamet No. 287, jurisdiction of Washington, who substituted for Bro. S. E. Notson of Heppner, who was unable to be present by reason of illness.

At the close of the formal program, games and conversation were enjoyed for a time after which a cafeteria lunch was served by the ladies of Bunch Grass Rebecca Lodge, who were ably assisted by the Champ Coffee Wizard of Ione Lodge.

Those participating in the program were the Odd Fellows Orchestra, the Rebecca Chorus, Miss Linae Troedson, Mrs. Verda Ritchie, Mrs. C. W. Swanson, Mrs. Della Corson & Mrs. Lee Howell.

The pleasure of the evening was much enhanced by the massive and elegant furniture especially designed for the occasion by Dan Griffin.

Brother Tom Barnett announced that the next get together meeting would be held at Lexington some time in the later part of January.

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

IONE, OREGON

TO My Friends & Patrons:

There are days for sending merchandise
And days to send a bill,
But this one day of all the year
I send you just "Good Will"

Yes, 'tis Christmas Time again and I want to take this opportunity of wishing you the compliments of the season a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

I've appreciated the business sent my way during 1925. I have tried mighty hard to please you, and I hope to number you as a friend and customer in the years to come.

So here's a hearty "Thank you" for your good will in the past and best of wishes for your prosperity, health and happiness in 1926.

Sincerely yours,

Bert Mason

The Season's Greetings
and Best Wishes for a happy and prosperous New Year.
