VOLUME XIV

IONE, OREGON, FRIDAY, JANUARY 1, 1926

NUMBER 31

LEXINGTON ECHOES

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hunt were the victims of a near serious accident on Sunday morning when an explosion followed some cleaning which was in progress in an upstairs room. Mr. Hunt received a severe cut on his hand while trying to protect the furnishings of the room. Mrs. Hunt received a like injury when she rushed to the telephone office to call assistance. In her haste she forgot the key and broke through the window. Mr. and Mrs. Hunt were taken to Heppner by friends where they received medical treatment.

Both wish to express to their friends sincere thanks for timely aid given them.

Mrs. Myrtle Gentry and children returned Monday to Portland after a week end visit at the home of mayor and Mrs. Munkers.

Mr. and Mrs. Eph. Eskelson, Mrs. Ruth Barnett of Walla Walla, Miss Gladys Benge and Fred Benge were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Benge in Heppner on Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Keller and sons were entertained at Ione on Christmas day by Mrs. Alice Keller.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Slocum drove to Arlington Friday where they enjoyed the day at the home of their daughter.

In Accord

"Dear, I want you to have everything when you are married."
"So do I, Horace. That's why I cannot accept you."

Pushed

BASKET BALL GAME

The Ione High School boys and girls played the town team boys and girls Tuesday evening. The town team girls won from the high school girls by a score of 34 to 10, while the high school boys won with a score of 23 to 22.

There is a dispute as to the honesty of one or both of the score keepers, which determines whether the game was a tie or honestly won by the high school boys. In order to determine the honesty of the score keepers a game will probably be played Friday the 1st, between the high school boys and the town team boys.

Lineup

The Seasons Greetings

IONE, OREGON

TO My Friends & Patrons:

There are days for sending merchandise
And days to send a bill,
But this one day of all the year
I send you just "Good Will"

Yes, 'tis Christmas Time again—and I want to take this opportunity of wishing you the compliments of the season—a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

I've appreciated the business sent my way during 1925—I have tried mighty hard to please you, and I hope to number you as a friend and customer in the years to come.

So here's a hearty "Thank you" for your good will in the past and best of wishes for your prosperity, health and happiness in 1926.

Sincerely yours,

Bert Mason
