Banker in Embryo

A veteran white wing took his boy to the president of a large bank and said: "I want you to start my boy in the banking business, first as an office boy, next as messenger and on up the ladder as bookkeeper, teller, cashier, and so on, up to president."

The executive, not very much impressed with the lad, answered: "That's a good idea, but why not start him in your own line, first as a sweeper, then driver, foreman, superintendent and on to street commissioner?" "Well," replied the old man, "I'd thought of that, but you see, the boy's not right bright."
