Catarrhal Deafness

Is often caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing. Unless the inflammation can be reduced, your hearing may be destroyed forever.

HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE will do what we claim for it—rid your system of Catarrh or Deafness caused by Catarrh.

Sold by all druggists for over 40 years.
F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.

Modest Philanthropist

A philanthropist, feeling that his end was approaching and not desiring any publicity for his kind acts, advertised in the newspapers and offered a prize for the best hint of how to dispose of his property. Many replies were received, some sound and sensible, and others wildly fantastic. Finally one came which suggested that he establish a fund to supply ice to dumb parrots.

This delighted the philanthropist so that he lay back and laughed heartily, he caught his breath with difficulty and laughed again. In the midst of his mirth he burst a blood vessel and passed away, leaving his fortune to his heirs and nothing for the poor dumb parrots.—Kansas City Times.

Sociology as a Study

Sociology is the term applied by the philosopher, Comte, to the study of mankind in their social relations. It recommends the prevention of national wars by arbitration, and the settlement of the war of classes by boards of conciliation. The term sociology is regarded by some as equivalent to history.
The English philosopher, Herbert Spencer, used the term in the titles of several of his greatest works, for instance, "The Study of Sociology," published in 1872.

Lee as Matchmaker

General Lee played the part of fatherly matchmaker to many a pretty girl of his circle. In fact, he had always liked that role.

"Tell Miss—" he had written from Mexico, during the occupation, "she had better disclaim that young divine and marry a soldier. There is some chance of the latter being shot, but it requires a particular dispensation of Providence to rid her of the former."
—Scribner's Magazine.

MORGAN ITEMS

A number of Morganites attended the public sale of E. E. Miller which was held seven miles southwest of Lexington Thursday.

Mr. T. W. Cutsforth has completed his new house which takes the place of the one which burned some time ago.

Mr. Pat Medlock is working for Noah Pettyjohn.

Herb Hynds of Cecil was calling on Morgan on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Ely were calling in Cecil Sunday evening.

A number of farmers have started their spring work.

Dick Smith repaired his well on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Wate Crawford was shopping in Morgan Wednesday.

Mrs. Jim Hardesty took her son, Howard, to Lone Friday to be doctored by Dr. Kettle.

Cladys Medlock started to school Monday after being absent for three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Medlock and sons of Cecil were calling in Morgan Sunday afternoon.

Bert Palmateer helped J. R.
Wagner kill hogs Saturday.

Gladys Medlock was the dinner guest of Beulah and Geneva Pei-john Sunday.

Gave Name to Fabric

Damascus was famous in the Middle ages for its silk and linen fabrics; hence the name "damask."

Nursery for Children

Some young mothers are so excised over the thought of germs that they won't let their babies or children play on the floor. They let them tumble or sit up to a table to play. Now really, this seems a shame when children of all ages enjoy "scotching around" so much. No cutting table or dining table can compare with a floor for a place on which to build blocks or set up railroad tracks. Why don't these people have a nursery with a floor kept clean enough and dustless enough to be played upon? Have this room kept for the children to play in and see that they wear little house slippers or sandals when playing there and that no grown-up enters who wears shoes that have trod the streets.

The Foreman's Report

A spinner living in a London suburb was shocked at the language used by two men repairing telegraph wires close to her house.

She wrote to the company on the matter, and the foreman was asked to report.

This he did in the following way:
"Me and Bill Fairweather were on this job. I was up the telegraph pole, and accidentally let the hot lead fall on Bill. It went down his neck. Then he said: 'You really must be more careful, Harry.'"

Romeo and Juliet

I can't bear to think Americans as a race are unromantic, but the evidence all around me is fairly strong.
For instance, ask the average modern flapper if she thinks Romeo and Juliet are Shakespeare's saddest lovers, and she may say, "Saddest? You mean sappiest! Gee! It's hard enough nowadays to find someone you can live with, let alone dying with them!"— From "If I Know What I Mean," by Elsie Janis.

Congenial Tree

One time as Toofus is going along the trail a leaf drops right into his hand. Toofus is pleased, stops and makes talk with tree.

Along comes Willow Plume and says, "Toofus, I told you that you must not talk to trees. People will think you are nutty."

"I did not intend to talk," Toofus said, "but this tree hands me his visiting card!"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Chronic Worry Never

Solved Real Problem

We all know the chronic worrier.
The woman who always sees calamity ahead. Each new event that comes or threatens to come, is for her a new matter of apprehension.

To be sure, most of the things she worryes about never happen, and the real problems of her life are not the things she foregaw in time to fear.

But the fact remains that she squanders her vitality and her nervous system, maybe ruins her good digestion, and brings wrinkles into her face, worrying.

And she accomplishes nothing with all this tremendous waste of emotion.
Things happen just as they would have if she could have remained calm and tranquil about things.—Montreal Family Herald.

date being more than six weeks after the date of the first publication of this summons, and you will take notice, if you fail to answer or otherwise appear in said suit on or before said date, the plaintiff for want thereof will apply to the above entitled Court for the relief prayed for in this complaint, on file in said cause, to wit: For a decree of the above entitled Court, that the bond of marriage now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant be forever dissolved, and that the plaintiff be granted an absolute divorce from the defendant, and that the care, custody and control of minor children of plaintiff and defendant, to wit: Iris Musgrave, a daughter, age 17 years; Mary Musgrave, a daughter, age 16 years, and Harold Musgrave, a son, age 13 years, all living at proquois, Illinois, be awarded the defendant, and for such other and further relief as to the court may seem equitable.

This Summons is published pursuant to an order of the Hon. E. L.
Beage, County Judge of the State of Oregon, for Morrow County, made in open Court at Heppner, Oregon, on the 25th day of January, 1924, said order provides that said Summons shall be published in the Lone

Getting Shaved in London

A Kansas man in London could-and a regulation chair in a London barber shop a chair in which one can take a nap while the barber operates, is in Uncle Sam's land. Instead, the customer has to sit up straight in a common kitchen chair when he gets a shave in London.—Capper's Weekly.

Ideal

The ideal situation will be attained when a car is within the reach of every man, and every man out of reach of a car.—Greensboro Daily Record.

Believe in Yourself

Self-distrust is the cause of most of our failures. In the assurance of strength there is strength, and they are the weakest, however, strong, who have no faith in themselves or their powers.—Bovee.

Work

Love your land and keep it in good rim, so that your barns may be full of provision in due season. . . .
Whatever be your fortune work is best.—Heald.

Too Much to Expect

He that would please all and himself, undertakes what he cannot do.— Dutch Proverb.
