Resolutions of Respect

In Memory of

Sister Vera Webster Jones, who died Jan. 24, '26

And when a few more days are flown,
And the last lingering and ill
gone,—
With Jesus nigh,— How blessed then to lay me down and die.

It seemeth such a little way to me,
To that strange country, the Beyond;
And yet, not strange for it has grown to be The home of those on whom we are so fond.

Again that unwelcome yet relentless visitor, death, hath entered the portals of our lodge room and summoned a dear sister to the beautiful home beyond. Her zealous work in the interest of our beloved Order and her life, laden with gentleness and kind deeds, has won for her the of the plaudit of the good Master, and will cause her name to be cherished in the affectionate memory of our lodge.

And whereas the all-wise Father has called our beloved sister to the New Jerusalem, where "happily she hath heard the signal of her release on the bells of the Holy City, the chimes of eternal peace". And she having been a faithful and ardent worker in the teaching of Friendship, Love and Truth, therefore be it

RESOLVED That Bunch Grass Rebekka

the family of our deceased sister our sincere condolence and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family.

What Caused Delay

The town of Colchester, Conn., in 1705 voted to postpone its celebration of Thanksgiving day from the first Thursday to the second Thursday in November. "The tradition is well supported," says a Nutmeg state historian,
"that the cause was a delay in receiving a supply of molasses."
